Skinner Must Submit to Quiz Before Sailing

Federal Judge Authorizes Taking of Depositions at New York, in Packing Companies' Litigation.

of the steamer which is to carry him in the city.
to Europe Saturday, Paul F. Skinner John W. Moore, negro drug addict. companies' litigation.

pany, obtained a commission from declared forfeited bonds put up for Federal Judge Woodrough, late yesterday, authorizing the depositions to be taken in New York, where Skinner now is with his wife and daughtion shall be taken by F. R. Funke, rough consented to reinstate notary public in the office of McAdoo. case, trial of which began in Cotton and Franklin, 43 Exchange afternoon.

to be gone only six weeks. Neville has asked the court to set aside the contract made a year ago when the Dold company purchased the Skinner plant. He charges viola- gaged the attention of thieves Suntion of the terms of the agreement.

Rulers of Elks Lodge

Secretaries and exalted rulers of all at Lincoln with both district deputies of the state, Cliff Crooks of Fairbury and C. A. Bessie of Kearney, according to a letter received yesterday by Otto Nielsen, secretary of the Omaha Elks, from Charles A. McCloud of

The conference will be held for the purpose of increasing activities and membership. Similar meetings are being held in every state.

Girl Seeks More Time to Decide on Return of Ring Pretty Anna Barmish, 18, 2624 Charles street, gave her former lover, Max Bernstein, 505 South Eleverally yesterday morning in three lower taxes and decrease distribution that the propin valued at $100.

Yesterday in muicipal court she to defraud, United States Attorney asked for a week's continuance of Kinsler, said. the case to think further on the matter. Meantime Constable F. W. Elliott, 38; E. B. McCormick, 30, McGinnis has the ring, while the and E. R. McCormick, 28.

Traffic Safety Officer

Failure of Special Traffic Safety Officer James Cohn to appear in police court yesterday morning to prosecute Dr. C. A. Sorenson, 8420
North Thirtieth street, resulted in North Thirtieth street, resulted in Roller Footer recommending the re-Police Foster recommending the re-vocation of his officer's permit. Chief Dempsey immediately notified traffic safety committee.

Oklahoman Wants His $44;

Omahan Haled Into Court | Poppleton avenue. Thomas Aubrey, Oklahoma City, Achille Pans, who is said to have ob-

Arthur, who lives at 316 South to the owner." Twenty-sixth street and makes doughnuts, summoned into Justice L. N. Bunce's court yesterday to show reason why he should not pay

Man, Alleging Attack, Sues

company yesterday. He alleges that a driver for the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that W. M. Gaines, local manager for the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and that the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the unloading of a shipment of goods in front of his store and the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 2 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 3 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 3 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 3 when he objected to the company assaulted him December 3 when he objected to the company ass the company, made derogatory re-marks regarding Jackson's credit.

Burglars Steal Candy,

Burglars removed the iron grating from a window of the Kopp Freiden Candy company store, 1714 Nicholas street. Sunday night and stole 83 pounds of candy, a case of candy coating worth $25 and $50 in cash. Burglars broke into the store of European Cash, Cigarets and Food Burgiars broke into the store of Harry Mitchakes, 316 South Tenth street, Sunday night through the back door and stole cigarets and case under the ruling. foodstuff to the value of $20.

Few Ex-Service Men Renew

Their War Risk Insurance Ex-service men who care to renew their war risk insurance have hot tamale factory, was fined $100 in until December 31 to do so. War Central police court yesterday Risk insurance week opened yester-day morning, with headquarters in being the keeper of an ill-governed Room 11, Army building, Fifteenth house. Houston, so the testimony and Dodge streets. According to Miss Florence Barr, in charge of the white girls to work in his factory, work, only a few applications were which is located at 1310 Jones street.

Will Lecture in Omaha

L. W. Rogers, president of the American section of the Theosophical society, will deliver the first of two lectures this evening in Theosophical hall, Leflang building, Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue. His archive the supports of the Suspects—John the southern states these coins were called "bits," and from their value two "bits" made a quarter. The coin is obsolete but the value remains.

Copyright, 1921, Wheeler Syndleate, Inc.

Held as Suspects—John the Sixth Ne-branch and the value remains.

Copyright, 1921, Wheeler Syndleate, Inc. sophical hall, Leflang building, Six-teenth street and Capitol avenue. His subject will be "Dreams and Pre-monitions." On Wednesday evening are being held for investigation in

Government Loses First Criminal. Case At This Term of Court

The government lost its first criminal case at this term of court when Bernard Murphy was pronounced "not guilty" by a federal jury which heard evidence against him for violating the Harrison act.

Evidence again Murphy was largely circumstantial. The landlady of the rooming house in which Murphy was arrested, relied on by the gov-Before he walks up the gangplank ernment as a chief witness, is not now must give important depositions in narrowly missed sentence by default, the pending Dold-Skinner Packing yesterday. When four cases against him were called, directly after the Arthur Mullen, attorney for Keith Murphy jury went out, Johnny was Neville, receiver for the Skinner com-

r Virginia. son, also absent, had been called when The order specifies that the deposi- Johnny appeared. Judge Wood-

When he obtained passports several weeks ago, Skinner stated he expected Three Autos Stolen; Three Are Recovered Hearing Postponed

Automobiles and accessories enday. A car belonging to R. B. Moore, 629 First avenue, Council Bluffs,was stolen from Sixteenth and Douglas streets. One belonging to To Meet in Conference eighth street, was stolen from in R. D. Rowsen, 126 North Twentyfront of the Strand theater. R. Johnson, Salvation Army home, Elks lodges throughout Nebraska was arrested by Officer Summit will meet in conference December 18 while trying to force his way into the Horshoe tireshop.

Three automobiles, each with broken wheel, were recovered. One of these was the car store.

Ed Simon of Simon Bros. Sheriff Benton of Lexington, Neb., reported York, Neb., member of the grand the finding of this car on the Lincoln highway. Two other cars were found, one at Thirtieth street and Poppleton avenue, and the other at Thirty-eighth and Cuming streets.

Three Men Accused of enth street, the laugh a week ago hotels, on complaint of Adolph costs. They explained that the pro-when he started a replevin action to Schneible,909 Capitol avenue, that posed annual increase of $40,000 in recover a $600 diamond ring and a they had swindled him out of $5,000 wheel tax rates would have to be will face charges of using the mails added to overhead expenses and pin—well, Anna said she lost it.

Max gave Anna the ring in the long, long ago. Now he is married.

Schneible said the men sold him a special committee to submit an ordinance for the regulation of truck tonnage and travel. the housewife world and make enormous profits for the lucky ones Ordered to Turn in Badge who got in on the ground right, premises owned by him at northeast tory property and valuable irrigated corner of Twenty-second street and beet lands.

Thomas Aubrey, Okianoma City, says in a letter to his attorney in Omaha, William P. Kelly: "Run down Arthur Bayles and get that $44 is alleged intoxicating liquors have been sold in the premises, "thereby been sold in the premises, "thereby Accordingly, Attorney Kelly had causing right of possession to revert

Traffic Officer Protests

Dismissal of Speeding Case L. L. Oberlin, private detective, who acts as a traffic safety officer, has written an open letter to Police Rubber Company for $7,500 Foster, protesting against began before District Judge Troup yesterday. rested by Oberlin last week because Phillip Jackson, 508 North Six-teenth street, filed suit for $7,500 Oberlin was five minutes late in ap-against the United States Rubber pearing to testify in police court. Robnett's

Judge Holds All Evidence

Is Good in Federal Court case under the ruling.

Hot Tamale Manufacturer

Is Fined in Police Court William Houston, proprietor of a hot tamale factory, was fined $100 in

Children Shiver For Lack of Shoes

Pythian Sisters of Elkhorn Send Contribution to The Bee Fund.

So runs the innocent rhyme of

But, alas! For many of the poor little innocents the cows do not give shoes "for on their feet. And those little feet are cold and will be cold unless enough money comes to The Bee's fund to buy shoes for them. Little boys and girls are shivering as they wait for the shoes some of your money can buy. Can you afford to pass them by Open up your heart to them and end your contribution to The Bee Freviously acknowledged G. F. W. Cozad, Neb.

Mrs. Hortense E. Griffith
Mrs. C. C. Shrimer
M. Libberman, Friend, Neb.

In Railroad Tax Case "Say that again-and I'll . . ." Then all at once he fell back,

By agreement of Attorney Gener-al Davis, representing W. H. Os-borne, state tax commissioner, and counsel for the Chicago and Northwestern, and Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Omaha railroads, hearing on a temporary injunction to restrain Osborne from collecting 1921 taxes has been continued from De-

Both parties agree to be ready or the hearing in January or within 30 days from the original date set. Three federal judges will sit in this case, according to Judge Woodrough.

Wheel Tax Increase Not

The city council agreed yesterday norning in committee of the whole to postpone enforcement of a recent ordinance which increased the wheel tax schedule, beginning January 1, "Clothes Line" Swindle 1922. This action was taken at the earnest solicitation of business inter-1922. This action was taken at the ests whose representatives stated Three men who were arrested that an effort now is being made to eventually would be paid by the > consumers. City Commissioners J. B. Hum-John Hopkins and Joseph Kontsky were appointed to serve as

Bayard Sues County in

Protest to Tax Increase Bayard, Neb., Dec. 5.—(Special.)
-A tax test suit has been brought by R. C. Bassett in behalf of the city Bayard against Morrill county. The board of equalization raised alone. I shall be all right in the dread knowledge that by accepting Bayard personal taxes 20 per cent morning." Alleges Liquor Is Sold
"A man who ordered pop there was citizens claim that the increase was the stairs, saw the look of respair carried; and yet—what could be do?

Tommy, creeping inquisitively up load of debt and deceit he already the stairs, saw the look of respair carried; and yet—what could be do?

There were but two alternatives—to the Forume Hunter's face as he Joseph Bonifante for possession of taxes, on account of the sugar fac-

Hurrying Police Surgeon Dr. W. T. Rance, a police surgeon, and Dan Whitney were discharged in police court yesterday morning. Their automobiles collided Saturday Twenty-fourth and California, and they were booked on charges of reckless driving.

Murder Trial Opens. The trial of Thomas McGuigan, charged with first degree murder,

McGuigan shot and killed Charles negro, on October 18, at Robnett's home, at 2419 Patrick

The shooting, the state claims, resulted during a drunken carousal.

Parents' Problems

Should a boy of 12 be given an allowance, or should he earn it? As members of the family each "Any evidence obtained by state child should share in aspects of famshould begin very early to learn the value of money, also to learn how-to spend wisely. Therefore, he should have an allowance on the basis mentioned above.

Where It Started

"Bits."

The expression "two bits," meaning a quarter of a dollar, or "four bits," 50 cents, etc., comes from the early use of the Spanish real as a coin in the United States. The real, having a value of one-eighth of a dollar, was called the "New York subject will be "Dreams and Premonitions." On Wednesday evening he will speak on "Self Development and Power."

14 Army Recruits Leave

Omaha by Auto for Posts
If you want an auto trip, join the army.

Fourteen recruits, recently enlisted at Fort Crook, started for Fort Riley and Fort Snelling yesterday by auto.

This is Uncle Sam's latest order with respect to transporting recruits to posts in the Seventh army corps area.

Son, F. J. McKinnon and James Lynch, living at the Douglas house, are being held for investigation in connection with robbery of the Meld for investigation in connection with robbery of the Neble-Overholt Jewelry company Thursday.

Dr. Aitchson to Speak—Principal address at the annual banquet of the Baptist social and missionary union of Omaha at the T. W. C. A. at 6:30 the evening of December 15 will be made by Dr. D. Y. Aitchson to Speak—Principal after a short linea. She had lived by her husband, three daughters and four sons.

Fine Baptist social and missionary union of Omaha at the T. W. C. A. at 6:30 the evening of December 15 will be made by Dr. D. Y. Aitchson to Speak—Principal after a short linea. She had lived by her husband, three daughters and four sons.

File Ekall died yesterday at a hospital. The funeral will be held at 3:36 tomornous at the Crosby-Moore funeral home.

This is Uncle Sam's latest order with respect to transporting recruits to posts in the Seventh army corps area.

Fine Ekall died yesterday at a hospital after a short linea. She had it was formation of Omaha and Tilton of San Union of Omaha and Tilton of San Union of San Diego. Cal.

Funeral services for Mrs. Tetta Brandon, will be held at her home. 2012 Cass atreet, this mon. 62, wife of Rev. A. Branson, will he held at her home. 2012 Cass atreet, this mon. 62, wife of Rev. A. Branson, will he held at her home. 2012 Cass atreet, this mon. 62, wife of Rev. A. Branson, will he held at her home. 2012 Cass atreet. Will he held at private of the was formation of the held at private of the was formation. The funera Best for Colds Builds New Strength.

The Fortune Hunter

"My dear fellow, no doubt this is all very interesting, but why on earth you should tell it to me I quite fail to understand..."

The Fortune Hunter answered shortly:

"I've got a vile headache." to understand-

Geoffry Foster flushed dully, and for the first time the bitter hatred he felt for the oFrtune Hunter shone in his eyes. "Because you are the man I saw San Francisco," he said savagely. "I had my suspicions the other night, but I was not sure until this afternoon, when I saw you in that woman's company. I recognized her at once." He laughed sneeringly.

'You've altered since those days! You've dropped the scallywag and turned gentleman."

There was a profound silence, then the Fortune Hunter turned round and looked him full in the eyes. "And how are you going to prove all these interesting statements?" asked calmly. "After all, it's only your word against mine, you know! "Deny it!" said Foster. "It will only be one more lie added to the arm. many you have told since you came

For a second the Fortune Hunter stood like a man turned to stone, he caught Foster by both shoulders with savage hands.

to Somerton."

shaking in every limb and breathing hard. "I beg your pardon-I beg your pardon," he said hoarsely. He stood for a moment, trying desperately to recover his self-control, then he walked to the door and flung it cpen. "Get out," he said thickly, and again, "Get out," and Geoffry Fos- ed him. ter went, with a last backward triumphant smile.

The Fortune Hunter dropped into a chair. Tommy came to the door and peered inquisitively at him.

"I say, John, what's up with everyone tonight?" he asked un-easily as the Fortune Hunter start-To Be Enforced at Present Tonmy," he said. He walked out of the room, leaving Tommy with a queer expression of cunning on his thin face. "Nothing I need worry about, eh?

. ." he muttered as he looked after the Fortune Hunter's tall fig-The Fortune Hunter looked everywhere for Anne after Geoffrey Foster had gone, but the drawing room was empty, and the dining-room, and it was only after inquiring of one of the maids that he was told she had

A headache! As excuse to be rid of him, not to see him again that night; the Fortune Hunter went upstairs two steps at a time and knocked at her door, gone to bed with a headache.

He was feeling desperate; he did not fear Foster, or Fernie, or any of the people who might suspect him and make idle threats, but he was half-mad at the thought of Anne turning from him.

"Anne . . . Anne . . ."

She did not answer at first, and twas only when he knocked again that he heard her voice. "My head aches-please leave me

Cohn to turn in his badge and to refrain from any further activities contained in a petition filed in muniin connection with the work of the cipal court yesterday afternoon by the county and pays two-thirds of the room, and he smiled, well pleased.

There were but two alternatives—to turned away and went to his own throw up the sponge and make a clean breast of everything, or go on the county and pays two-thirds of the county and pays two-thirds of the county and himself trapped in He had never really forgiven that affair of the keys and the opened sort of nature that brooded over an box; his was a curiously twisted imagined wrong long after a broader-minded person would have forgotten all about it, and it seemed to him, in spite of the patched-up short. peace between them, that it would be rather a fine thing to get his own back on the Fortune Hunter.

study with Geoffry Foster, and his shrewd mind had already made four out of less than two and two. His own room was next to the Fortune Hunter's and for half the night lying awake Tommy could hear the sound of restless pacing up and down, up and down.

It was only when daylight came that, worn out, the Fortune Hunter threw himself, still half-dressed, on the bed and fell into a heavy sleep. He woke unrefreshed and with a stabbing headache, and was late for all throat troubles.

Medicine

Bronchitis, Asthmaand

NO DANGEROUS DRUGS

By RUBY AYRES. "Couldn't you sleep?" Tommy wish you'd come to me before. No wonder you look worried to deat you walking about the room ever so There—run along and find Anne."

"I've got a vile headache." He did not glance at Anne, or he would have seen the look of tender concern that flashed into her eyes. though she lowered them instantly She, too, had passed a wakeful night, torn between the growing sus-picion in her heart which would not be killed and her love for this man. lie to her or deceive her or play her

She saw that he looked ill, and fimsy dancing pumps and those desperately unhappy, and her heart gauze silk stockings. There's about ached for him; she would have followed him into the garden after breakfast but that Mr. Harding forestalled her and called to the Fortune Hunter to wait for him as he strolled off alone across the grass. The Fortune Hunter turned, brac-

The Fortune Hunter turned brac-ing himself with an effort, and Mr Harding laid a friendly hand on his "Who said you were fat?" indig-Harding laid a friendly hand on his "Is anything the matter, John?" he asked in kindly fashion. don't look yourself this morning."

but it was not much of a success, and Mr. Harding went on: times, when women lived all day "If it's anything to do with busilong in the caves, while the men ness, and I can help you in any way, were out fighting mammoths and I shall be only too pleased—" he boaconstrictors, nature supplied this glanced up into the young man's extra layer to keep them warm. So haggard face and added: "I hope you will look upon me as a friend. It "Nonsense. You're no cave t's a question of money—" woman. The Fortune Hunter seized des- flower." it's a question of money-

"I'm afraid you've got it, sir," he men I never would have accepted Tobe wants as little publicity as "I'm atraid you've got it, sa, a draft you!" said shakily. "The fact is, a a draft you!" So they went their way to dine the rats hear of it they will begin I've been expecting hasn't come, and I've been expecting hasn't come, and I'm . . . I'm in the dickens of a with some friends on upper Madison flocking back. now. "It sounds abserd, I know." It seemed, when they started for home, with the long ride to the deshillings in the world."

The Wild Onion school teacher says a person feels smarter after he discovers that somebody else hasn't shillings in the world."

Mr. Harding laughed too, and war on mankind. clapped him on the shoulder.
"Well, well, why didn't you tell me? I can help you out, of course.

the windfall Anne told me you scooped over those gold mines?" The Fortune Hunter looked away. "Roughly-a quarter of a million. believe. The money's there all right; it's only that just for the present I . . . ."

"Say no more. You shouldn't have left yourself with such a small margin, though. Come along to my study, and I'll let you have a check." They went back to the house tohis desk and took out a check book "How much shall we say-a couple of thousand pounds?"

The Fortune Hunter caught his breath with a harsh gasp. more if you like," Mr. Harding went on casually, his face bent over his writing. "Look here, I'll make it 2,500; that will see you through the wedding and all the rest of it comfortably-eh?" The Fortune Hunter tried to find his voice, but failed. His enormous relief was almost outweighed by the this money he was adding to the load of debt and deceit he already until he found himself trapped in the network of his own lies.

With an effort he forced himself to speak. "Two thousand will be ample, sir . I don't know how to thank I-" Mr. Harding cut him

It's not as if you were never going back on the Fortune Hunter.

He had overheard something of the conversation that evening in the study with Geoffry Foster, and his John, and here's 20 pounds in notes!" He laughed. "Fancy you with only five shillings in your pocket! What in the world would Anne say if she He pushed the check and notes

BORSINI TROUPE. Spectacular Globe Equilibriata; McGREEVY & DOYLE in "Motor Difficulties;" GORDON & DELMAR, Comedy Delineators from Daffyland; THE DORANS, Just a Boy and a Girl.

loved to

Stoplay Attraction, "WITHOUT BENEFIT OF CLERGY"

Rudyard Kipling's Without Benefit of Clergy across the desk, and the Fortune said about cave women? And any Hunter took them up reluctantly.

"It's more than good of you—" he began, hoarsely, but Mr. Harding would not listen. "Nonsensel I wish you'd come to me before. No Women's fashions are always so work. much more sensible than men's wonder you look worried to death.

vanity!" (Copyright, 1221, Thompson Feature

Dog Hill Paragrafs

"My dear child, why on earth did you come into town in this zero ing great pride in his new pair of weather, dressed as you are?" degaiter shoes, got accidentally caught manded Jack, as he met Jill at the out in the rain with them last Sun-

"But my furs are warm, dear, You which told her that he would never paid enough for them to keep them "The furs, yet, but look at the station.

Jack and Jill

as much warmth in them as in a coal dealer's heart!" "I'm perfectly comfortable," Jill answered disdainfully. "It is not necessary for women to wear such heavy clothes as men, anyway-for nantly demanded Jack. "Oh, I read it in some old scien-"You tific book." "How did it say you had an extra

The Fortnue Hunter tried to laugh, layer of fat?" "It said that from prehistoric times, when women lived all day boaconstrictors, nature supplied this > You're a dainty little "Jack, you're very sentimental to-night. If you hadn't been a cave Mosely passed away this week.

as much sense as was at first sus "Aren't your ankles cold, dear?" asked Jack, solicitously.
"Of course not! My stockings know its only a temporary embar- are silk. But, Jack, your ears must "Not at all. But I do wish that car would come." He peered up the long, windy street, but there wasn't a street car > Jill was jiggling her feet and Jack caught her rubbing one ankle against the other. "Now. I think that's idiotic," he said. "Just to be fash onable, you make a martyr of yourself and die of pneumonia. "Why don't you turn up that big gether, and Mr. Harding unlocked collar about your cars, dear," was the response. It was nearly half an hour before the car came. Jill could tell that Jack was miserable with the cold, as they rode home on the train. But he would not admit it. "Dear, your ears look so funny." she said when they got in the house. "They're positively purple!" Jack rubbed them ruefully, and peered into a mirror.

"By Jing, they're frost bitten, I'll have to put some cracked ice on them." And he did. them." And he did.
"Well, you were too fashionable to turn up your coat collar!"
"Yes, Jill, but you didn't turn up yours either. I don't understand

Only Five Days More

11, 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 O'Clock Shows:

Advance

Jewel, Flower, Color Symbols for Today

By MILDRED MARSHAL. The talismanic gem for today Is the emerald, which on this occasion s most potent in bringing to those who have passed middle age a rejuvenation of spirits and reawaken-The natal stone for today is the topaz, which, freeing its wearers from the effects of old fears and past unhappiness, and in restoring the happiness of youth.

The color for today, deep green, is also significant for those who re-fuse to welcome old age, since it is symbolic of spring and new growth. (Copyright, 1921, by Wheeler Syndicate.)

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives House-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, re-cently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a haif pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 14 ounce of These ingredients can be purtle cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not

Rifle Milk Company's Safe TODAY AT 11-1-3-5-7-9 Beatrice, Neb., Dec. 5. — (Special Telegram.)—Thieves last night rifled Feature 40 Minutes Later the safe in Davidson's milk depot and Box seats reserved for escaped with $290. all 7 o'clock shows

day, and now Sidney Hocks says

Clab will have to put some washers on his ankles to take up the slack.

up the liver and keep the bowels regular. Carter's Little Liver Pillsnever fail. Millions will testify that there is nothing 50

nothing so good for bil-

Spisum Orbhoum MAL DAILY, 2:15; EVERY NIGHT, 8:15
RALPH RIGGS & KATHERINE WITCHIE:
GEORGE McKAY & OTTIE ARDINE:
FRANKER WOOD & BUNEE WYDE;
QUIXEY FOUR: Neal Abel; Palmero's Circus; Juggling Nelsons; Aesoo's Fables; Toole of the Dey: Pathe Weekly. Mats., 15c to 50c; some 75c and 81 Sat. and Sun. Nights, 15c to $1; some $1.25 Sat. and Sun, When an Arab sees a woman he wants-he takes her. ENLARGED

LOUISE FAZENDA CHESTER CONKLI in "A RURAL CINDERELLA"

ORCHESTRA

HARRY SILVERMAN, Director Miss Skeen, Harpist

Geo. Haupt, Organist

Nights-700 Balcony Seats .....40c Main Floor 50c-Boxes ......60c MATINEES ALL THIS

WEEK UNTIL 6:15, 35c

Now Showing Gloria

A star with the beauty, dash and allurement that make her unique on the screen.

A story of woman's relation to marriage and to man-made rules about love.

Also Showing Educational-Mermaid Comedy

"HAM" HAMILTON in "THE ADVISER"

THE FAMOUS RED BOOK STORY

GIRLS By the OODLE To Turn Your MOODLE Ladies' Tickets, 15c-30c Every Week Day Sat. Mat. & Wh.: Lew Kelly as "Fuller Bull." "Lectures by Noted Theosophist" Mr. L. W. Rogers, National President American Section Theo-

FLASHLIGHTS OF 1922 BURLESK

Shorty'-McAllister & Shannon-Harry

Mahlon Hamilton

sophical Society, lecturer and author of international fame, will give two lectures in Theosophical hall, 215 Leflang Bldg., December 6 and 7, at 8:15 p. m.

Tuesday Evening, Dec. 6 "Dreams and Premonitions" Wednesday Evening, Dec. 7
"Self-Development and Power" The Lectures Are Free. The Public Is Invited.