Occasions Discussion.

For these reasons this bank has been the subject of a great deal of discussion. Some of it was centered upon the fact that the outlook for the automobile industry is not now as encouraging as formerly. Then, too, millions have been expended in the construction of his gigantic building and sme time must elapse before it can secure a tenantry which will occupy all its offices, not being so favorably situated as are the larger office buildings within the financial district or the Forty-second district. Nevertheless, some day these offices will probably be taken by tenants, and when they are the building itself and the income from it should prove to be a good investment for this bank. Now that the bank is advertising that it will receive savings from $1 up and allow interest at 4 per cent compounded it has in that way occasioned increased discussion in clearing house and national bank circles, yet what it is doing is in line with attempts soon to be nationwide to offer abundant opportunities for the deposits of small savings upon which a reasonable rate of interest will be allowed.

The announcement that lower wages cannot be expected in the mills in the near future will serve to indicate at least a continuance of present prices on goods.
