Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 21 .- (Special.)-After 12 years in the peni-tentiary, Frank L. Henry of Omaha will ask the state board of par dons and paroles at its meeting. De-cember 13, for commutation of the sentence he is serving for shooting and killing his wife, July 3,

Henry and his wife had had trouble and she was living with her The Bee's shoe fund. As soon as mother, Mrs. Inez Nichols, Fifteenth the money comes in they will be mother, Mrs. Incz Nichols, Fifteenth and Leavenworth streets, when he went there to see her. After a talk outside the house they agreed to get a divorce, and he started to leave when she called him back, he leave when she called him back he children are being supported by the child

'Kiss me, daddy," she said. He

"Tie my shoe," she said. He stooped to do so when she fired twice at him with a revolver, according to his story. He grabbed the revolver and fired once, killing Pleads Guilty. He pleaded guilty to a charge of his sentence of one to 20 years for amy, will be an applicant. When he was sentenced he told the court he Ontaba.

The Nord woman has called the board several times in his behalf. say?"

What could I say? I told him what we agreed, pends on arrangements he makes to wasn't it?" support his wife and three children.

Fifty-five Applicants. Fifty-five applicants altogether will asked uncertainly. Twenty appear before the board. of them are from Omaha, those be-sides Henry and Weaver being: like. I don't mind." Herbert Pierson, automobile stealing, one to 10 years; Joe Turner, drawing close to his side. robbery, 15; Raymond Lane, larceny, ders, breaking and entering, one to turned sault, two to 15; Grady Hord, for-gery, one to 20; R. T. Ritchie, rob-stream. bery, three to 15; James Roberts, breaking and entering, one to seven; Joe Elmore, shooting to wound, one to 20; Albert Bevens, assault to rob, two to 15; Earl Kline, grand larceny, one to 10; Bert Harris, grand larceny, one to seven; Samuel Harris, grand larceny, one to seven; Edward Falconer, breaking and entering, one to 10; Clark Bender, grand larceny, one to seven; and Nelson Lawson, breaking and entering, one to 10.

Four Men Fined at Geneva For Liquor Law Violation Geneva, Neb., Nov. 21 .- (Special Telegram.)-Roy Garten and Henry Morton of this county were fined $500 each for operating stills for the manufacture of liquor. Garten has just been convicted in the federal court at Lincoln and was here on parole before beginning a 30-day jail sentence. Bendy Garten and Alex Brenning paid fines. Sheriff John iones of Lincoln made the arrest of all four men October 20, assisted by Fillmore county officers. County Attorney Barsby was assisted in prosecution by Attorney Hess of Thayer county

Boy Instantly Killed As

Auto Skids and Overturns cial Telegram.)—Henry Gerdes, son happened in books. He isn't a bit of Richard Gerdes of Parker, was inor Richard Gerdes of Parker, was in-stantly killed about 10 miles east of Parker, when the auto in which ha was returning from picking corn, skidded on the slippery highway and overturned. The car was being driven by the son of a neighbor, who was not seriously injured. The driven lost control of the car and it er lost control of the car and it skidded about 40 feet before it over-Young Gerdes is survived by a father, mother, brothers and

Sioux City Hunters Find

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 21.—The body of an unidentified man with two bullet holes through his head was on this island with you?" he defound in a patch of weeds, near the manded. Sioux City limits, by two hunters Sunday morning.

Police believe the man was murdered and his pocketbook and clothing had been rifled.

McCook Hopes to Secure

McCook, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special.)—McCook expects soon to select had never seen this girl, or heard her cure an Elks lodge, an application name, and now, for her sake he was having been filed with headquarters, prepared to gamble with everything

Road Conditions

(Furnished by Omaha Auto Club.) Lincoln Highway, East—Roads good, Weather cloudy; detour eight miles at Marshalltown; road now open from Dewitt to Clinton.

Lincoln Highway, West—Now paved to Valley; roads good; weather cloud; Grand Island roads fine and weather clear.

O. L. D. Highway, Now paved to the took her hand to help her to her seat among the cushions.

lear.

O. L. D. Highway—Detour at Ashland, oads fair; to Lincoln and west roads road; detour between linperial and Chase. Highland Cutoff—Roads fair.

Cornhusker Highway—Roads good; S. Y. A. Road-Good; weather partly

King of Trails South—Roads good:
King of Trails South—Roads good:
has gone to my head, he said, shakily, weather cloudy; detour between Leavenworth and Kansas City on account of road he hardly spoke as they went home ork in progress. George Washington Highway-Roads

Wather clear most points.
Wather clear most points.
White Pole Road-Roads good; six mite detour east of Casey.
I. C. A. Shortline-Roads good.
Rius Grass Road-Roads good.
Q Street Road-Very good shape comport detour near Engle.

They're on the Shoe Fund Waiting List

No. this is not a company of Rusright here in Omaha.

They are on the waiting list of The Bee's shoe fund. As soon as warm, "I hope I soon get my shoes.

shoes on their little feet.

Each case is investigated personally by the child's teacher. Nearly

And the little girls, some of them you can to The Bee office and help sian refugees. It is just a group of just dumb in their physical misery, make one of these children happy little children of the poor who live wait for the dollars which shall put and protected against winter's cold. Previously acknowledged$252.00 E. A. S., Denison, Is, 5.00

The Fortune Hunter Of Fremont to Be Merged

(Continued From Saturday.) The Fortune Hunter thrust his then, to Anne's amazement, the Forout that the one bank could handle then, to Anne's amazement, the Forout that the one bank could handle hands resignedly into his pockets. Louis H. Weaver, the only man hands resignedly into his pockets, sentenced as a result of the court "Very well, but you'll have to do house riot, will ask commutation of the talking."

They strolled along side by side. "Last night," Annie said after a mo-Harry D. Snethen, sent from ment, "after I came in from the lattsmouth to serve a term for big- garden, Uncle Clem asked me-what do you think"

"Couldn't possibly guess!" "When we were going to be marwas "glad to take his medicine for the six weeks of happiness" he en-joyed as the husband of Esther in her voice that struck strangely Nord, 2428 South Eighteenth street, on his heart; he glanced at her quickly before he answered quietly:

> to ask you-it's what we agreed, "Yes.' He bit his lip and frowned.

"And what shall I tell him?" he She laughed at that, but rather nervously. "Tell him anything you

"You were so far away before,"

s, breaking and entering, one to turned abruptly, bringing them keys—and I am sure Tommy only again to the edge of the island on did it to please you. John."

A little steam launch was chugging here way fussily through the glistening water, driven by a man in a blazer coat and flannels. Anne gave a little exclamation,

"That's Geoffrey Foster," she said quicky. "Oh, lock! He's seen us." The man had turned and was waved her hand.

"So that's Geoffrey Foster, is it?" the Fortune Hunter said; "there known where we were. was a suspicion of jealousy in his "Is that his launch?" voice.

"Yes. He's very eligible, you know," she said mischievously. They looked after the little craft till it had chugged its way out of sight; then Anne asked suddenly: John-what was your first thought when you knew you had got all that

There was a moment of blank si-

"All-that-money!" the Fortune Hunter echoed, and his thoughts went back painfully to the moment when he had sat on the stile, his face turned to the sunset, and realpessessed in the world.

"Yes." She was looking out over the river with dreamy eyes. "It was like a fairy story, wasn't it? Uncle Clem didn't believe it when Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 21.—(Spe- I told him; he said such things anly Parker when the auto in which he been half so-so reconciled to us if you'd still been poor." The Fortune Hunter found his voice with > out it." "It made no difference to me," she said. "I was only glad because it meant that you would come home. John-were you glad, too?" He looked away from her. "If I

Body of Man; Murdered was, it was only for the same reason," he answered heavily, "because I could come home. "Has that fellow Foster ever been

"Once. I was here, and he saw me and landed. I was angry, and he never came again." He looked down at her with moody

There was a dull jealousy rising in his heart-jealousy of all that he did not know about this girl, and per-Lodge of Elks Order haps never could known.

Twenty-four hours ago-less-he

About 100 members of the order now that life held for them both. reside in this city and more in this vicinity. Local Elks are enthusiastic suddenly. "Do you know I'm hungry? I think it's because I'm so happy. "And you're happy because I'm here?" he asked, quickly.

She nodded, and moving away from him led the way back to the punt.

The Fortune Hunter could not answer. He drew her into his arms and held her fast.

"You'll never stop loving me. Omaha-Topeka Highway-Roads good; Promise! Promise!" he said, almost sather cloudy.

King of Trails North-Roads fair: wildly. Then he laughed, kissed her king of Trails North-Roads fair: and let her go. "I think happiness home. George Washington Highway Roads Tommy waited for them at the fair; weather cloudy.

Hack Hills Trail—Roads good; weather of the garden. He waved something the Fortune Hunter as they drew River to River Road-Roads good; at the Fortune Hunter as they drew near the lawn. "Keys!" he said, triumphantly. 'Keys! I wasn't going to be done, so I got old Fernie to led me his.

He's ant bunches and bunches of by using a Bee Want Ad.

big box." There was a moment of silence, other banks of the city. They pointed tune Hunter took a quick step for- the business better for all concerned. ward, snatching the bunch of keys The idea proved acceptable to the from Tommy's hand.

'How dare you interfere with any-thing of mine?" he said savagely; face was distorted with passion. quite capable of doing it for myself." Then he broke off, catching his breath "I beg your pardon," he stammered; he looked at Anne. "I lost my temper; what did I say? Tommy. lateral that is not as liquid as the body had ever spoken to him so Commercial National bank, is not inangrily before; he had always been cluded in the merger, but will ocspoiled and pampered and led to believe that everything he did was right and justifiable. He was furious at the Fortune Hunter's outburst.

Anne had flushed in distress. Tommy didn't mean any harm," she said quickly. "I know he ought not to have touched anything of yours, but I am sure he only did it to please you; he thought you wanted the boxes opened. Mr. Fernie one to seven; Michael Randall, lar-ceny, one to seven; Norris Stiles, They walked a little way in si-larceny, one to seven; Harry Saun-larceny, one to seven; Harry Saun-larceny, one to seven; Harry Saun> a second's hesitation he broke into a run, overtook the boy's halting and moved as if to draw back, bother about me; thanks ever so since 1918, when he came here from "That's Geoffrey Foster," she said much." Tommy shook his hand off. Hooper as cashier. He later suclooking towards them, and Anne no interest to me. If you've got cashier. anything to hide, you might have | Ernest Schurman founded the without another word.

break free from the fetters he had forged. Anne joined him and they walked back to the house together. She was rather pale, and she kept her eyes averted. You're angry with me," the Fortune Hunter said bluntly when they were in the hall. "You're quite right ized that 28 shillings was all he to be angry with me. I behaved like a cad." She turned eagerly.

"You didn't! How can you say such things? You were quite right to be angry. Tommy ought not to have opened your things, but he didn't mean any harm. "I know, I'm sorry, He felt absurdly sore over the whole incident. He had had no intention of ever opening those locked boxes in the empty room upstairs. There was a strange sort of superstition in his heart about them-but now his hand had been forced, and he knew that, sooner or later, the thing would have to be done. Tommy sat through luncheon silent and frowning, and all attempts to rouse him failed. Afterwards Mr. Harding the room and touched his arm.

followed the Fortune Hunter from "I'm sorry Tommy annoyed you. John; it was thoughtless of him. He had no right to touch your boxes. I'm afraid it was the bear skin that made him so eager.

"It didn't matter in the least," was the abrupt reply. "I lost my temper like a fool! I'm sorry. Tommy shall have his bear skin." But, all the same, he could not bring himself to go up to the room where John Smith's luggage stood, and the afternoon passed slowly away. The beautiful morning had turned to gray, showery weather, and the river looked sullen and de-

(Continued in The Evening Bee Tomorrow.)

Fires Destroy Large Barn

And Damage Restaurant Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Fire destroyed a large barn on the Dole place, south of town, together with about 15 tons of hay and other property. It is supposed to have been caused from spontaneous combustion, Firemen saved adjoining buildings. The place is occupied by Wes Day. Fire of unknown origin damaged the restaurant of Al Mosher at Wy-The loss is small and is covered by insurance.

Candidate for Governor

To Address Farm Meeting Table Pock, Neb., Nov. 21 .- (Special.)-A general farm meeting is to be held at the city hall in Humboldt Wednesday at 8 p. m. The annual meeting of Humboldt and Franklin townships, Richardson county, will be held at this time and place. A. Weaver of Falls City, candidate for governor, will address the meeting on "The Work of the Farm Bureau."

Dependable maids can be found

Three Banking Houses

rich, first suggesting the union to the directors after several technicalities were straightened out and negotiations commenced at once. Most of the stockholders of the new bank "If I want the boxes, open, I am have signed guarantees for large amounts against further loss on the paper that has been accepted by the new institution. The stockholders are protected against any loss by colpaper taken into the new organiza-Tommy had turned abruptly and tion. The Home Savings bank, a was limping away up the garden; no- state institution, a subsidiary of the cupy office space in the same building with the united banks. The Home Savings bank depositors are still protected by the state guarantee law. Old Established Banks. The Farmers' and Merchants' National bank a few weeks ago completed building its new home. It was organized in 1882 by George W. Dorsey under the state law. In 1884 did it to please you. John." three presidents since the bank's or-"I know." The Fortune Hunter ganization with Mr. Dorsey as its three presidents since the bank's orlooked wretched and ashamed. After head. He was followed by Robert Bridge and later by Phillip Rine, who held that position until the withdrawl figure, and laid a hand on his arm. of the charter today. I. Howard "I'm sorry, old chap; I'm a bear; Heine has been the active head of it was awfully decent of you to the Farmers and Merchants bank since 1918, when he came here from "I'm sorry I touched your beastly ceeded Will Smailes as vice president. boxes," he said fiercely, "They're and Thomas Fowler was elected said so, and then we should have Commercial bank in an old hotel building, in October, 1888. A separate His face was hard and peaked in building was copleted the next year its anger; he turned abruptly away at a cost of $25,000 and in January, 1891, the institution took up a na-If you've got anything to hide! tional charter, with Ernest Schurman The words hit the Fortune Hunter as president. He was later seucceedhard; how he loathed the whole ed by Otto Schurman, who held that beastly business, and his own weak- position until the early part of this ness which would not allow him to year, when O. F. Turner became president of the institution.

> C. of C. Secretary Resigns Because of Lack of Funds Scottsbluff, Neb., Nov. 21.-(Special.)-Because of lack of funds in the treasury of the Chamber of Commerce, Secretary J. H. Mack, who has been in that position since last April, has resigned and will quit office December 15. He will be succeeded temporarily by Miss Hester Ruckman, who has been assistant in the office for a number of years.

Bayard Red Cross Chapter Will Employ County Nurse

Bayard, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special.)
-The local chapter of Red Cross met with representatives from Bridgeport and decided to employ a county nurse for the coming year, who will report for duty January 1. Plans also were made for the membership campaign to be started soon.

questions if a GOOD

CIGAR for 5c can be had. If you're that man, wager anickel against the quality of the NEW CURRENCY. You'll lose the bet but not your nickel.

Do it today! HARLE-HAAS COMPANY Distributors Council Bluffs, Is.

85th Birthday Is

cial.)—O. A. Corbin, prominent citi- A sumptuous dinner was served confederate soldier in the party, zen of Johnson county. Civil war and the huge birthday cake contan, veteran and representative of this ed 85 miniature candles, so arranged Pependable maids can be fo veteran and representative of this ed 85 miniature candles, so arranged district in the Nebraska legislature, and colored they formed a flag. O. by using a Bee Want Ad.

Celebrated the S5th anniversary of his birth. His daughter, Mrs. V. D. Douglas, invited members of Heckston, J. W. Douglas, A. W. Buffum, athorn post, Grand Army of the Republic, to her house, Mr. Corbin becauseh, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Corbin prominent citis—A sumptuous dinner was served of the party.

Celebrated the S5th anniversary of sponses were by Judge James Living. Stroke of Apoplexy W. Robb and J. L. Young. Mr. Corbin was the oldest veteran present of the real estate firm of Greenshields, president of the real estate form of Greenshields & Everest, was confederate soldier in the party.

stricken with apoplexy Sunday and is reported in critical condition at his home, 314 Oakland avenue.

THE BRANDEIS STORE

Tuesday-A Day of Big Values

Last Minute Suggestions

for Thanksgiving Candies

Butterscotch Patties A crisp round pattie made of pure creamery butter and cane sugar; 39c per pound, Hazelnut Goodies- A delicious cream vanilla flavored fondant full of new hazelnuts, special, 49c per pound, Fruit Tablets-Small fruit tablets in all flavors; good and tart; special, 29c per pound. Main Floor-West

Table Decorations Paper Napkins-With attractive Thanksgiving designs, per 10c dozen Paper Table Covers -Seasonable de-50c signs, each, Luncheon Sets-Complete per set,

1.00 special, Turkey Cut-Outs - For decorations, per dozen, Tally and Place 25c Cards-Per doz. Greeting Cards— 5c up

Main Floor-North Goodie Baskets A unique and luxurlous center piece for your Thanksgiving table would be one of these their decorative appearance, they are delicious eatings, Jams, preserves, candies and nuts, in sealed bottles ornamented with paper flutings and ribbons, all arranged in

2.75 to 15.00 Third Floor-West Thanksgiving gilt baskets-

Utensils Nut Bowls-Mahogany finished wood, complete with cracker and six picks; special, Carving Sets-Consisting of knife, fork and steel, neatly packed in a case; 4.98 Savory Roaster-Black iron Roaster, large size, 1.49

sizes, made of rushes; special, set, 69c Fifth Floor-Center Dinnerware Glass Mixing Bowls-Set of this selling;

Heat Proof Mats-For the dining table, set of 6 assorted

5; practical shapes and sizes, priced extremely low for 1.00 White Domestic Porcelains-Made up in practical size dinner sets; specially priced for this selling: 32-piece set3.98 50-piece set7.98

Fifth Floor-East

Don't Fail to See Glass Cutting Demonstration We Cut to Order Fifth Floor-East

Special Prices on MailBoxes To co-operate with Postmaster Daniel who is conducting a campaign in Omaha for better facilities for delivering mail, we offer these special prices on mail boxes. Black Japanned Box, 19c

Steel Box-Very 49c substantial, Extra well made Box with lock and glass over 95c name plate,

Fifth Floor-Center

-Special Offering of 500 Cases of-

Cotton Batting

At Savings of 331/3% to 50%

In fact we purchased this cotton when the raw cotton market had reached its lowest point for the ye ar 1921 and because of that fact we are in a position to offer this seas onable merchandise at a remarkable saving to vou.

8-ounce Roll Cotton Batting-Our well known Champion quality, fully bleached, neatly rolled. Limit of 20 to each customer; reg-

3-pound Champion Cotton Batts-Fully | 16-ounce Roll Cotton Batting - Long bleached, hand rolled, opens up to 72x84 staple cotton, fully bleached, snow white. a full size comforter. Tuesday-opens up to 72x84 inches;

Regularly 1.15, Tuesday-

inches. One roll is large enough to make Our famous White Fawn quality; ex-55c ceptional value, Tuesday-3-pound Roll Cotton Batting-Our famous Cheese Cloth Covered Batts-Approximate White Fawn quality, pure long staple weight 3 pounds; covered with cheese

89c size 72x84 inches; worth 2.00. 1.69

cotton, fully bleached and hand rolled; cloth; renders comfort making easy;

Notions at Great Savings

Collingsbourne's Linen Finish Basting Thread—100-yard spools; 3 spools for... 10c Sanitary Aprons-A very comfortable Apron of soft rubber; regularly sold 35c at 50c; this sale Sanitary Napkins-Regularly 50 per dozen; now Steel Scissors-Good quality of Scissors, 29c 41/2 to 6 inches; special Boxed Hair Pins-Koh-I-Nor Snap Fasteners-None better made: regularly 10c per card; special Star Embroidery Cotton-All colors; per skein 5e, or 6 for Rubber Gloves-For household and laboratory use; good quality; worth 1.00 50c a pair; now Shoe and Oxford Laces-All wanted bodkins; regularly 25c; this sale Inside Skirt Belts-Black and white; all sizes King's Sewing Thread-A strong three 30c cord thread; black and white; dozen ... Shoe Trees-3 pairs for Sew on Corset Garters-Safety Pins-3 sizes; per card Vassar Beauty Pins-Garter Elastic—%-inch width in white, 10c black and gray; per yard Rubber Pants for Bables-Bloomer style; each Pin Cubes-100 pins to a cube; black, white and colors; each

-A Great Low Price Offering of-

Bed Spreads

colors; 2 pairs for

A cleanup of manufacturer's samples-in many instances, only one of a kind. These prices for such goods make this one of the most remarkable offerings of the

Bed Spreads and Sets-In Four Groups

Fine Bed Sets-An excellent quality of | Satin Bed Spreads-Scalloped edge, full spread with large bolster sham to match. About 50 in this lot and many only one of a kind. Some sold as high as 18.00; special, A Snowy White Crochet Spread-Good

large size; regularly

2.00, each, bed size; regularly 3.50 5.00; special, each, Imported Marseilles Bed Spreads-Snow white silky finish in the large size, scalloped, cut corners. These are 7.98 worth $15 today, our sale price,

-Attractive Specials in-Women's Gloves

Low Price Features Monday

Chamoisette Gioves-Gauntlets and 2-clasp | Long White Kid Gloves-12 and 16-button styles in suede finish; novelties and plain styles in shades of brown, beaver, gray, white and black; all sizes in the lot, but not every size in all colors. Regular 1.50 75c values; for Tuesday, per pair, length; overseam; sizes 6 to 7; reg. 2.85 ular 4.50 and $6 values; pair,

You may select Gloves to match your costume in the approved materials and styles of the season. Always moderately priced.

Main Floor-North