

P. E. O. Leader Consults With Supreme Executives Here
Mr. and Mrs. George E. Tobey of Chicago are spending Sunday in Omaha. Mrs. Tobey is chairman of the board of trustees of the educational fund of the P. E. O. Sisterhood. She spent some time yesterday at the executive offices in consultation with Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, president of the supreme chapter, and Mrs. Lulah T. Andrews, executive secretary. A luncheon in her honor was given yesterday noon in the Brandeis tea room. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haines entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Tobey, who expect to leave for their home early in the week.

Orpheum Star to Tell of Hunting With Roosevelt
Col. Holman James, better known by his stage name, Fred Lindsay, who hunted with Theodore Roosevelt in East Africa, will be in Omaha next week. He will address the Chamber of Commerce at noon Monday and the Rotary club at noon

Wednesday and will also make other addresses on Anglo-Saxon unity. He will be one of the features of the Orpheum bill. He will tell in his speeches of hunting adventures with Roosevelt, experiences among the bushmen of Australia and in the Boer war, as well as in the world war.

Iowa Professor to Give Lecture Course in Omaha
Dr. Ernest Horn of the University of Iowa, under the auspices of the educational committee of the Omaha school forum, will give a course of professional lectures at the Burgess-Nash auditorium. Credit for the lectures, endorsed by Superintendent J. H. Beveridge, will be applied toward a degree at the University of Nebraska. Lectures will be given at 4 on March 10 and 17, April 21 and 28, and at 1 on March 11 and 18, and April 22 and 29.

Firemen to Give Ball.
The fire department will hold its 12th annual ball in the Auditorium on Thursday night, March 23. This will be under the auspices of the Firemen's Relief association and the following committee will arrange the details: Robert W. Oliver, William O'Hara, Ernest Newhouse, William A. Wagner, Charles Coe, Thomas Shandy, Emil Novak.

Retailers Decide to Hold Regular Credit Meeting
The board of directors of the Associated Retailers has decided to hold credit meetings every Tuesday night except the second Tuesday of each month. On the second Tuesday night there will be a dinner with prominent speakers from out of the city.
