THE BEE: OMAHA, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1921.

Strike Sure at Packing Plants, Says Union Head

Packer Workmen Will Not Submit to Wage Cuts, Organizer for Omaha Declares.

A strike of packing house employes positively will result as soon as the packers attempt to put into force the wage cuts agreed on by representatives of the "plant as-sembles" organization of employes yesterday in Chicago and elsewhere.

according to representatives of the unions here yesterday. "We will not submit to the cuts and it means a strike," declared James W. Burns, district organizer of Council No. 5, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of Yorth Amarica at herdenetary South Side, yesterday.

America, at headquarters. Side, yesterday. reduction is only one part general open shop drive of county jail, unable to furnish bond. "This reduction is only one part of the general open shop drive of employers which has for its object the smashing of the unions and the employers which has for its object the smashing of the unions and the ibolishment of the eight-hour day. to Nebraska farmers as a retired eastern attorney with money of wealthy clients to invest, according "The last stronghold of this drive s the railroads and the packing houses. The packers are now seek-ing to lower wages, and if they suc-ceed the way will be open to lengthen the working day to 10 or 12 hours. The natural result of this will be to throw still more men out of employ-

Lengthen Working Day.

"No strike action will be taken here till word is received from our international union officers in Chi-cago. About 5,000 workers will be affected, 4,600 of whom are members of the local union." Robert L. Rice, secretary of the district council, showed a letter from Dennis Lane, secretary-treasurer of

Dennis Lane, secretary-treasurer of the international organization, which called upon the Omaha members to exercise patience awaiting the de-cision of the international officers and urging them to "ally themselves with the union and repudiate the company unions."

Managers of the locar packing plants, however, declared they had heard no murmurs of discontent and ant cipate no trouble. "About 1,500 will be affected by wage reductions in our plant," said Oakley C. Willis, general manager here for Armour & Co. When asked nouncement that motor bus lines running to many towns outside of about a possible strike, he said, "I do not anticipate a strike nor any Lincoln during the summer have trouble at the Armour plant." Either curtailed their service as win-

E. M. Schaefer, general manager for Morris & Co., said: "We have not yet announced any reduction to our 700 employees, but we shall follow whatever wage readjustments Nebraska. the other packers make and I do not believe we'll have trouble." I no imposed to the trouble of the Two important propositions growing out of the state-wide initiation believe we'll have trouble." The employes' assembly was in conference at the Cudahy plant yes-terday to consider the wage cut. O, W Waller, general manager of Swift & Co. here, said it's "nobody's business" how many will be affected by the wage cut at the Swift plant. "I don't think we'll have any strike." ing out of the state-wide initiation of motor bus service on public high-ways during the summer months must be decided by the state railway commission in a short time. They are: Can the commission compel rail-toads to install a competing service by installing flanged-wheeled motor by installing flanged-wheeled motor busses on its lines where regular

Stock Yards Workers Vote

trains have been annulled because bi inadequate revenue? Can the commission put motor busses under supervision, the same as railroads, forcing them to maintain regular scheduled trips in winter as well as summer, give bond to the state sufficient to cover loss of life through accident and operate

Omaha during the last summer has forced consideration on both propositions and opinions by the commission are forthcoming shortly under other state regulations?

THE BRANDEIS STORE The greatest blanket values offered since prewar days. No goods sold to dealers.

Monday-Big Sale on Seventh Floor

A CHECKMATE FOR JACK FROST! 1,180 Wool Blankets

An unusual purchase and offering of wool blankets at irresistible prices. Guaranteed first quality, bought direct from the largest manufacturer of blankets in America. The lot consists of plaids, block, checks, plain gray and tan with assorted borders. Also white with pink and blue border. All of the blankets are cut single; some have threeinch soisette binding and others are neatly whipped on both ends. All are thoroughly steamed and scoured to prevent shrinking. NO PHONE OR MAIL ORDERS FILLED

Seventh Floor

We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities. Seventh Floor

The sizes are 64x76, 66x80 and 70x80 inches, and warranted to range from 50% to 80% wool filled. To appreciate these values you must see the blankets. Values from 4.50 to 7.00. Your choice of this great lot on 2.99 Monday, each,

Special Purchase of

Blankets Worth 4.50 to

7.00 offered at Low Price

Hotels, hospitals and institutions are invited to participate in this wonderful blanket sale.

Seventh Floor

Pillows at 331/3% Less Than Regular Prices

Manufacturers' Samples and Surplus Stock feather pillows, the surplus stock of a leading Chicago feather pillow manufacturer, at 1/2 or more less than their regular price.

480 Pillows-Filled with prime curled hen feathers, sanitary and buoyant; in assorted fancy ticking; size 17x24; ordinarily worth 1.25; on sale, each,

Plaid Wool Finished Blankets-5 cases in assorted colors with neatly whipped edges on both ends; size 64x76; cut single; limit of 4 1.00 to a customer. Each

For spot cash we obtained almost 1,000 These pillows are filled with feathers guar- the legislative and board of health requireanteed to be absolutely sanitary and per- ments of all states. The under mentioned manently buoyant. They are warranted to are very special offeringscontain new feathers and fully comply with > mixed feathers; absolutely resilient and sanitary; in assorted fancy tickings; size 20x27; 4 regularly worth 1.95; each.

Silkoline Comforters-Filled with a splendid quality of sanitary white cotton, beautifully scroll stitched. Both sides alike; size 72x84 in.

Exceptional value, each

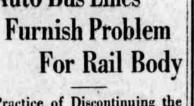

315 Pillows-Filled with a splendid quality of 137 Pillows-Filled with fine quality of mixed down, warranted sanitary and resilient; incased in linen style pillow ticking; size 20x26 2.50 inches; a splendid value; each,

> Down Comforters-Covered with the best quality of wnproof sateen handsomely scroll

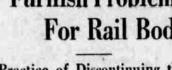

> > 14.50

stitched with 9-in, border of plain sateen to match. Positively worth 18.50, Monday

Practice of Discontinuing the Service in Winter Expected to Lead to State Probe.

Lincoln Man Nabbed

Here in Fraud Case

William A. Coutant William A. Coutant, indicted by the Lincoln grand jury for using the Coutant formerly conducted farmers' co-operative agencies in Irving-ton and Pawnee City, Neb.

On Packer Pay Reductions Chicago, Nov. 19.—Stock yards workers in plants of the "Big Five" packers throughout the middle west today were making their decision upon the wage cut fixed by the Armour, Swift and Wilson employes themselves, after inspection of their employers' books. The cut is 8 per employers' books. The cut is 8 per cent for piece workers who com-prise about half the employes and from 3 to 7 1-2 cents an hour for others. Representatives of 40,000 employes adopted the wage cut yes-terday, and it is believed that within the for four factor 12000 employes the next few days 125,000 employes in the industry will have agreed to the new scale. No change in the overtime or eight-hour day arrange-ments was made. The cut goes into ffect November 28.

Octavia Man Charged With

Forging Note for $13,000 Lincoln, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—A warrant, charging Will Hahn of Octavia, Neb., with forging the name of his father, George Hahn, 75, to a note for $13,000, was filed at David City today by J. B. Chase and C. L. Dort, assistant attorneys general. The note, it is charged, was ten-thered January 12, 1921, to a Stauart (Neb.) bank in payment of a debt the basement.

can't stand the pressure any longer." lahn's father was president of the Octavia state bank.

John Coyle Is Advanced To Assistant Fire Chief

John T. Coyle, present ranking battalion chief of the fire depart-ment, will become assistant chief December 1 to succeed George G. Crager who will retire on pension, Fire Commissioner Harry Zimman announced yesterday. By this promo-tion, Jerry Sullivan becomes rank-ing battallon chief and Battallon Lief Descile Corga and Ernest Chiefs Patrick Cogan and Ernest Newhouse are advanced a step in rank. Esau Gardiner, present cap-tain of Hook and Ladder company No. 5, will become the new battalion

Woman, Boarding Car, Hurt When Hit by Automobile

As Rose Swoboda, who lives in Sarpy county, was about to board a street car at Thirteenth and Jones streets at 6 Friday night, she was stuck by an automobile driven by foe Matezcek, Forty-fifth and Z

Matezcek put her in his car and rove to the office of Dr. J. P. Swo-boda, Twenty-fourth and N streets. The doctor said she had suffered a wrenched back and right arm. After the doctor had attended her Matezcek ook her to her home.

Clearing House Banks

Show $5,553,780 Decrease New York, Nov. 19.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $29,589,970 re-serve in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $5,533,780 from

$100,000 in Gems Loot Of St. Paul Bandits

St. Paul, Nov. 19.—Three robbers who entered the Gettleson Jewelry company store some time during the night overpowered Harry Weisman, manager, upon his arrival shortly before 8 a. m. today, forcing him to open the safe door and shut off the burglar alarm, and escaped with jewels valued at $100,000, according to the police. Weisman told the police that the men, who were armed, overpowered him and left him bound and gagged in the basement.' He said he heard owed by Hahn. Hahn is a cattle dealer and is a brother-in-law of E. A. Rusher, miss-in the store had been disconnected. ing cashier of the defunct Octavia state bank, who disappeared last July leaving a wife to his wife saying, "I police. The jewelry store is in the police. The jewelry store is in the heart of the business section.

30,000 Women Dressmakers

To Strike, Says Union Head New York, Nov. 19 .- A probable strike of 30,000 women in the dressstrike of 30,000 women in the dress-making industry in addition to more than 55,000 garment workers now idle was predicted last night by Benjamin Schlessinger, president of the International Ladies Garment Workers union. The walkout of women, he said, would be due to plans of the manufacturers at a meeting today for shop reorganiza-tion in violation of agreement with the union. the union

Road Conditions

(Furnished by Omaha Automobile Club.) Lincoln Highway, East-Reads good, Detour eight miles at Marahalitown, Reads rough Cedar Rapids and Belle Plaine. Road from DeWitt to Clinton now open. Lincoin Highway, West-Roads good. Little rough in the extreme western portion. O. L. D. Highway-Detour at Ashiand. Roads fine to Lincoln and west. No de-tour except for air miles between Im-perial and Chase. Advise parties to Den-ver to follow the pole road from Holyoke ver to follow the pole road from Holyoke to Sterling. Highland Cutoff-Roads good. S. Y. A.-Roads in excellent condition Cornhusker Highway-Roads excellent. Omaha-Topeka Highway-Roads good. George Washington Highway-Road which has been under construction is now completed. Roads fair to Slour City. Black Hills Trail-Road good to Nor-folk.

Biue Grass-Good. O Street Read-Good except detour as Brandeis bedding is made of 100% pure layer felt, well tailored in heavy grade of striped and fancy art ticking with roll edge. There is full 50 pounds in each mattress.

The Earl Mattress,	11.95	The Kapok		The Never
The Supreme		Mattress,	22.50	Mattress
Mattress,	14.95	The Paragon		The Dandy
The Mission Mattress,	18.95	Mattress,	26.50	The Stran
The Windsor	10.90	Style A Mattress,	32.50	Mattress The Sagles
Mattress,	21.50	The Plated Mattre	88, 6.75	Mattress
The Liberty Mattr	ess_Bran	deis Special nure cot	ton mattre	ss with roll a

The Liberty Mattress—branders ppecial pure cotton mat Seventh Floor

2	The Neverstretch	199
)	Mattress,	21.5	0
24	The Dandy Mattr	ess, 9.5	0
)	The Strand Mattress,	13.5	-
)	The Sagless	+0.0	. E
5	Mattress,	11.0	0
tre	ss with roll edge,	5.5	0

3.50

Thanksgiving Sale of Brandeis Mastermade FURNITURE Furniture Seventh Floor As the holidays approach and homemakers are especially concerned with getting the home in readiness for festive occasions, the Brandeis Store is launching a special sale of furniture. Stocks are new and comprehensive selections include a full range of period designs, and a wide choice of finishes. Although every piece conforms to the standards of quality, character and good taste set by the Brandeis Store, the co-operation of manufacturers and our willingness to sell at low margins, take possible values that are really above the ordinary. 10-piece Queen Ann Walnut Suite, regular price 326.25, sale price, 252.75 10-piece Queen Anne Mahogany Suite, regular price 620.00, sale price, 494.00 8-piece Tudor Walnut Suite, regular price 308.00. 10-piece Italian Renalssance Suite, regular price 450.00, sale price, 350.00 ale price, 8-piece Queen Anne Solid Mahogany or Walnut Suite, regular price 410.00; sale price, 327.00 10-piece Queen Anne Walant Suite, regular price 327.00, sale price, 254.75 S-piece Hepplewhite Solid Oak Suite, regular price 299.00, sale price, 149.00 -piece William and Mary Sulte, regular price 558,00, sale price, 442.00

9-piece Italian Renaissance Two-tone Walnut Suite, regular price 636.00, sale price, 516.50

231.25 Walnut Dining Tables, regular price 38.50, sale 29.75 Walnut Dining Room Chairs, regular price 12.00 8.50

Black Hills Trains-Road good to start folk King of Trails, North-Roads fair,rough north of Missourl Valley. King of Trails, South-Roads in excel-lent condition, Rough near Atchicon De-tour still necessary between Leavenworth and Kansas City on account of road work in progress. Biver to River-Good. White Pois-Under construction, Anita to Adair; six-mile detour just east of Casey. Fair to Des Moines. I. O. A.-Short Line-Good. Biue Grass-Good.