A WILD NIGHT.

'Twas on a Pull, in the night,
Some men beheld a shocking sight;
The hour was late, yet these men played
At cards, as round the curves they swayed.

Down in the middle of the car,
Which wasn't near and wasn't far,
They saw the curtains rudely part,
And gosh, the sight made each man start!

A pair of limbs in silken hose
Were dangling out; each man arose,
But not that he might nearer view,
For that, of course, would never do!

Howe'er, they strained and looked again,
They couldn't help it, being men;
They wondered at the owner's nerve,
Thus from decorum's paths to swerve.

* * * * *

Ere long the owner's head appeared,
And then the mystery was cleared;
The shock that fell was hardly mild—
The legs belonged to Oscar Wilde.

—Phil Mighels.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give Five Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
