

Ensign's coach will be taken out this afternoon for the second time this season. Coaching parties in Lincoln are still sufficiently novel to be attractive. Burlington Beach will be open in a few days and it is probable that the dancing pavilion will be used rather frequently during the summer by select parties.

The local tennis tournament at the capitol courts this week has attracted considerable interest, the appearance of the grounds on several afternoons recalling the palmy days of some years ago, when tennis was in its height in this city. Some of this week's playing was excellent.

The winners in the Hard Times Whist club's series were: W. F. Kelley and Miss Jeannette Wilson, first prizes; Miss Bertie Clark and B. G. Dawes, second prizes; consolation prizes were awarded to John Dorgan and Miss Olive Latta. Dr. Ward made the presentation addresses.

Miss Rachel Brock left Monday for Cincinnati to visit school friends.

There will be a tally-ho party this afternoon to Ensign's farm. The party will include Misses Mary Miller, Jeanette Wilson, Olive Latta, Anne Funke, Mame Carson, Bertie Burr, Fay Marshall, Mae Burr, Grace Burr; Messrs. John T. Dorgan, Matt Baldwin, Will Johnson, W. D. Robinson, Lew Marshall, Charles Burr, Frank Burr, C. P. N. Clough, B. G. Dawes, Ross Curtis.

"Place Aux Dames" will be presented by the young ladies of the high school class of '94 at the conservatory of music this evening.

There will be a competitive university drill this afternoon, the prizes being medals. Thursday afternoon there was a preliminary drill on the camps for the selection of four men from each company of the battalion, resulting as follows: Company A—Sergeant Weeks, Privates Doubrava and Whipple; Company B—Sergeants Beardsley and Elliott, Corporal Pulis and Private Robbins; Company C—Sergeant Durrell, Corporal Almy, Privates Emerson and Thatcher. Today's drill will take place at the M street park.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Hoover and daughter went to Kansas City Thursday.

Judge Lansing's friends will regret to learn that he is again confined to the house by illness.

At least two weddings in which society will have an interest are due to occur in June, one in the early and the other in the latter part.

Mrs. Sarah Harris was in Leavenworth this week.

Mr. Zehrunge will leave for New York in a few days in the interest of the Funke opera house.

Mrs. W. C. Wilson has gone to Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Frank L. Sheldon has returned from New York.

The thirty-fourth recital given by the music department of the university, given Wednesday night in the university chapel, was a notable event evidencing marked improvement in this department. The program was a long one, but sufficiently varied to hold the interest of the large audience.

George H. Holden and Mrs. Lulu N. Riggs were married Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. T. P. Kennard, Seventeenth and H streets. They left immediately after the ceremony for Denver, where they will reside. Mr. Holden is a former resident of Lincoln and is well known in this city.

Mr. Frank C. Zehrunge has established himself in handsome bachelor apartments in the Salsbury block.

The Tuxedo Mandolin club gave a concert last evening at the Christian church. Mrs. L. P. Gould sang, as did also the Teyn Male quartet.

Miss Brownie Baum, of Omaha, returned home Thursday.

Mr. L. L. H. Austin left for Chicago and the east Wednesday.

Mr. D. G. Wing left Thursday afternoon for Davenport, Iowa, where he will meet his sister Miss Alice Wing who has been in New York attending the Women's school of design. They will arrive in Lincoln Monday.

Monday night the following comprised a party at the circus: Miss Mary Miller, Miss Anne Funke, Miss Mae Burr, Miss Bertie Burr, Miss Grace Burr, Miss Olive Latta, Miss Mame Carson, Mr. Mattson Baldwin, Mr. Frank S. Burr, Mr. Ross Curtice, Mr. Chas. Burr, Mr. Lew Marshall, Mr. Will Johnson, Mr. Will Clarke.

Miss Mary Miller entertained the young people who were in the circus party, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thompson, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Ross Curtice, Mr. Frank S. Burr and Miss Grace Burr furnished delightful music during the evening.

The Round Table will meet Monday night,

IN OMAHA.

For Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Morris and their guests Mrs. Boyd and Miss Chanute, Mr. and Mrs. Dana S. Lander gave a delightful little card party Thursday evening.

A very jolly and informal dance was given at the Madison on Tuesday evening of this week. Quite a number in the neighborhood were invited in and after the music had stopped many adjourned to the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker for a light supper.

Miss Pumphrey returned to her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Arthur Smith entertained at luncheon on Wednesday.

Miss McCord of St. Joseph who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. H. McCord for a few days, left for home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Offuth entertained the Cooking club Friday afternoon.

The High Five club had their last meeting for the season at Miss Wakeley's on Wednesday afternoon when the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Beale, Mrs. McKenna, Miss Wakeley and Mrs. Redick, these ladies having made the best scores throughout the year.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Algernon Patrick gave a very jolly coaching party for Miss Hall, and today Miss Emily Wakeley will entertain at luncheon in her honor.

Dinners this week were given by Capt. and Mrs. Ayres on Thursday and on Friday by Gen. and Mrs. Brooke.

One of the jolliest entertainments that Omaha has had this spring was a dance at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates, given on Monday evening by the Debutant's Cooking Club. The club con-