Sisters, Separated for 5 Years, Seek Each Other

May Hill.

Separated for five years Mrs. Pearl Turner, 2322 Avenue B, Council Bluffs, and Miss May Hill, sisters, are searching through the middle west for each other...

It is heard of Miss Hill was in Salt Lake City, from where spiritualist mediums directed her sister to search Omaha for the missing girl...

"I know she is looking for me, too," Mrs. Turner said. "I'm so lonesome without her, for we haven't seen each other for five years."

Miss Hill is described as a tall, light complexioned blonde, 32 years old.

Business sessions will be held for the field workers Monday and Tuesday on the third floor annex of the Woodmen of the World building.

Chorus Increases Number of Voices

Clubs to Consider Proposition of Attending Negro Concert in Body.

Because of the interest shown in the concert to be given in the Auditorium Wednesday evening, May 31, under auspices of the Colored Commercial club, the number of voices in the negro chorus has been increased from 50 to 100.

The proposition of attending the concert in a body will be presented to members of the Concord, Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and Triangle clubs at their meetings this week.

Endorsement of the concert already has been given by the Tuesday Musical club, City Concert club, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Omaha Federation of Women's Missionary societies, executive committee of the Omaha Woman's club, Business and Professional Women's club, Junior League, Catholic Daughters of America, Christ Child society, Daughters of the American Revolution College Women's club, Dramatic League, Camp First Girls and Visiting Nurse association, a number of which plan to reserve seats in a body for the concert.

Ministers of the city have been asked to mention the concert at their services today. The concert has been endorsed by the Omaha Ministerial union. Tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and the Coal Hill Coal company, 1903 Farnam street.

Sunshine Special Pulls Out at 7 Monday Morning

Omaha's Sunshine Special, equipped with a wireless receiving set, will show off from the Union station at 7:15 Monday morning for land ports in northwestern Iowa, northeastern Nebraska and along the Winner (S. D.) line. The train is the annual Chamber of Commerce booster special that will spread sunshine and prosperity propaganda wherever it stops.

Frank Keogh, chairman of the committee in charge, will be commander of the special, while J. David Larson, commissioner, and W. A. Ellis, assistant commissioner, will be first and second mates. In order not to lose the news of Omaha as it breaks, a wireless receiving set on the train will inform the travelers all about the town they left behind. The party will be gone six days.

Fund Campaign for New Hospital to Open Monday

A campaign for funds for the erection of a new building for the Omaha Mission Hospital association will be opened Monday, with Rev. Jefferson Davis, president of the association, in charge. R. R. Strehlow, 1526 City National bank, is the treasurer of this association.
