Court.

"Though there may be no break in the ranks of the strikers, the strike is over so far as the packing houses are concerned," said Claude R. Orchard, employment manager of the Armour plant acting as publicity man for the packing houses, yester-

"We have such a number of workers that we can kill and ship more live stock and meats than the mar-kets will absorb, especially at this holiday season when poultry largely displaces other meats on the tables of the people."

He declared that Armours today turned away nine out of every 10 men seeking employment and that the large meat markets are greatly overstocked.

Sanitation all Right.

The big five packing houses here Monday and Tuesday, bought 3,152 cattle, 6,732 hogs and 9,228 sheep, he said. In the same two days they killed 2,898 cattle, 7,277 hogs and 5,899 sheep.

Tuesday's shipments of finished products from the five packing houses totalled 71 cars, said E. E. Grimes, joint freight agent.

As to sanitary conditions, plained of by a large body of women before the city council Tuesday, Orchard said there is nothing wrong in them and that the packers will welcome a committee from the city welcome a committee from the city odist church, and that he told her council to investigate the conditions. she would have to obey his father, Adolph Steinkamp, a wealthy farm-er living near Manley, Neb.
