Champion Heavyweight Fighter Purchases German Souvenirs.

Berlin, May 1.—(By A. P.)—"I'm a millionaire in Germany," chuckled Jack Dempsey, world's champion foday as the paying teller foday as the paying teller bale of marks in exchange for American dollars.

The champion was up early and started out on a shopping expedition which wound up with the purchase of a police dog, jewelry, opera glasses and an assortment of other souvenirs. Germans who shook hands with him expressed amazement at the size of his hands. "V/hat an awful fist," exclaimed a prominent political leader who stood in line in the lobby of the Hotel Adlon waiting for a cher-ished introduction to the fighter. Dempsey is filling only social en-gagements during his visit to Ger-many and said today that he purposed stopping his dieting regulations.
