

Elk Women Give $25 to The Bee Free Shoe Fund

Pleasant Hour Club to Tekamah Sends Part of Proceeds From Bake Sale.

"Omaha drove No. 1. Benevolent Protective Order of Dees, heartily endorses your shoe fund and encloses a check for $25 to help supply stout shoes to accompany the stout little hearts that beat beneath many ragged jackets," says a welcome letter received from a good organization.

The Pleasant Hour club in Tekamah held a bake sale and sent part of the proceeds to the fund. With Christmas coming, there are still many little feet of the children of the very poor unprotected from winter's cold. Boys and girls shiver at night in their wretched homes and can't go out in the daytime because they have no shoes.

Make checks payable to The Bee Shoe Fund. Send money addressed to The Bee Shoe Fund.

Omahan Wins Highest Scholarship at Harvard

Sol A. Rosenblatt of Omaha won the highest scholarship award at Harvard university, according to a news dispatch from the east yesterday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rosenblatt, 401 South Thirty-eighth street.

Brief City News.

Asks $15,000 for Allegation—Mrs. Ida Seymour brought suit in district court yesterday against Mrs. Mary L. Haden, alleging Mrs. Haden had alienated her husband's affections, and asked $15,000.

Dinner Dance—The Advertising-Selling League will hold a Christmas dinner and dance at the Hotel Fontenelle Monday evening. Two hours of dinner, addresses and music will be followed by four hours of dancing.

Climbs Building—F. O. Johnson, a stepladder from Minneapolis, thrilled a large crowd by climbing to the roof of the First National bank building and then to the 45-foot pole and gilded the ball at the top.

Judges and Jurors Idle—Though nearly 2,500 civil and criminal cases are on the district court docket, one-half the judges and a majority of the jurymen were idle yesterday because there were no cases ready for trial.

"Secret" Conference—Gus Hyers, state sheriff, and Tom Carroll, federal prohibition officer from Lincoln, were in Omaha yesterday and held a secret conference with U. S. Holzer, federal prohibition chief for Nebraska.

Pioneer Dead—Gerhardt Henry Meyer, 63, died yesterday at his home, 5014 Nicholson street, after a short illness. He has been a resident of Omaha for many years. His wife, a daughter, Maria, and a son, Jay, survive him.

Schools Dismissed—The spirit of the holidays pervaded the public schools yesterday, when 30,000 school children and more than 1,000 teachers were dismissed for the Christmas holiday season, which ends January 3.

Considering Protest—The action of the city council considering the protest of 18 citizens living near Thirty-eighth and Davenport streets, against the building of an apartment house in that vicinity, was postponed until Tuesday.

Jurors Sick, Trial Stops—The jury in the case of Virgil and J. N. DeFrance, seeking to oust their stepmother, Mrs. Martha DeFrance, from their home in Dundee, was dismissed Thursday, when two of the jurors became suddenly ill.

Creditors Get Money—By transfers recorded with the register of deeds, creditors of the North American Hotel company receive $38,227 as their share of a third mortgage of $245,000 on the Blackstone hotel, which A. L. Schantz held as trustee.

Omahan Wins Scholarship—Sol Rosenblatt of Omaha won the highest scholarship award at Harvard university, according to a news dispatch from the east yesterday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Rosenblatt, 401 South Thirty-eighth street.

Shipment of Drugs—A quantity of drugs seized in Omaha on numerous raids by federal agents, was shipped from Omaha to Washington, D. C., Thursday to be used in hospitals and dispensaries. The value of the shipment was about $20,000.

Air Crash Victim Leaves—Miss Lucy Atkinson, former Hotel Fontenelle musician, whose right leg was amputated following an airplane crash during the International Aero congress here, left Omaha for her home in Detroit, Mich., Thursday.

Laughs in Jail Cell—Frank Humball, 40, packing house worker, laughed heartily in his cell in the county jail yesterday, when informed that the county attorney would file charges of bigamy against him. "Absurd," he said, "why I have only one wife."

Seeks Annulment—Suit for annulment of the marriage of Benjamin Minkin, 17, to Rose Kohlberg, 16, was filed yesterday in district court by Louis Minkin, 237 North Eighth street, the boy's father. They have not lived together since the wedding, last June, Dies—Mrs. DePhi Hamilton, 33, a Red Cross nurse during the world war, died at a local hospital Thursday. She was a member of the American Legion and a military funeral will be held Sunday from the Bohemian National hall, Twenty-first and U streets, at 2.

Suspects Are Punished—Harold (Shorty) McLaughlin, federal prisoner, and Lester Bailey, alleged automobile thief, suspected of being involved in the plot to bring about a wholesale break in the Douglas county jail, are being punished with solitary confinement and a bread and water diet.

"Hot Dog" Barred—"Hot Dog," a periodical shipped to news dealers via express rather than through the mail, so that the federal officers cannot seize the copies, will be sold by dealers with the chance of being seized into court on a state complaint, according to Commissioner Denn. The periodical is said to be a bit spicy.
