

South Omaha Say Woman Guest at Pistol Party Owner of Alcohol

May Be Given Freedom for Pointing Out Alleged "Booze Joint" to Police Officers.

Mrs. Lucile Hawkins, 5219 South Thirtieth street, was a guest at a party given by Claude Grisky Thursday night at his home 3020 R street, which ended near midnight with a shooting scrape in which Henry Stewart, twenty-eight and R streets, and Frank J. Kellines, 3307 South Twenty-eighth street, were wounded.

With the start of hostilities Mrs. Hawkins said she went home. Police officers investigating the melee visited the home of Mrs. Hawkins and in searching her house found a gallon of alcohol. Mrs. Hawkins was taken to jail and charged with illegal possession. In police court yesterday morning, before Police Judge Wappich, Mrs. Hawkins denied the ownership of the liquor.

When Judge Wappich intimated the fixing of the regular fine of $100 and costs, Mrs. Hawkins begged a chance to redeem herself. She said she knew of "booze joints" and would tell the police where they were.

"We'll give you a chance to unshove yourself," said Prosecutor Marsell and as a result Charles Essex, 4729 South Twenty-sixth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of illegal possession and maintaining a still.

The case against Mrs. Hawkins was continued until this morning and it is intimated by officials that the woman will be given her freedom for assisting the officers.

South Omaha to Have Seven Ice Stations

This summer, commencing May 10, South Omaha residents will be able to get ice from seven municipal stations, according to H. A. Walters, sales distributor for the ice department of the city water board.

The stations in South Omaha are as follows: Twenty-fourth and O streets; Twentieth and Missouri avenue; Thirty-ninth and Q streets; Forty-first and L streets; Thirty-third and K streets; the Albright station, Thirtieth and Garfield streets, and a new one at Twenty-fourth and F streets.

Mr. Walters said that so far as he knew, ice will continue to be sold at 30 cents a hundred pounds and that the supply on hand would be sufficient for the city's needs all summer.

New U. S. Ambassador to Germany and His Family Sail for Europe

Here is Allanson B. Houghton, first United States ambassador to Germany since the start of the war, with Mrs. Houghton and their daughter, Elizabeth, photographed before sailing for Europe to take up his new duties. Ambassador Houghton was formerly a member of congress from New York.

Child Finds $23,000 in Bonds on Ash Pile

Chicago, April 7.—John Horner, 6, was playing in the rear of his home here today when he found liberty bonds worth $23,000 on an ash pile. An investigation showed that a majority of the bonds had been issued by the First National bank of Crescent City, Ill.

Police believe the bonds were stolen and then thrown away when it was found they were not negotiable.

Air Congress Refund Still in 'May' Status

Subscribers to the funds which put over the International Air congress last November may receive a portion of their subscriptions back the first of the week, according to announcement made by Guy C. Kiddoo, Omaha Trust company, who has had charge of the surplus of $11,600, which remained after all bills had been paid.

Members of the Omaha Aero club are in favor of keeping the money as a fund for the promotion of aviation in Omaha. Others are in favor of returning it. Thursday Ward M. Burgess, in letters sent out to the subscribers, strongly advocated the return of the money. In his letter Mr. Burgess said: "I am writing this letter because I was instrumental in helping raise the money to save a bad situation and I want those who subscribed this money to understand that it is my wish and thought that it should be returned to them and not be dieted over three hours."

Former Dean of Bellevue College Dies in Illinois

Information was received at Bellevue yesterday that Dr. A. A. Tyler, former dean of Bellevue college, and head of the biology department, died last week at his home in Decatur, Ill., of an attack of pneumonia. Dr. Tyler was associated with Bellevue and Bellevue college for 15 years. He left Bellevue in 1916 to become head of the biology department of the James Milliken university at Decatur, Ill. He was one of the founders of the Fontenelle Forest association, was a member of the Bellevue school board and secretary of the commercial club.

Brother of Late Federal Judge Smith Is Near Death

Forest L. Smith, who has been a sufferer from cancer for several months, was so ill yesterday that physicians said he can live but a few hours. He is at the home of his son, Douglas, 438 North Thirty-eighth avenue.

Prosecutor Puts Arm Out of Joint in Plea

While making the final argument in the Garson liquor case yesterday, Deputy County Attorney Kubat made a gesture that threw his arm out of joint while saying, "Send word to the deus of the bootleggers that Douglas county will not tolerate them." The arm was reset shortly afterwards by a physician. The jury voted "guilty" after being out three hours.

Tenants to Use Tents in Fight on High Rents

Chicago, April 7.—Hundreds of Chicago tenants threatened with rent increases will move to the forest preserves and live there in tents until the cold weather sets in, the Tenant's Protective league announced today.

Molester of Girls Is Beaten in Fremont

Fremont, Neb., April 7.—Alfonso Martinez, a railroad section hand, was arrested and fined $20 and costs in police court here today on a charge of molesting two young school girls. Prior to the arrest, Martinez was given a fearful beating by the two fathers of the girls, who made the complaint, Councilman Hardenbrook and Policeman Blair.

Another Omahan Out $1,200 on Money-Making Machine

Another man, Hans A. Hansen, 33, carpenter, 512 North Twentieth street, stated yesterday to detectives that he had been defrauded of savings of $1,200 by two suave strangers who demonstrated a money-making machine. The suspects, William George and Louis Doehoff, arrested Thursday, are being held for investigation.

Help Russia and Germany, Canada Official Urges

Tells Local Kiwanis Club It Is Economic Insanity to Down Erstwhile Enemy.

Friendship with Germany and Russia and a helping hand financially as well as politically was advocated by J. Bruce Walker, Winnipeg, Can., minister of immigration and colonization for the Canadian government, who spoke to members of the Kiwanis club at their weekly meeting at Hotel Rome yesterday. "It is a physical impossibility to down a nation of 65,000,000 souls," he said. "Shall we go down the years with hate in our hearts or shall we forget our hates and love our enemies?"

Must Permit Progress. "It is economic insanity to think that the world can progress without Germany being righted and being allowed to take her place as one of the producing nations and an economic force."

While Mr. Walker advocated friendly relations with our former enemy, he also advocated that all just debts be paid. "When we do business with a man we expect him to liquidate all his financial obligations," he said. "The same holds true among nations."

Tells Need of Friendship.

Mr. Walker outlined the accomplishments of the recent arms limitation conference and then spoke of the need for friendship between Canada and the United States. "There are three vital things on which we base our friendship," he said. "These things we have in common and love with the same love. They are our homes, our schools and our churches. Our opinions regarding these three institutions are identical and they have always kept us friendly. These institutions have now a companion. Our boys fought side by side. We have suffered the same sorrow, we have fought a common enemy and we across the line consider you as our brothers."
