November Wedding.
Only relatives and intimate friends witnessed the nuptials of Miss Irma Egan and Mr. Daniel Sullivan in the winter chapel of St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church last Wednesday morning.

The bride was charming in a costume of dark blue charmeuse trimmed in grey with hat of duvelyn, and her sister Anna, as bridesmaid, was gowned in black with a panne velvet hat. Both wore corsages of roses and lilies of the valley. Sam Plamer attended the groom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. P. M. Egan. Mrs. Sullivan is a graduate of St. Francis academy and her husband completed the law course at Creighton university. They have a wide circle of friends here and upon their return from a western honeymoon will reside in the Washington Court apartments.

Tighe-McGinn.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGinn have returned from Dunlap, Ia., where on Tuesday occurred the wedding of Mr. McGinn's sister Elizabeth and David Tighe of this city.

The ceremony was performed in the Catholic church by the groom's uncle, Rev. J. J. Congdon, and two little nephews served as altar boys.

The bride's sister played the wedding march, a brother sang during the service and another sister was maid of honor. Edward Linton of Sioux City served as groomsmen. The young couple will make their home in Council Bluffs.

Thanksgiving Dinners.
Only a few functions were registered on last week's social calendar, as all interest was centered on Thanksgiving, which to some homes brought for the holiday students from nearby schools and colleges, and to many others gathering of relatives and close friends.

Following a custom established about 18 years ago, Mrs. Martha Heth and her son Stockton of Omaha, dined with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Douglas, whose other guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham and son Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. William Coppock and sons John and William and Miss Elizabeth Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stewart entertained at an evening dinner of 10 covers, followed by dancing.

A family dinner at the Emmet Tinley home included Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Tinley and children Winifred and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Folsom Everest, Dr. Mary Tinley and Miss Aurelia Tinley.

Dr. Donald Macrae and his wife entertained Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Angeline Brinsmaid, Miss Mary Key and David Rockwell.

Mrs. B. M. Sargent was hostess at a Thanksgiving dinner, her guests being Mrs. Charles Hannan, sr.; Mrs. H. H. VanBrunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, jr., and the Harry and George VanBrunt families.

With Mr. and Mrs. John P. Davis were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Davis, the R. B. Bloomers, Lamont Edsons and Mr. Joseph Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Kiplinger and sons Earl and Donald and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allison of Omaha were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore and Miss Shirley Moore.

Dining together at the Carleton Woodward home were Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and children Ann and Carleton, jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Woodward.

The W. S. Keelins spent the day at the Keeline farm with their son Frank and his wife.

A family dinner of 12 covers was given by Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Ross and one arranged for eight at the Lewis Cutler home.

W. A. Maurer had with him Mr. and Mrs. Syster of Oregon, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Maurer.

May Robson Here.

Miss May Robson, who played in Omaha last week in "It Pays to Smile," at the Brandeis, spent Friday in Council Bluffs with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Douglas, with whom she has been intimately acquainted for some time.

Mrs. Douglas had planned to entertain for this star, but she is accepting no invitations for formal gatherings since the death of her husband about a year ago, and prefers to visit informally with her friends in their homes.

Bridge Dinner.

A beautifully arranged dinner, followed by bridge, was given on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham at their home on Third street.

Chrysanthemums formed the table decorations and places were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames W. S. Stillman, H. A. Quinn, Fred Hurd, W. L. Douglas, George Wayne, William Coppock, George Wickham, John P. Davis, Harry VanBrunt, Charles Hanna, jr., Leo Wickham, Emmet Tinley, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Tinley, Dr. and Mrs. Grant Augustine, Mesdames Ernest E. Hart, Angeline Brinsmaid, B. M. Sargent, Charles Hannan, sr., and Mr. David Rockwell and Mr. and Mrs. Wickham.

Miss Earenight in Ballet.

Interesting accounts have been received from Chicago telling of the recent appearance there of Miss Frances Earenight, who as Mme. Francesca Dagmar is a member of the Pavlowa-Dukrainsky ballet now associated with the Chicago Grand Opera company.

One of the new Grecian ballets in which this artistic little dancer is scoring a great success is "The Gate of the Redemption." Gorgeous scenery is used and she and Mr. Pavlowa are the only two characters, with the exception of a young man who takes the part of a saint, and the angel, which is portrayed by a little child.

A recent edition of one of the Chicago papers shows Miss Earenight in the costume she wore last week in the ballet dance of "Sampson and Delilah."

Bridge-Luncheon.

Mrs. Oscar Baumeister entertained at a bridge-luncheon in Omaha on Saturday with Mrs. Frank Bender and these two matrons have planned another affair for tomorrow, which will also be given at the Bender home on Poppleton avenue.

Birthday Celebration.

John Coppock celebrated his 14th birthday yesterday by inviting a num-

Prune Whip.

Remove the pits from half a cupful of prunes and put the pulp through a sieve, whip the whites of three eggs and sweeten with four tablespoons of sugar, then add the prune pulp and the juice of an orange. Beat thoroughly and heap up in glass cups. Orange pulp may be used.

Courage.
To see the greatness of the little things
And still to master them; to know the height
Of sorrows known of men and gods and kings
And still to stand unshaken by their might.

To know what danger is, yet face it fearlessly;
Knowing great passion, to renounce it still;

Seeing the way is hard and cold and cheerless,
Yet treading on forever up the hill.

This is high courage; to be silent ever;
This is high faith; to smile un-tremblingly,
To set your sail unflinchingly on life's river
That bears you out to the eternal sea.

Henry Obermeyer.

Says Every Railroad Man Should Read This

Peterson's Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—Dear Sirs: I was afflicted with what the doctors said were Varicose Ulcers and up until about five weeks ago I have been treating them for about a year and five months.

With all the treatments that were prescribed to me by several doctors I received little benefit and they kept spreading and gave me much distress and caused me to quit my work.

I was induced by a brother brakeman to try Peterson's Ointment, and after I had used two boxes I saw wonderful results. You can tell suffering ones troubled with ugly, painful and horrid ulcers that your Ointment is a cure for them when everything else fails, as I have tried about everything.

"I know and dozens of people write me," says Peterson of Buffalo, "that Peterson's Ointment also cures eczema, old sores, salt rheum, piles and all skin diseases, and all druggists sell a big box for 50 cents." Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co.
