naval powers of the Hughes proposal for the reduction and limitation of navies. 2. Maintenance of the status qu:

of naval bases and fortifications in the western Pacific.

Submission of any question of the disturbance of the status quo or other differences in regard to the situation in the Pacific to a conference of the powers participating in the agreement, with a view to reaching the amicable settlement by discussion. Great Britain has accepted the proposed plan and a reply from Tokio is now being awaited. It will not be submitted formally to the United States until England and Japan are ready to endorse it formally, but it has been discussed by Sec-retary Hughes, Mr. Balfour and Baron Kato, and the American delegate indicated the scope of an un derstanding into which the United States would be disposed to enter. Striking Butchers Assembled at Plants.

No Violence Is Offered

Cold steel chilled the ardor of 2,000 striking butcher workmen who congregated on Q street between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-eighth streets last night as nonunion employes were leaving the Armour and Swift plants. Their shouts of derision alarmed police stationed in the vicinity, who feared they would be unable to cope with the crowd if they became troublesome.

A riot call was sent to the Central police station and five automobile loads of Omaha police armed with riot guns and bayonets were rushed to the scene. Traffic officers were taken off the downtown streets and volunteers from the Chamber of commerce traffic committee took their places.

Police Disperse Crowd.

Inspector Andrew Pattullo, Captains Briggs and Allen and Sergeants Coffey, Morton and Gardner headed the squad of 50 policemen, who arrived at the scene just as the trolley had been pulled off of a street car. With fixed bayonets the police broke up the crowd and got them moving from the scene. No violence was offered except by one man, who hurled a paving brick through a window of the car. But five arrests were made on the South Side yesterday. The charges were drunk-enness and disturbing the peace.

Police Strike Schedule.

Numerous cases of hurling of bricks, fighting and jeering marked the progress of the strike of packing house workers yesterday and Tuesday night while both strikers and packers claimed gains.

Chief of Police Dempsey Tuesday night, put the entire police force on a strike schedule in an order that all members of the force shall work on 12-hour shifts instead of their usual eight-hour schedules. The or-der will be effective as long as the strike lasts. It has the effect of increasing the number of policemen on duty 50 per cent.

Numerous arrests were made and several men and women were fined in South Side police court yester-day for violence growing out of the strike. Large details of po-lice are constantly at the South Side station ready to make quick runs to scenes of reported disturbance.
