

Jefferis Not to Use Organizers in Senate Race

Inability to Stand Expense Given as Congressman's Reason for Departure From Campaign Tradition.

Washington, May 1.—(Special.)—Representative A. W. Jefferis, in his race for the nomination to the United States senate, departs somewhat from political tradition in announcing today that he does not intend to open headquarters or to employ organizers throughout the state. Jefferis declares his inability to stand the expense of this more or less accepted campaign practice and otherwise makes his intentions known in the following letter to James E. Hammond, 3316 Wright street, Omaha: "Your recent letter urging me to open headquarters and employ political organizers, to work in different parts of the state, is received, and I thoroughly appreciate your advice and interest. Such a campaign might make more sure my nomination for United States senator, but for me to do as you suggest is impossible. I have not the means with which to make an expensive campaign, even if I were so inclined.

Duties Prevent Leaving.
"I wish it were possible for me to be in Nebraska from now on, but duties here prevent my leaving until some later date. That being the case, I am obliged to depend, for the present, on the active work of republicans like yourself who will help President Harding and other republicans to carry on the great work which the administration is so ably doing for the reconstruction of this country. As you know, I am and have ever been a republican. I stand committed to the principles of the republican party. Adherence to these principles is the best guarantee for the perpetuity and general welfare of this republic, and should I become a senator of the United States, it will be my pleasure and purpose to work with the president and his party in an effort to establish policies for the best interests of all the people.
"If the republicans of Nebraska desire that I be nominated, I feel certain the wish will prompt them to urge their friends to vote for me at the primary on July 18, without the impetus of a large and expensive organization.
West Makes Progress.
"Our central west has made great progress in its brief history of 75 years. It alone cannot entirely control its future course, but it can the more nearly obtain its rights and realize its opportunities for development through a cordial participation with the representatives of other sections in the councils of the republican party, than it can by trying to do it alone.
"The people, by a majority of more than 7,000,000, elected President Harding for a term of four years. He should have the support of a republican house and senate during his tenure of office, else administration of our national affairs, entrusted to the president and republican party at the election in 1920, may be entirely blocked or so seriously impaired as to materially retard the non-day of the dawning era of national prosperity and happiness.

"Permit me to thank you for your interest and help. I prize your friendship and loyalty."

U. S. Government Firm in Stand Toward Russia

Hughes Says Soviets Must Put Own House in Order Before Expecting Credit From America.

Washington, May 1.—The American government stands unshaken in its determination that Russia must put its own house in order before it can expect political recognition by the United States.
Making his first statement of policy regarding Russian affairs since the subject came to the fore at Genoa, Secretary Hughes told a delegation of women at the State department that before any outside power could resume full relations with Russia it must adopt a policy of sound internal reconstruction. He added that the American people were anxious to do all they could, but would not attempt to extend credit where there was no sound basis for it.
No particular form of government was cited as desirable or undesirable by the secretary, nor did he mention any of the developments which have influenced the fortunes of the soviet since the Genoa conference began. He did suggest, however, that the principle of self-government in Russia was "somewhat complicated" by the efforts of some soviet officials to interfere in the domestic affairs of other nations.

The delegation to which the secretary addressed his pronouncement represented the international league for peace and freedom and had brought to the State department a petition for full political recognition of the soviet regime.
Fined on Liquor Charge.
David Gard, 5761 North Forty-third street, charged with illegal possession of liquor, was fined $100 in Central police court yesterday. J. B. Koester and J. C. Koester, who occupy a house adjoining Gard's, were released from a similar charge.
