

Woman Motor Car Dealer Wins Suit Lawyer Brought

Mrs. Muff Is Given Verdict Against W. M. Burton Who Asked $300 in Alleged "David Harum" Deal.

A judgment of $355.40 was rendered by Judge A. E. Baldwin in municipal court yesterday afternoon, in favor of Mrs. Iola W. Muff of Crete, Neb., in connection with a suit brought by Attorney W. M. Burton of the city and resisted by Mrs. Muff, who filed a counter-claim.

A sentimental feature was introduced into the hearing a week ago when Mr. Burton, appearing as plaintiff and counsel for plaintiff, referred tenderly to the "too-ed" days of himself and Mrs. Muff in Crete nearly 20 years ago.

Mr. Burton brought an action to recover $300, alleging that an automobile he received from Mrs. Muff in exchange for another car and $325 in cash did not measure up to the oral specifications. Mrs. Muff then filed a counter-suit for $565.81, on the grounds that the car she received from Burton was encumbered by a mortgage of $325, of which she was not informed at the time of the deal about a year ago.

E. L. Pflug of Springfield, Neb., intervened in the case to protect a mortgage of $325 which he held on the car traded by Burton to Mrs. Muff. Mr. Burton testified that he had no knowledge of the mortgage when he bought the car from Robert Muff and he also declared that the reason he went to Crete to make the deal was because he had implicit faith in the business integrity of his former college chum.

Telephone Toll Hearing Monday

Probe Will Be Made of Dealings of Nebraska Concern With Present Company.

Lincoln, April 13.—(Special.)—The fight of the Northwestern Telephone company for higher toll and exchange rates, the principal increase being in Omaha, will open before State Railway commission here Monday.

The commission has sent letters to representatives of the public group fighting the proposed increase, saying that the first part of the hearing will be a probe into the company's dealings with the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the parent company, which receives a certain per cent of the Northwestern's earnings.

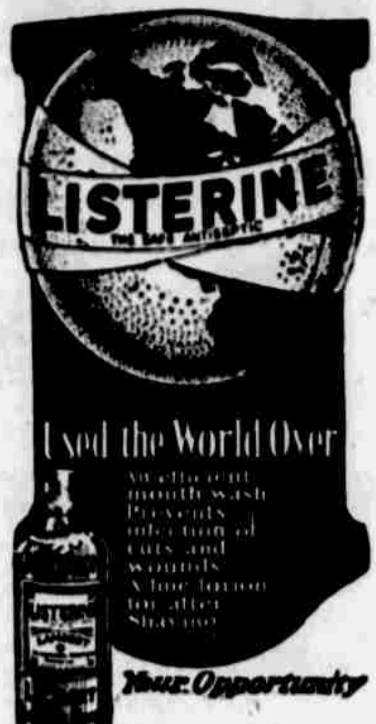

Bonds on Man Found to Be Alma Bank Loot

Lincoln, April 13.—(Special Telegram.)—State Sheriff Gus Hyers has found $1,100 in liberty bonds on the person of Charles Mangan of David City, which Hyers says have been identified as stolen from a bank at Alma, Kan. The arrest was made following information received by Sheriff William Groneweg of Council Bluffs from Tom Haley being held at Council Bluffs for alleged complicity in the Schneider farm murder.

Mangan admitted that at one time he was a pal of Haley in postoffice and bank robberies, Hyers says, and at one time served time in the Kansas penitentiary. He claims he received the bonds in a poker game. Mangan is 35.

Omaha Insurance Company Takes Over Lincoln Concern—Lincoln, April 13.—(Special.)—I. E. Hart, secretary of the department of trade and commerce, approved today a reinsurance contract between the Bankers' Fire Insurance company of Lincoln and the National Security company of Omaha, whereby the business of the Lincoln company. The deal has been held up for several weeks because of refusal of W. B. Young, state insurance commissioner, to ratify the transfer on the ground that technical errors had crept into the original contract.

Vocational Training Men Exempted From Poll Tax—Lincoln, April 13.—Ex-service men wounded in the late war, who are drawing compensation or are taking vocational training under the federal government, will be exempt from poll tax assessment in Nebraska, W. H. Osborne advised county assessors today. Such men are construed as coming within the exemption clause of the revenue law dealing with pensioners.
