

Grain Exchange Gets One Reply to Protest on Rates

Senator Hitchcock Says He Will Fight Rail Bill Until Roads Put I. C. C. Order Into Effect.

The Omaha Grain exchange received yesterday one reply to telegrams of protest sent to Washington on Thursday in connection with the action of the Association of Railway Executives in opposing a reduction of 10 per cent in rates of farm products for a period of six months.

Charles H. Wright, president of the grain exchange, addressed telegrams to Senators G. M. Hitchcock and G. W. Norris and to Congressmen A. W. Jeffers and C. F. Reavis, also a telegram to the Interstate Commerce commission at Washington.

This matter up in court proceedings." The telegram sent Thursday by President Wright of the grain exchange to the Interstate Commerce commission stated that freight rates on farm products were increased practically 100 per cent since June, 1918, and added that the proposed 10 per cent reduction would afford the farmers of this territory scant relief. This message also stated that inasmuch as tariffs were not filed in accordance with the decision of the commission, it is inferred that the proposed 10 per cent reduction is meant as a substitute for the order of the commission in what is known as the "western hay and grain case."

Western States Active.

In this hay and grain case, which was brought before the commission in the names of many western organizations, including Omaha, the commission recommended that rates on corn, oats and other grains should be reduced 2 1/2 per cent on November 20 and that the rates on wheat should be reduced approximately 1 3/4 per cent.

Representatives of the grain exchange advised that railroad officials indicated that they would file tariffs before the Interstate Commerce commission in time to have the 10 per

Family Reunited After Many Years

Reunion Held at Richlin Home as Parent Arrives From Russia.

Joseph Richlin, 2709 Caldwell street, greeted his father, Simek Richlin, yesterday, for the first time since the family was separated in Russia, 11 years ago.

The elder Richlin arrived here with his only daughter, Dora, 11. Mrs. Richlin and three other daughters were slain in Minsk, Russia, by invading forces during the war.

Joseph, Harry and Isaac Richlin, brothers, were happy last night at the Caldwell street home, where they listened to the words of their father, who related incidents of the trying days since 1914.

Mr. Richlin, the father, is 58 years old. He said that nearly all of his kin were slain during the war.

Woman Badly Hurt By Deputy's Machine

Police were notified yesterday for the first time of an automobile accident last Tuesday night which resulted in the serious injury of Mrs. R. W. Friese, 3101 Avenue C.

She is in Jennie Edmondson Memorial hospital with a broken leg, broken arm, cuts about the head and face and body bruises.

The car was driven by Louie Adolphsen, who has been a deputy in the office of Sheriff Groneweg for several weeks. It is reported that after his car struck the woman in front of 505 South First street, he called a private ambulance and had her taken to the hospital.

Mrs. Friese was on her way to a party at the First street address when the accident occurred.

Policeman Loses False Arrest Case

Jury, However, Recommends That He Be Restored To Duty.

A jury in District Judge Stauffer's court returned a $1,150 verdict yesterday against Fred H. Peterson, policeman, and also recommended that he be retained on the force.

Suit was brought against Peterson and his handsman, the Liau Bonding & Surety company, by John S. McCann for false arrest and assault last November.

The recommendation of the jury read: "We, the jury, impanel and sworn in the case of John S. McCann against Fred H. Peterson, do hereby petition the city council and the chief of police of Omaha to return Peterson to the force and retain him on the force purely upon his merits."

McCann testified that without any provocation Peterson placed him under arrest, knocked several teeth out of his mouth and lodged him in jail for being intoxicated.

Peterson denied that he struck McCann and that McCann was drunk and swore at his wife as he passed a cigar store at Sixteenth and Dodge streets.

C. of C. Bureau to Compile Manufacturing Statistics

This information is being gathered for statistical purposes for the 1921 manufacturing report of the chamber.

Man, Indicted by Grand Jury At Lincoln, Arrested Here

William A. Coutant, recently indicted by the Lincoln federal grand jury, was arrested in Omaha Friday afternoon. He was indicted on five counts, charging use of the mails to defraud. He formerly was connected with farm co-operative branches at Irvington and Pawnee City.

The indictment alleges he represented himself to be a retired attorney from the east with funds from eastern capitalists to invest, and further alleges he represented himself to be organizing companies. His bond was set at $2,000.

Frank Cirian to Go to Trial Monday on Murder Charge

Frank Cirian, charged with first degree murder, will go to trial before a jury in Judge Troup's court Monday morning.

Cirian is charged with the fatal shooting of Joe Moran in "The Hole in the Wall," in the basement of the Cirian home at Twenty-second and Pierce streets.

The trial was delayed one week, due to the illness of Ben Baker, counsel for Cirian. Deputy County Attorney Ray Coffey will prosecute the case.

Harvey S. Firestone, Head of Tire Company, Visits Omaha

Harvey S. Firestone, president of the Firestone Tire & Rubber company of Akron, O., was an Omaha visitor yesterday, arriving here from Kansas City. He is having a conference with branch managers.

Mr. Firestone is of the opinion that automobile and allied industries are emerging from the after-war reconstruction period successfully, and are establishing a new and sound foundation which soon will return them to a dividend-paying basis.

The census taken this year gave continental France a population of 36,084,206, as compared with 38,468,733 10 years ago.
