Missouri Horseman Enters Select String of Runners in Meet; Money One of Stable

A noted breeder who is here to race a small but select string of runners at the coming meeting is B. A. Jones of Parnell, Mo. He is here with Mark Denunzio and Carlos Enrique. The former was one of the most consistent horses racing at Havana last winter and although starting but six times, he scored brackets four times in a row. His speed was amazinz while racing over a route. In his last start on Cuban soil he opened up a huge gap on a good field of horses and at the end of his mile and a sixteenth journey was twelve lengths to the good.

Jones isthe proud owner of the succesful sire, Seth, who is the daddy of Ikey T, one of the truest running sprinters that will be seen in action a the Ak-Sar-Ben track. He also produced the speedy 2-year-old Lorena Marcella, which won four consecutive victories over the best youngsters that raced at Havana.

The Jones breeding establishment at Parnell is one of the show places of that section of the country. It is the last word in appointment and contains eighteen matrons of royal blood lines. Jones reports that he has sixteen yearlings running out and that the present crop of embryo racing tools are o most promising band.

The Missourian is loud in his praises of the Ak-Sar-Ben plant and compares it favorably with the best race courses in America. He promises to be a yearly visitor here and intends bringing a more pretentious string next season.

Ty Cobb May Not Protest Decision

St. Louis, May 31.—Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit Americans, who was suspended yesterday for an altercation with Umpire Wilson, in Monday's game, last night declined to say whether he would present a formal protest to President Ban Johnson of the American league regarding the work of this umpire, as has been rumored.

"I have nothing to say at present, but will present my case in detail to Mr. Johnson, if I have a protest to make," said the Detroit manager.

Cobb and Heilmann were put out of the game Monday when they disputed Wilson's decision in a double play. Clark, who also participated in the argument, was not suspended, but appeared in yesterday's makeshift lineup of the Detroit team.

Cobb witnessed both games today from a box behind his players' dugout.

McWeeney Won't Go to Coast in Deal

Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Chicago, May 31.—Douglas McWeeney, one of the White Sox pitchers to figure in the $100,000 deal with San Francisco for Infielder Willie Kamm, has balked on going to the Coast league. One of the reasons for refusing to go to San Francisco is that he is in the real estate business in Chicago, and another is that the Chicago team of the Mid-West Semi-Pro association has signed him to a two-year contract calling for more money than he was receiving from Comiskey.

Babe Ruth Collects Second Home Run

New York, May 31.—Babe Ruth's second home run of the season, a 16-inning struggle in which St. Louis vanquished Detroit, 2 to 1, and a batting orgy of the New York and Philadelphia National league teams, surpassing even the most hectic of the year's clouting exploits—these were the high lights of 16 games in the major leagues.

Outside of the St. Louis Cardinals, who fell twice before Chicago, all the chief contenders divided their holiday programs, thus preventing any marked upsets in the races. Washington and Chicago, in the American, and Brooklyn and the Cubs, in the National, were the only clubs to profit by double victories.

Nebraskans Are Eligible to Meet

Chicago, May 31.—Nearly half of the leading amateur golfers of the United States, as shown by the eligibility list of the United States Golf association, listing players who may compete in the next national championship, live in the comparatively small portion of the country east of Ohio and north of Virginia.

The geographical distribution places 97 of the 206 eligible golfers in that area. Ninety-one west of that territory and 18 in the southern states, east of the Mississippi river.

New York, including the Metropolitan players in New Jersey, leads the states with 31 first-class players, while Illinois has 30, Pennsylvania 29 and Massachusetts 19. The only other state to get into two figures is California with 10.

Washington has 7, Nebraska 3, Iowa 2, and Colorado, Utah and Oregon have 1 each.

Policemen and Firemen Postpone Big Ball Game

The scheduled game between Joe Wavrin's police baseball team and the Omaha Fire department club was postponed yesterday because of rain.

Mondt Is Thrown.

San Francisco, May 31.—Renato Gardini clamped a headlock on Toots Mondt, after an hour and two minutes of wrestling last night, and when Mondt stood groggily after the hold was released, caught him with a crotch hold, swept him from his feet and flung him to the canvas. Mondt fell on the back of his head and was so dazed that the club physician refused to allow him to continue the bout.

To Hold Picnic.

The Woodmen of the World Athletic association of Omaha, comprising six camps, will hold a picnic at Krug park Saturday, June 17.

All-Nations Want Games.

The original All-Nations baseball team will tour the northwest again this season and is booked for games. Any club near Omaha that would like to book this team during the first part of July, write All-Nations Baseball Club, 261 East Eighth street, Kansas City, Mo.

Scrambled Sports by Wob

Ty Cobb, boss of the Detroit Tigers, will soon learn to keep off "Ump" Wilson's toes.

Wilson "worked" in the Western league last season and was considered one of the best umpires in the league. He carried a reputation with him of being fair and square in all of his decisions while on the diamond and was highly respected by all players, large and small.

Wilson, it will be remembered, is the "ump" who ousted "Pug" Griffin from a game at league park last season, said outsing costing the "Pug" a heavy fine.

It is no wonder Leo P. Flynn, manager of a large stable of fighters, wants to show his "boys" in an Omaha ring.

Dave Shade, one of Flynn's "family," took more than $3,000 out of Omaha.

Another Flynn representative is coming here in the person of Billy Shade.

Nebraska is noted for its kindhearted promoters.

Fred Haney, former Omaha Buffalo this-sacker, playing first base for Detroit in the second game of the St. Louis double header yesterday, scored two runs and clouted out two hits of five times to bat.

Not so bad, eh?

William (Ducky) Holmes, former Lincoln and Sioux City Western league club manager, is piloting the Fort Smith team in the Western association this season.
