BURLESK SUPREME MOST WONDERFUL SHOW OF ENTERTAINMENT!!!

ard's "Follies of the Day," now playing at the Gayety, as burlesque supreme. But it s most certainly more than that. It's musical comedy, with trimming enough to place it in a class with some of New

PALACS The New Burlesque The New Burlesque

A fair exchange is no robbery, even in the theater. By which I meen to say, burlesque, as represented by Jean Bedini's "Chuckles of 1921," current at the Academy, has moved uptown—delightfully unchastened and unrefined. At the same time the revue type of entertainment, as represented by Mr. Zierfeld's admirable "Follies of 1920," has moved downtown and is now to be seen at the Palace Theater, with the original scenery netting as a background for a delightful evening's entertainment.

Barney Gerard's "Follies of the Day" is as far removed from the "burlesque show" of 10—even five—years ago as anything well could be. It has style, movement and a very real comedian in the speechless person of "Bozo" Snyder. And it is clean—enough! Joseph Urban's scenery looks almost as good as new, while the hangings are fresh and pictorial. The costumes by Lucille add tone to what is an almost perfect example of "the new burlesque."—Robert Garland.

"SHOW at Empire Contains Startling Innovations"

Patrons of the Empire are certainly getting more than their money's worth this week. For in addition to the usual amount of burlesque, Barney Gerard's "Follies of the Day" is giving them for a good measure a dash of grand opera, some very good instrumental music, artistic settings and gorgeous costumes direct from last season's Ziegfeld show, and an introduction so high-brow it savors of Greenwich Village Follies wit. . . All in all, it's a most unusual show to be discovered in a burlesque house at burlesque prices.

Dayton Journal, Oct. 31 "GERARD'S FOLLIES" IS BEST OF Everything from Principals to Settings
Typical of Broadway Production

Several producers whose shows have been seen at the Lyric have called them the best show in town, but they were all wrong. Barrey Gerard's "Follies of the Day" is the best show in town and the best one sent here this year.

Truly, such a fast-moving musical show has not been seen in Dayton for many a day either. The principals are excellent, scenery, by Urban, wonderful, and the chorus contains many a lass who is better than a lot of principals we have seen this year.

THIS YEAR

Broadway was robbed when Barney Gerard picked his players for the "Follies of the Day."

The chorus of this fourteenth annual tour of the Gerard show can step, sing, talk and dance and when looks are discussed these young women must receive honorable mention.

The costumes and scenery have not been surpassed in any Dayton house this year, and it is safe to say that the theater season will be far on its way before a surpassing entertainment is given.
