

Christmas Programs at Social Settlement

Christmas week at the Social Settlement is just filled with interesting entertainments.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the music section of the Omaha College club will present a program for the children of the Settlement, under the direction of Miss Avis Roberts, as follows: Concert solo, Paul Swoboda; reading, Margaret Magolin; violin solo, Yetta Simon; vocal trio, Mrs. J. E. Wallace, Mrs. A. F. Leermakers, Miss Avis Roberts; instrumental quartet, John Reager and Fred Minor, violin; Carl Thomas, cello; Mable Hendrickson, piano. Rev. W. N. Wallace will speak.

The College club will hold its annual meeting at the Settlement Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The afternoon will be spent filling Christmas boxes and trimming the tree for the children. For many years the club has provided the tree at the Settlement.

Mrs. Herbert McCoy will tell of her summer in China with her daughter, Miss Helen, who is a teacher in Gingling college. Vocal numbers will be given by a quartet, including Mrs. William Locke, Mrs. A. F. Leermakers, Miss Laura Petersen and Miss Avis Roberts. Tea will be served at the close of the program.

A mothers' party will be given at the Settlement house Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, under direction of Mrs. W. S. Knight, assisted by Junior League members, Miss Grace Sorenson and Mrs. Ray J. Abbott.

Christmas carols will be sung by Mesdames Harold Fritchett, Jack Webster, Lawrence Brinker and Miss Daphne Peters. Miss Grace Sorenson will tell Christmas stories; a song group will be given by Miss Helen Walker; violin solo, Miss Virginia Pixley; piano solos, Mrs. Robert Turney.

Mrs. Abbott will present Miss Ellen Peterson in a dance number. Miss Genevieve Parker in a song group and reading, and Harry Fryxell, pianist.

About 500 children will participate in the Christmas tree celebration at the Settlement on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Each child will receive a bag of candy.

The W. I. L. club meets for dramatic art on Monday evening. The H. E. L. P. club will have a Christmas dinner, followed by dramatic art on Tuesday evening. The O. B. C. club has supper at the Settlement Wednesday evening. M. A. P. club meets for dramatic art Thursday evening.

Heads Scottish Rite Club

Mrs. J. W. Simpson
HEYN PHOTO

Mrs. John W. Simpson, newly elected president of the Scottish Rite Woman's club, has been active in club work for a number of years. She is a member of Vesta chapter, O. E. S., and a past president of Vesta chapter Kensington. For the past three seasons she served as chairman of courtesies for the Scottish Rite Woman's club and was vice president of the organization this year. She is also a member of the L. O. E. club, Maccabees and Degree of Honor.

The Scottish Rite Woman's club with a membership of more than 1,400 is the largest women's club in the state, according to Mrs. Simpson.

Club Calendar

- SUNDAY.
- Omaha College Club, Music Section—Sunday, 2 p. m. Social Settlement house.
  - Nina Avis Roberts will have charge of program. Rev. W. N. Wallace, speaker.
  - House of Hope, 7915 North Thirtieth street—Sunday, 2:30 p. m. Rev. Howard Whitcomb of Calvary Baptist church, speaker. Program of music will also be given.
  - Old People's Home, Fontenelle boulevard—Sunday evening, 7:30 p. m. Howard Baldridge, speaker. Song group, Miss Harriet Metz, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Silver.
  - Omaha Walking Club—Sunday, 2 p. m. from Marion Park station on Fort Crook and Bellevue Interurban, through Fontenelle Forest to walking club shack. David Broadwell, leader.
  - Get Acquainted Club—Sunday, 7:30 p. m. First Unitarian church, Turner boulevard and Harney street. Meetings are conversational and are open to all lonely folk. Mrs. Paul K. Harlan, director.
- MONDAY.
- Temple Chautauque Circle—Monday, 2 p. m. Y. W. C. A. Mrs. F. P. Simpson, leader.
  - Omaha Woman's Club, Political and Civic Science Department—Monday, 2:30 p. m. Y. W. C. A. Mrs. H. C. Sumner in charge of program.
  - Council of Jewish Women—Monday, 7:30 p. m. new Jewish Community center, first floor, building. Program of literature and music.
  - P. E. O. Sisterhood, Chapter B. S.—Monday, 7:30 p. m. Happy Hollow boulevard. Mrs. D. M. Wycinski, leader. Subject, "Recent English Poets."
  - Golden Rod, I. A. and Success, B. R. E.—Monday evening, 7:30 p. m. Douglas building. Joint installation. Mrs. Margaret Delaplane of Kansas City, vice grand president and Master and Mrs. James Dahlman will be honor guests.
- TUESDAY.
- Omaha College Club Executive Board—Tuesday, 4 p. m. Fontenelle hotel.
  - U. S. Grant W. R. C.—Tuesday, 1:30 p. m. Memorial hall, court house.
  - Loomis and Leavenworth Heilichs Chautauque Circle—Tuesday, 2 p. m. Y. W. C. A.
  - P. E. O. Sisterhood, Chapter B. S.—Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Happy Hollow boulevard. Mrs. D. M. Wycinski, leader. Subject, "Recent English Poets."
  - Omaha Spanish Club—Tuesday, 8 p. m. 215 Patterson block, Seventeenth and Farnham streets. All those interested in the study of Spanish are invited to attend.
  - South Omaha Woman's Club, Music Department—Tuesday, 2:30 p. m. library hall, South Side. Mrs. Frank Prucka, leader. Subject, "American Composers—Charles Wakefield Cadman." Mrs. Grace Poole Steinberg, chorus leader.
  - Omaha Woman's Club, Current Topics Department—Tuesday, 2 p. m. Y. W. C. A. B. Field, 4511 Decatur street. Christmas party. Mrs. John Blittinger and Mrs. J. H. Mougava, in charge.
  - Omaha College Club, General Meeting—Wednesday, 2 p. m. Social Settlement house. Mrs. Herbert McCoy will speak on gifts. Following program members will fill Christmas boxes and trim tree for the cabinet room of the Willard the middle of last week in honor of General, the Earl of Cavan, when among his guests were the secretary of war, Mr. Weeks, and a number of the most prominent American and visiting foreign officers. The next day he had a luncheon at the new Racquet club on Sixteenth street in honor of General Diaz.
  - Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baldridge of Omaha, who were married in that city on November 30, spent a part of this week in Washington at the Willard after being at the Hot Springs of Virginia since their wedding. They did much sight seeing, but little visiting among their many friends here. They went to New York on Thursday for the wedding of Miss Davidson, daughter of Henry P. Davidson, who is marrying a classmate of Mr. Baldridge at Yale, where Mr. Baldridge was a foot ball player.

Washington Society.

(Continued From Page One)

star. He is now head coach at Creighton university. Mrs. Baldridge was formerly Miss Regina Connell, daughter of the late Dr. R. W. Connell.

Mrs. Charles Barton and her daughter, Miss Barton, and the former's sister, Mrs. Martel and her daughter, Miss Martel, all of Omaha, have taken an apartment at 2029 Connecticut avenue for the winter. The young girls are debutantes of this season, but their mothers have made no plans as yet for their formal debut in Washington society.

Miss Mary Hamilton of Omaha, who has been visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hamilton, remained over for the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton gave for their debutante daughter this week and for one or two dinner parties. After making a visit of one week to her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Stapleton, Miss Hamilton returned to the home of the George Hamiltons for this week and will start home on Monday, after a very gay visit among the debutantes of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scott had a box at the concert of Mme. Gaski Sunday night, December 4, and had with them Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and the latter's sister, Mrs. Godrich; Mrs. Scott's sister, Miss Dodge, who has been their guest for several weeks, and their young daughter, Miss Scott. Mrs. Scott and her sister, Miss Dodge, are guests of Mrs. A. V. Jefferts at congress on the day President Harding delivered his address to congress.

Mrs. Smyth, wife of Judge Constantine J. Smyth, who has been for some months in Omaha with their two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Sibley and Mrs. Charles W. Burstar. He is now head coach at Creighton university. Mrs. Baldridge was formerly Miss Regina Connell, daughter of the late Dr. R. W. Connell.

Mrs. Charles Barton and her daughter, Miss Barton, and the former's sister, Mrs. Martel and her daughter, Miss Martel, all of Omaha, have taken an apartment at 2029 Connecticut avenue for the winter. The young girls are debutantes of this season, but their mothers have made no plans as yet for their formal debut in Washington society.

Miss Mary Hamilton of Omaha, who has been visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hamilton, remained over for the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton gave for their debutante daughter this week and for one or two dinner parties. After making a visit of one week to her aunt, Mrs. D. C. Stapleton, Miss Hamilton returned to the home of the George Hamiltons for this week and will start home on Monday, after a very gay visit among the debutantes of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scott had a box at the concert of Mme. Gaski Sunday night, December 4, and had with them Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis and the latter's sister, Mrs. Godrich; Mrs. Scott's sister, Miss Dodge, who has been their guest for several weeks, and their young daughter, Miss Scott. Mrs. Scott and her sister, Miss Dodge, are guests of Mrs. A. V. Jefferts at congress on the day President Harding delivered his address to congress.

Mrs. Smyth, wife of Judge Constantine J. Smyth, who has been for some months in Omaha with their two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Sibley and Mrs. Charles W. Bur-

D. A. R. Year Book.

The 1921-1922 Year Book of the Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has just been published by the year book committee under the direction of Mrs. Frank P. Larson, assisted by Mrs. Harry C. Foster and Mrs. R. C. Hunter. This is an attractive booklet containing a complete list of officers and a membership roster of over 200 names; also historians report of the interesting activities of the past year.

The Omaha chapter has recently sponsored the organization of the Nebraska society of the Children of the American Revolution under the leadership of Mrs. George E. Mickel, who has recently been appointed state director of C. A. R. for Nebraska, with Mrs. Donald B. Allan organizing secretary.

Mrs. Robert A. Nixley is chapter regent; Mesdames Homer C. Stuntz and Richard C. Hoyt, vice regents; Mesdames Timothy D. Dinan and R. C. Hunter, secretaries; Mrs. Maynard C. Cole is treasurer; Mrs. Frank P. Larson, Mrs. John J. Foster, and Mrs. John J. Sushie, registrar; Mesdames Charles A. Aull, Frank J. Hughes and Edgar H. Allen make up the advisory board.

Americanization Plans of Omaha D. A. R.

Omaha chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, with Mrs. Alexander C. Troup as chairman of the Americanization committee, is planning a program of Americanization work to be carried out in the city in the near future.

Mrs. Troup has been very active in this work. She has served as chairman of Americanization for the Douglas County Council of Defense and has assisted Miss Ella Thorngate, supervisor of Americanization of the public schools. Her committee is composed of Mrs. W. P. Adkins, who is chairman of a subcommittee on literature to be distributed among the foreign-born; Miss Anna Adams, chairman of a subcommittee to co-operate with Americanization department of public schools; Mrs. Frank Kennedy, chairman of subcommittee to work among foreign-born girls, aiding them in a social way, and Mrs. S. H. Blackwell, chairman of a committee to assist the better film movement.

It is the hope of the chapter to co-operate with other organizations in the community in this work of aiding the foreign-born to become intelligent and valuable citizens. A movement is begun by Omaha and Sadler chapters to open a class for instruction in Americanization under the direction of Miss Thorngate.

Christ Child Society

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors on Monday plans were discussed for the Christmas entertainment to be given at the Christ Child Center and at St. Benedict's Colored Center.

The children of the Christ Child Center will give a program at four centers—St. Anthony's, St. Benedict's, St. Michaels and the East Locust center.

Mrs. Mark Coad, chairman of the automobile corps, reported that Mrs. M. Shirley and Mrs. O. Barmettler have volunteered their services to the center for one day a week.

The Athletic club basket ball team held a practice on Wednesday evening at the Creighton gymnasium. The team played a double-header at Ashland, Neb., on Friday evening. The following men were selected for this event: S. J. Carnazzo, Tony Sofo, John Grieco, John Montalbano, Angelo Marcuzzo, George Nuralah, Ralph Foral and Alfred Barty.

Members of the Junior league have volunteered to assist Miss Dorothy Starr, visiting nurse, at the center on Saturday.

Return From School.

Among the school girls who have already returned are Miss Izzetta Smith, who came Friday, and Miss Cornelia Baum and her guest, Miss Gertrude Kayser of Los Angeles, who arrived Saturday. Robert Smith, Frederick Nash, jr., and Jim Ingwerson also returned Saturday. Edward L. Burke, jr., will be home from Taft school Tuesday and Milton Barlow, from Hotchkiss, will arrive Monday morning.

Public Speaking, Woman's Club.

The public speaking department of the Omaha Woman's club has discontinued its meetings until Tuesday, January 3.

University of Omaha Closes for the Holidays.

With an exhibit, a special Christmas convocation exercise and a journalism fraternity party, the University of Omaha closed for the holiday vacation Friday.

"The Old Sirens' Cabin" and "The Window," paintings by Mrs. Alfred Sorenson, formerly in the Nebraska art exhibit, were features of the exhibit Friday. Mrs. Sorenson is a pupil of Miss Augusta Knight, head of the Omaha university art department.

The dyeing by Rozanne Swenson and Helen Burton and batik dyeing by Miss Augusta Knight were beautifully displayed. Leather work, red copper pieces, wood carving, black and white drawings and watercolor and oil paintings by students were exhibited.

Prof. Vartanian, head of the department of religious education, and Miss Helen MacDonald were in charge of the special convocation exercises Friday. The kindergarten department, directed by Miss Mary E. Fox, sang a Christmas song. Dr. Vartanian is a native of Asia-Minor, and knows the Holy Land well.

Thirty-two members of the "Pup," the University of Omaha journalism fraternity, had a "Dutch treat" spread in the journalism rooms Friday afternoon. Christmas presents to members and pledges of the organization were taken from the Christmas tree and distributed by Miss Marjorie Current. Miss Leona Leary, Miss Inez Moore and Richard Scholes, members of the original group of eight "Pups" were present.

Y. W. C. A.

Sunday—Gipsy Smith Bible circle, 4 p. m., Central Association building, book of Mark. There will also be a short address by Miss Julia Woodward, who has spent the past five years in mission work in India.

Monday—Federation of Clubs, supper at 5:45, followed by sewing on garments to be provided to the poor families which the clubs of the federation are providing with clothing, toys and a dinner at Christmas time. The clubs will also sing Christmas carols during the evening, and in the sports class, which meets at 8:15, the teams from Fellowship and Many Centers clubs will play the V. I. and G. P. C. teams in match games of volleyball.

The federation Christmas gift shop is open every day, with many articles on display. The proceeds from the sales are to be used to pay the federation's pledge to the Y. W. C. A. budget.

Wednesday—Morris Girls' club practice volleyball ball at South High school.

The personality class will meet Wednesday, January 4.

Thursday—B. C. club meets at 7:30 for carol singing and work on Christmas gifts and clothing for children.

Friday—"White Christmas" program and bringing of gifts to association auditorium, at 8 p. m. Gifts may be left at association any time during the week. The program begins at 8 o'clock Friday evening and all members and friends are invited to attend. These gifts will be distributed to the worthy poor of the community by the authorized charitable organizations.

Friday night Bible class will not meet until after the holidays.

Fill the Gift List with "Gifts That Last"

- For Him—
- FRATERNAL EMBLEMS—Fins, finely made ..... $1, $3.50 and $5
  - Platinum and diamond pins ..... $37.50
  - Charms for chain or fob ..... $5, $10 and $25
  - RINGS ..... $15, $25 and $50
  - SCARF PINS, diamonds and sapphires, mounted in platinum ..... $35
  - WALKER'S CHAINS, the gift sums of appreciation, at ..... $1.00, $5.00 and $20
  - BELTS, heavy sterling buckles ..... $3.50, $5 and $10
  - WATCHES, excellent workmanship represent interesting holiday values.
- For Her—
- PEARLS, genuine Indestructible, as low as ..... $5.50
  - Also exquisite offerings in Richelieu, La Touca and Deliah pearls.
  - CHESTS OF SILVER, a gift every woman loves ..... $11.75, $25, $35 and $50
  - RINGS—Cameo Finger Rings, to add a dainty bit of color to any costume ..... $5, $10.25, $15 and $25
  - Fancy Stone Rings, the choice of her birthstone is an appreciated thoughtfulness ..... $5, $12.50 and $25
  - Diamond Rings, a holiday special pricing ..... $175
  - Combs, Rings, special assortments ..... $25
  - WRIST WATCHES, doubly guaranteed by both Henrickson and the maker.
- For the Home—
- SILVER, an open stock which includes such well-known silver as "1847 Rogers Bros." Community and Reed & Barton, individual pieces and sets.
  - Vegetable Dishes, covered ..... $15
  - Platters ..... $15
  - Chop Set, unusually beautiful in design, 12 1/2 inches in diameter, octagonal in shape, beaded trim, the cover large enough to use as extra vegetable dish ..... $25
  - Sandwich Plates ..... $5, $7.50, $12.50 and $15
  - Bread Trays ..... $5, $6, $12, $15
  - Coffee Sets ..... $12.50 to $150
  - Special holiday assortments of sterling gift pieces ..... $1.50, $2.50, $3.50, $5 and $10
  - CUT GLASS, the largest selection of quality cut glass in the city, a showing which features Hawkes and Libbey glass pieces. An exquisite gift selection might be a jewel case of cut glass in exact shaping or one of the new high color bottles.

John Henrickson
Jeweler
Sixteenth at Capital
Established 1852

ESTABLISHED 1890
GIFTS THAT LAST

DIAMONDS
Because of their unsurpassed beauty and sentiment, are ideal possessions. We have them in Rings from $10 to $1,200
Let Us Show Them to You

The greatest gift of them all--

Phoenix!

Whether it be Hosiery or Silken Underwear nothing will so completely fulfill the thought of gift-giving as a box of Phoenix. And here at PHOENIX HEADQUARTERS you will find a complete array of every one of the wonderful Phoenix Products.

Women's Phoenix Silk Underwear	Phoenix Silk Hosiery
A complete size range, in all desirable shades.	A thorough assortment awaits your gift selection.
VESTS $2.10, $2.35, $2.50	MEN'S 40c to $1.65
BLOOMERS $3.95, $4.25	WOMEN'S 50c to $3.50

Two Stores---
808 South 16th Street and 1905 Farnam Street

MAIL ORDERS receive prompt attention—place them NOW!

An Interesting Christmas DIAMOND SALE

WE have purchased three special lots of diamonds at a special price and are giving our customers the benefit of Diamond prices one-third less than they have been sold in Omaha for three years.

These are high grade Diamonds and we give our personal guarantee with every stone sold.

- Choose From Three Great Value-Giving Diamond Groups
- Lot No. 1 One-Half carat Diamonds, each ..... $150
  - Lot No. 2 Three-Fourths carat Diamonds, each ..... 300
  - Lot No. 3 One carat Diamonds, each ..... 395

Come in and select the diamond, have it mounted in ring, brooch or scarf pin. A selection will be held with a small deposit.

Diamonds are still the safest and most enjoyable investment to be made, and Brown's reputation prevails during this sale.

The HALLMARK Store

C. B. Brown & Co.
DIAMOND MERCHANTS—JEWELERS
16th and Farnam Street
"The Treasure Chest of Omaha"

Each little drop of honey in its tiny cell is not purer food than Bread of quality

it's HARD ROLL BREAD quality