

Council Bluffs Society

Pelzer-Osborne. The first marriage at which Monsignor P. P. McManus officiated since his return from Rome was on Tuesday, when Miss Mary Osborne became the bride of Leonard Pelzer.

Traveler to Texas

Miss Frances Grow leaves Thursday for Cairo, Texas, where for the next few weeks she will visit Captain and Mrs. Thomas Christian.

leaves soon with her family to reside in Burlington, Ia.

To Entertain. Mrs. Frank Howell has issued invitations to a tea to be given at her home next Saturday afternoon in honor of her house guests, Mrs. E. C. Benjamin and Miss Florence Noble of Dixon, Ill.

George Phelps Feted. The popularity of George Phelps, former Council Bluffs boy, was attested during the past week by the numerous affairs given in his honor while he was in Omaha in the headline attraction at the Orpheum.

Mr. Phelps has always been a great favorite here and the days were all too short for the many parties planned for him.

On Sunday, the day of his arrival, Mrs. George Lee entertained him at tea.

Monday noon he lunched with friends in Omaha and that night George Wright gave a dinner for him at the Fontenelle.

Tuesday noon he was the guest of the Kiwanis club at their weekly luncheon, following which he sang for them "Sweetheart of My Dreams," a charming sentimental ballad written by another Council Bluffs boy, Walter Cleaver, who is now living on the Pacific coast.

Wednesday night this same was honor guest at a dinner of six covers given by Dr. G. D. Cleaver.

Thursday Mrs. D. J. Gates, whose son, Reynold, is also doing very clever work in vaudeville, invited seven guests to a most delightful breakfast at her home for Mr. Phelps and that evening he was entertained at dinner by Myron Van Brunt, formerly of this city, who has just returned from New York.

Following the Thursday night performance Mrs. Arthur Guio of Omaha, cousin of Mr. Phelps, complimented him with a supper, and on three occasions Friday he was entertained in Council Bluffs.

At noon he was with the Rotarians for luncheon, that night Mr. and Mrs. Charles Officer entertained him at dinner and following the evening performance Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Ash gave an informal supper for him at their home.

Saturday noon Miss Ruth Felt, Mrs. Arthur Guio of Omaha, Myron Van Brunt, New Wirt and Mr. Phelps dined together at the Brancie tea room and following the evening performance he left with his company for their next engagement.

Many theater parties were given at the Orpheum throughout the past week and at every afternoon and evening performance Mr. Phelps met a storm of applause from his admiring friends.

Personals. Mrs. Charles Test Stewart is suffering from a broken wrist.

J. P. Greenhalgh leaves the early part of the week for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham plan to leave tomorrow evening for Chicago.

Miss Mabel Peyton goes Thursday morning to Kansas City where she will visit for a short time.

Elizabeth and Walter Brington spent a few days in Atlantic, Ia., last week with their grandmother.

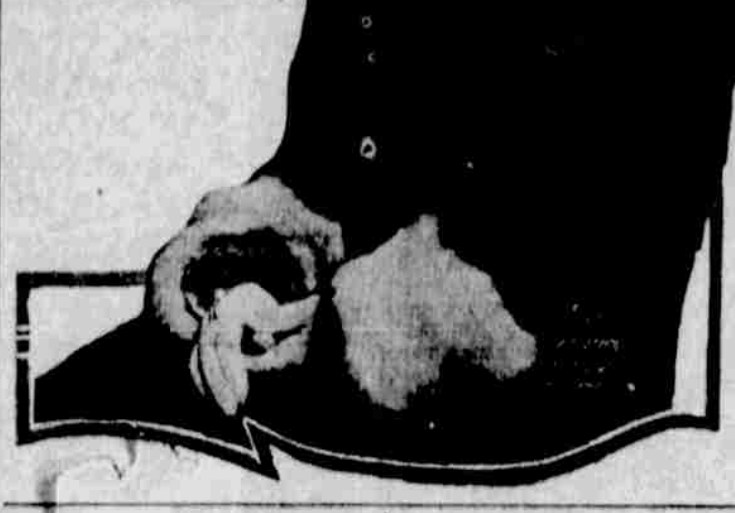

Miss Inez Perego, who attends the state university at Lincoln, is home from school on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae and son have returned to Iowa City after a holiday visit at the Macrae home on Fifth avenue.

Mrs. E. C. Benjamin and Miss Florence Noble arrived Saturday night from Dixon, Ill., to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell.

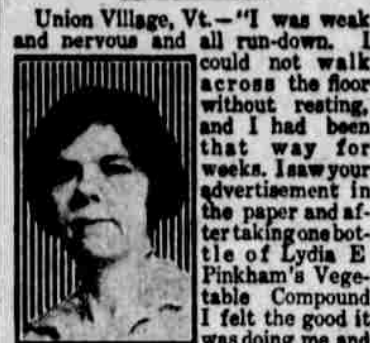

Dr. W. A. Tinley returned Saturday night from his duties in connection with the National Guard, which met during the week in Des Moines, and on Monday will go to St. Louis for some special medical work which will keep him away for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Folsom Everest left for Des Moines last Wednesday and are expected home tonight. While there they were guests of Mrs. Everest's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Spooner. Mr. Everest attended the Officers' Training school of the National Guard during his stay at the capital city.

WOMAN TOO WEAK TO WALK

New Works Nine Hours a Day. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Strength

Union Village, Vt.—"I was weak and nervous and all run-down. I could not walk across the floor without resting, and I had been that way for weeks. I saw your advertisement in the paper and after taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt the good it was doing me and I took seven more in all. Before I finished I was able to work nine hours a day in a steam laundry. I cannot say too much in favor of your medicine. I trust all sick and suffering women will take it. It has been two years since I took it and I am strong and well."—Mrs. L. A. GUTMANN, Union Village, Vermont.

This is only one of such letters we are continually publishing showing what Lydia E. Pinkham has done for women. Mrs. Gutmann's letter should interest you.

Many women get into a weak, nervous run-down condition because of ailments they often have. Such women should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the first sign of trouble.

Bridge-Luncheon. Pink roses formed the table decorations for a luncheon followed by bridge, to which Mrs. E. A. Wickham invited 11 guests last Tuesday.

Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swanson gave a dinner of 10 covers at their home Thursday evening.

Spring flowers were effectively used as a center piece for the dining table.

Bridge Clubs. The Monday Bridge club met for luncheon last week with Mrs. William Coppock.

Mrs. Karl Holst entertained the Klatter club on Friday and that same day Mrs. Reed Flickinger was hostess to the members of the Friday Bridge club.

Matinee and Tea. Mrs. W. J. Heiser invited Mrs. Thomas Green, Mrs. Elmer Shugart and Mrs. X. W. Kynett to the Saturday afternoon performance of Jane Cowles in "Smilin' Through" and later they had tea at the Brandeis.

Plans for All Aboard. In choosing the cast for the musical comedy "All Aboard" which will be presented at the Auditorium Thursday and Friday nights under the auspices of the American Legion, the director very wisely selected Miss Cora Quick for one of the leading roles and as Beatrice Sloan, she is sure to score a big hit.

Opposite her is Henry Dent, another Council Bluffs favorite, and others who will have leading parts are Mrs. Robert Moth, Marjorie Hudson, Ina Pfaff, Harold Hughes, John LeRoy Peterson, Charleton Brown, Ned Tollinger and Joe Simonson.

Groups from the younger set will make up the choruses and in the ball room scene some of the society buds with their dancing partners, will be the center of attraction.

Afternoon Bridge. Mrs. F. M. Scarr gave a very delightful bridge party last Wednesday when her guests numbered 16.

Mrs. Caroline Theinhardt received the prize for high score and Mrs. Thomas Green won in the "cut-for-all."

Dinner. Preceding the Chamber of Commerce entertainment and dance on Thursday evening at the Auditorium Messrs. and Mesdames Reed Flickinger, Don Waller, J. R. Day, George Wickham and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler dined together at the Flickinger home.

Party in Omaha. Mrs. W. J. Heiser, Mrs. Thomas Green, Mrs. X. W. Kynett and Miss Agnes Wickham were among the invited guests at a bridge-luncheon given in Omaha last Wednesday by Mrs. Lewis Whitehead.

For Mrs. Sample. Complimentary to Mrs. Robert

Sample who left Friday for her home in Uniontown, Pa., after a visit of several weeks here, Miss Marian Turner entertained very informally at bridge on Wednesday.

Dancing Club. The dancing club, which was started early in the winter with 18 couples, has been increased now to 60 and for the remainder of the season will have parties every other week.

During the holidays the original members gave a formal dance to which many of their friends were bidden, and the affair was such a complete success that the committee in charge decided to suspend membership rules and invited these same guests to join the organization.

The next party will be held in the Eagles' hall Monday evening, but after that all the affairs will be on alternate Tuesdays, and in the future it will be called the Tuesday Dancing club.

Sunday Night Supper. An informal supper was given last Sunday night by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickham at their home on Third street.

For Mrs. Pryor. Mrs. A. E. Brock and her daughter, Mrs. Edith Barsley, entertained at a Kensington Friday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. J. C. Pryor, who It's prepared on a more pretentious scale than the very good weekday dinner and it's arranged so you can enjoy it as leisurely as you please. The musical entertainment, as usual, is a pleasurable feature.
