orpheum patrons are reminded that tonight, New Year's eve, there are to be two performances. The first show opens at 1:48, th second at 10:18. Patrons of the second show are requested to time their arrival, not earlier than 10 o'clock. The entertainment will be appropriate to the spirit of hitarious festivities. It is to be the concluding night of the bill, headed by Pear! Regay and her jazz band. With the New Year's matines tomorrow comes the offering of George Whiting and Sadie Burt as one of the stellar festures. These ontertainers have a repertory of new and clever songs. The other headline offering will be the one-act comedy "Indoor Sports." This is an amusing sketch by liarian Thompson and Hugh Herbert. it is to be cleverly presented by a quartet of carefully chosen players.

The official motion pictures of the

carefully chosen players.

The official motion pictures of the Dempsey-Carpentier boxing contest being shown at the Brandels this week will be notable for the record they bear on the face of them as to the sperting manners and customs of this present day and ag. While many do not hesitate to denounce boxing as brutal and savage, thousands believe that the day is here for the championing of the art of self-defense. pioning of the art of self-defense.

The vaudeville show at the Empress is one of varied entertainment. Tommy Gordon and Mark Germaine, have built up a splendid combination of comedy feats on the trampoline, singing, dancing and bright patter. Haunting melodies of the Hawaiian islands on instruments peculiar to Hawaiian islands on instruments peculiar to Hawaii are offered by Kalama and Koa. Howard and Fields have a most amusing travesty bit with just enough singing and dancing interpolated to make it entertaining, while Helene Colline & Co. present a vocal and plano act which is most enjoyable.

The power of Robert B. Mantell, coming yogable.

The power of Robert B. Mantell, coming to the Brandels theater next week, to alter his personality completely and identify himself intimately with the particular character he is portraying, has for many years been the marvel of playsoers. Nearly all actors, even the greatest, have their mannerisms, which they cannot discard and which gives a "family likeness" to overything they are doing. Mr. Mantell is one of the few exceptions recorded in stage history. When he is playing Richelieu he is the cardinal through and through apparently mentally as well as physically. Mantell is lost sight of completely. And so it is with Shylock, Macbeth, Jacques and the rest.

Competent authorities predict the period of high interest rates will soon be over. Prudent investors are buying farm mortgages which insure complete safety, and high interest rates for several years to come. Some of our most attractive first mortgages are given below:

5-Year Farm Mortgages

Value $10,000 $1,500 Semi-Annually 5 Years 71/2% $19,500 $5,000 Semi-Annually 5 Years $10,000 $2,500 7% Semi-Annually 5 Years $1,000 7% Semi-Annually $10,000 5 Years Semi-Annually $ 8,000 $3,000 8% 5 Years $5,000 7% Semi-Annually 5 Years $20,000 $10,000 $2,500 7% Semi-Annually 5 Years Semi-Annually $3,000 5 Years $17,000

So long as grass grows and water runs nature will be ever ready to aid in producing an income from farm loans. Governments may come and go, but lands on which food is raised will yield their regular revenues while the earth remains. It is for these well known reasons that judicious investors have turned to well selected first mortgages on farm lands as the safest high grade in-vestment ever since before the dawn of recorded history.
