Wife Back to Store; Hubby Asks Divorce

Maudie Landstrom, 22, who was sued for divorce in district court yesterday by Alden Landstrom, 24, has returned to a counter in the 5 and 10-cent store where she worked before taking upon herself the duties of a housewife two years ago. They were married December 29, 1919. Her husband alleges in his petition that Maudie has been abusive and nagged him so that he could not sleep. He also charges that she asked for separate maintenance after they had agreed upon parting, to support themselves independent of each other.

Fourteen I. W. W. Arraigned In Police Court; Two Jailed Fourteen professed members of the I. W. W. were arraigned yesterday in Central police court on charges of vagrancy. They were arrested Thursday night when police raided the I. W. W. hall, 519 North Sixteenth street.
Joe Kubby of St. Paul, Minn., Maudie has been abusive and nagged him so that he could not sleep. He also charges that she asked for sep-
