

W. R. C. Notes. George Crook Women's Relief I am afrail. And I know the remedy-one which I have known I needed, but which I have shrun's corps presented the American flag from taking. This has decided me to the Evangelistic church, Twenty- Take Lillian home with you. I will fourth and Franklin streets, last Sun- make no objection. And-you will day. Mrs. Ellen Hall, patriotic in- hear from me soon, in a way that

Mrs. Harold De La Mar was hosing. There had come over him a the brook, Dicky spoke: De La Mar was formerly Miss Luella briskness of action, a quickness of "I didn't want to tell you of this decision, a cheeriness which I did not before we started, Madge, but Lilholidays with her parents.

Luncheon for Sewing Circle. Mrs: Amos Thomas will be hostess at luncheon next Monday for the Junior league sewing circle, of which she is a member.

Sixty-six Club. The Sixty-six club announces that the dance planned for January 14 has been postponed until January 28.

Omaha Woman Describes Her Impressions of ## Werrenrath.

Mrs. Hoxie Clarke, secretary of the Tuesday Musical club, was one of an audience which crowded Carnegic hall in New York one Sunday in November to hear Reinald Werarranging his program and has a most pleasing personality," said Mrs. Clarke of this baritone, who is appear at the Brandeis January renrath su "He is very clever in 19. under Tuesday Musical auspices.

six of these old favorites including. "Danny Deever," and then an-nounced sotto voce to his accompanist, "I've got a date, with my wife,' and made his escape."

Personals

Mrs. J. E. Helms of Webster, S.

D., who has been visiting relatives toward the brook, I saw Robert Savarin's disappointed look, and knew that he had counted on talk-ing to Lillian himself. So I de-tached myself long enough to which a to king whisper to him: "As soon as you see Dicky and me again, go down to the brook. I'll structor for the corps, made the pre-sentation speech. Mrs. De La Mar Hostess. Mrs. De La Mar kitchen wondering if I were dream- my friend. en wondering if I were dream-There had come over him a the brook, Dicky spoke:

Either Katie has gone out of her had no time, however, to specumind, or elselate upon the thing he contemplated doing, which he had said would sur-He hesitated oddly, and I put out up" in the morning. When the clerks arrive, he goes my hand. "Let me see the letter," I said prise and please me. My heart was full of vague uneasi-worriedly.

lian was keeping from me. As I turned to leave the kitchen after Robert's departure, I saw Lillian and Mrs. James McCord entertained eight guests at a bridge luncheon at Dicky passing the open window with her home Thursday.

home to breakfast, reads the morning Dog Hill Paragrafs paper to know how to be intelligent as men drop in during the day. But it is the early morning hours which

By George Bingham keep him in touch with every phase of his business, (Copright, 1921, International Feature The Tickville Brass Band is tast roming into prominence, and now at-

ADVERTISEMENT. WOMAN TOO

The Old Miser of Musket Ridge,

By J. J. MUNDY. Are You an "Early Bird."

the hardest job you do. You mention this fact every time you are called to breakfast, if not in so many words, in so many grunts

But if you knew that by getting up at 6, say, every morning, you could pick up a baby bond, or its equivalent, would you not feel more nterested in the story of the "early

You say you are harassed by in-terruptions all day long and it is hard for you to get your work done know he possessed. He was like a person emerging from an icy shower bath, and I felt a little glow at my heart at the thought that I had been instrumental in changing his point of view.

the office boy, who is paid to "open say too much in favor of your med-icine. I trust all sick and suffering women willtake it. It has been two years since I took it and I am strong and well." - Mrs. L. A. GUIMANN, Union Village, Vermont. This is only one of such letters we are continually publishing showing what Lydia E. Finkham has done for women Mrs. Guimann? a letter should women. Mrs. Guimann's letter should interest you. Many women get into a weak, ner-vous, run down condition because of ailments they often have. Such wo-men should take Lydia E. Pinkham'a Vegetable Compound at the first sign of trouble.

ter's supplies. This sale applies only on present stock, which is fast disappear ing as our customers realize the bargains we are offering. Stop at your neighborhood Basket Store, stop at the Baske Store at your transfer point or your way home, stop your auto a' any one of the 25 Basket Stores in Omaha and Council Bluffs. Stop and Shop. BASKET STORES luning 1001 Soothing and Healing

0 TUNED AND REPAIRED All Work Guarante A. HOSPE CO. 1513 Douglas.

Perfectly

Pasteurized

WEBSTER 0127

Continues

... There was some little talk for a to say goodby to pleasant associa-tions. And we knew that this was kinks in the Tickville railroad track. our real goodby. The morning meal would be simply a scurry. Just before we finished, Dicky would have upset the time table. Common Sense To get up early in the morning is and grumbles.

 $\nabla \Pi$

BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Problems That Perplex

made them man and wife years Not Sure of His Love. Dear Miss Fairfax: I am 18, and before.

"The thing that appeals especially to an audience is his stage presence. his mental poise as well as his musical poise," Mrs. Clarke said. GRACE. "He sings with case and great charm, and never sacrifices tone for his high notes. They are so cen-

Kindness to those who are ill or in trouble is just the warm hu-manness we all ought to show. Don't saries when the original bridal party saries when the original bridal party may be assembled the nicest annihigh they are. His program that day was largely classical, with a sprinkling of the modern futurist music, in which he is interested. But he was perhaps at his best in the music perhaps at his best in the versary is a little dinner party at which the bridesmaids, maid of hon-If it or, best man and ushers are present. For such an anniversary the invita-tions should take the form of inmusic, in which he is interested. But he was perhaps, at his best in the old time songs, which his audience clamored for as encores at the end of the program. He graciously sang formal, friendly notes. For a large evening reception the cards should be worded formally, either written or engraved. They might run some-thing like this: "Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watts

Kinship. Dear Miss Fairfax: What relation At home, February 20, 1918, Tin Wedding. would my husband's brother-in-law be to me? Also my sister-in-law's baby? MRS. C. V.

100 Oxford Street." If you have a card bearing the name of husband and wife the recep-tion invitations might be written on No relation. He would be your sister-in-law's husband. The baby would be no relation, though you could very properly call yourself "aunt" to your sister-in-law's baby. Looking

Looking for a Friend: The Get-J. T.: To every happily married Acquainted club, which meets at the

Mrs. J. E. Helmis of weeker, static bound of the city, left Thursday for her home.
Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cassidy announce the birth of a daughter, Kathler nounce the birth of a daughter and birth of a daughter and birth the birther birther birth the birth the birth of a daughter anon the birt

Lieutenant and Mrs. R. H. Finley of Langley Field, Va., announce the birth of a daughter January 4 at the Methodist hospital. Mrs. Finley was formerly Miss Irene Shep-ard of this city.

Mrs. C. E. Fuller was called to Hollywood last week by the illness of her sister. Mrs. Fuller will return next Tuesday to Omaha and che and Miss Mary Fuller will take a short trip to Chicago.

Senator J. B. Kendrick of Wyoming spent Thursday in Omaha en route to Douglas, Wyo. He is the president of the Amercian National Livestock association and will attend their meeting next week in Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Croloot leave Saturday for San Francisco, where they go to meet their daughter, Mrs. Harold E. White, and Mr. White, who are expected to land January 11 at that port, en route to the states from their home at Calcutta, India.

Mrs. John Quincy Adams arriven Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. Julia James and Miss Friera Lang. Mrs. Adams is en route from her home in Halifax, N. S. to Dallas, Tex., where Mrs. Jame. will join her in February. Mr. Adams le a former Omahan.

BAIR'S HIDDEN HEALTY is brought to Sommer Brothens Established 1886 Phone H 0188 2801-03 Farnam Blue Bell Flour, 24-1b. sack 93¢ Snow White Cauliflower, ea. 25c Monarch Orange Pekoe Tea, you can't beat it, per lb. .....490 A Friday Order Is Your Guarantee of Personal Attention and Early DELIVERY SATURDAY. We SKINNERS The Highest Grade Macaroni Sell SKINNERS Erg Noodlee, Spaghetti and other Macaroni Freducts