

Ratifications of Treaty Exchanged With Germany

Ceremony Which Brings Return of Friendly Relations With United States Held in Berlin.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—Ratifications of the German-American peace treaty were exchanged here last night at the foreign office between Ellis Loring Dresel, the American commissioner and Dr. Karl Wirth, chancellor and minister of foreign affairs.

The ceremony, which means a return of friendly relations between Germany and the United States, took place at 6:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It consumed less than five minutes.

This came by telephone late yesterday afternoon and the American commissioner, accompanied by Frederick R. Dolbear, secretary of the American mission, motored to the foreign office, where they were received by Dr. Wirth and Dr. Hansel Von Haimhausen, undersecretary for foreign affairs.

Both plenipotentiaries signed in duplicate, the protocol certifying that the ratifications had been duly executed. The duplicate copy of the treaty containing Germany's ratifying preamble, which will rest in the archives of the State department at Washington, is bound in dark red leather and tied with ribbons representing the republican colors of Germany.

The preamble is considerably briefer than that of the copy which Mr. Dresel delivered to the German government. It merely records the fact that the authoritative bodies of Germany have approved the treaty, and the president of Germany pledges its fulfillment.

Article 3 of the peace treaty provides that the treaty "shall take effect immediately on the exchange of ratifications." Article 3 reads: "The present treaty shall be ratified in accordance with the constitutional forms of the high contracting parties and shall take effect immediately on the exchange of ratifications, which shall take place as soon as possible at Berlin."

Advance in Price of Canned Goods Expected

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Wishing one and all a happy new year, the western canners beg to advise that the price of canned goods of every description will be sharply advanced about January 1—perhaps an average of 20 per cent.

The canners are in convention in Chicago and say the pack this year, principally of beans, peas, corn, tomatoes, fruits and salmon, will be about 7,000,000 cases short, or 168,000,000,000 cans. Of the vintage of 1920, which totalled 15,000,000 cases, very little is left. The normal consumption in the United States alone is 12,000,000 cases.

Street Rallies Will Boost Flanagan Drive

Old time street rallies with red fire, torches, bands and orators were scheduled for Omaha last night to boost the Father Flanagan boys home drive, which opens Monday.

Veteran stump speakers were to take to the "soap box" to tell of the drive and the work of the home. The meetings were to be held at Twenty-fourth and N streets at 8 p. m. and at Fifteenth and Farnam streets at 9 p. m.

The speakers were: Mayor James Dahlman, Harry B. Fleharty, Henry Monsky, and Charles Kenworthy, the boy-Bryan of Father Flanagan's home.

Merle Brehm, known as the "Kid McCormack," will sing Irish melodies. The boys' band, led by Dan Desdunes, will play.
