

Mr. W. S. Heade, of Cambridge, O., who visited in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Young and Mrs. A. B. Clark left for home Tuesday.

Miss Grace Brown, a student at the Western Normal, left Wednesday for the mission in Egypt. She is sent by the United Presbyterian church and sails from New York on the Etruria today.

Mrs. Daniel Baum and daughter, Miss Sadie, of Omaha, spent Saturday in the city.

Miss Kate Barton left Tuesday for Leavenworth, Kas.

C. D. Brindle left Monday for Newkirk, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Patton have gone to Chicago.

The W. E. C. Cooking club will be entertained by Miss Clara Leese this afternoon. This club is composed of nine jolly girls, who meet every two weeks and enjoy a luncheon prepared by themselves. The members are: Misses Sue Bartrum, Sallie Berkson, Helen Dorothy, Bertha DuTeil, Bernice Merrill, Mable Parish, Jessie Greedy, Clara Leese and Rosa Kohn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wilson have returned from St. Louis.

Miss Alice Farrington, who has been spending the summer in New York, has returned home.

Mr. John I. Underwood is in Denver.

Mrs. R. H. Oakley has returned from Denver.

R. N. Keener, Rev. Sidney Mills and Rev. W. M. Adams have gone to St. Louis.

Mrs. S. T. Osgood, of Massillon, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. S. C. Q. Upton, at 1525 H. street.

Misses Ferguson and Evans have opened a dancing school at the Lansing hall.

R. Forrester has gone to Pueblo, Colo.

J. M. Woods, A. D. Ritchie and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Chapenhoff left for El Reno, Oklahoma on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. H. Weir has gone to Chicago for a three weeks' visit with friends.

The Dante club met at Miss Elliott's residence Wednesday morning. Mesdames Fossler, Scott and Johnson read the cantos.

The "Book Review" club is certainly composed of ladies who defy even the wind and heat of Nebraska, for despite the intense heat of the summer they regularly met every Tuesday morning to review some late book. During the summer they reviewed "Marcella," "Life of Ruskin," Tennyson, "Art and Relation to Modern Life," and a number of other books, and Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. McCreary "The Ascent of Man" by Drummond was ably reviewed by Mrs. A. R. Ricketts. This was followed by a general discussion of the book, after which dainty refreshments were served. The members are: Mesdames Imhoff, Leavitt, Richards, Sawyer, Garten, Ricketts, Stein, Lamb, Green, Sewell, McCreary, Smith and Hardy.

E. W. MacDonald has gone to Florida to spend the winter.

J. B. McDowell, of Fairbury, was in the city during the week.

J. B. Wright returned Tuesday from Chicago, where he was called by the sudden death of his brother.

The reception given Wednesday evening by the Epworth League of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church was a pleasant affair. The large rooms were filled the entire evening and delightful music was furnished by the orchestra.

The Nebraska conservatory of music was brilliantly illuminated on Wednesday evening in honor of the fifth anniversary of the opening of the institution. Two large headlights were placed on the tower and a device over the main entrance bore the name of the conservatory and the dates "1889-1894." Every room in the building was lighted and the porches were bright with rows of Japanese lanterns. At ten o'clock the guests gathered in conservatory hall, where Rev. F. S. Stein entertained them with a bright talk on music and the conservatory. Then the Mendelssohn orchestra of thirty pieces appeared and rendered some delightful music. Between the selections Gen. Thayer and Dr. C. C. Lasby spoke highly of the school and of the orchestra. A pleasant informal reception in the parlors closed the celebration.

The Society of the Hall in the Grove met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Stein last Friday evening. There was a full attendance. The history of France up to the time of Charlemagne was the subject of discussion during the first part of the evening and was led by Miss M. E. Stevens. Mrs. Thomas Sewell followed and clearly outlined the causes of the war in Korea, also the character of the Koreans, Chinese and the Japanese and their respective governments. A general discussion of the subject followed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Hall 1510 K street, October 19.

Frank Henry Woods and Miss Nell Shreve Cochrane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cochrane, will be married Friday evening October 19 at half past six o'clock at the St. Paul M. E. church. The wedding cards announce that they will be at home after December 1 at 2003 F street.

There is some talk about a mysterious wedding to take place in Trinity church within two weeks. Curiosity is rife as to whether there is to be a wedding, and if so, as to the identity of the high contracting parties.

The old Clark residence on P street between Eleventh and Twelfth, transformed into a beautiful club house for the Commercial Club, was thrown open to the members of the club and their friends Wednesday evening. The building which has been refurnished throughout, and handsomely furnished, presents a most attractive appearance. On Wednesday evening it was rendered additionally attractive by reason of handsome decorations, etc. Brown's orchestra furnished music throughout the evening. Guests were received by Messrs. E. R. Sizer, John D. Knight, N. S. Harwood, C. J. Danbach, A. S. Raymond, W. L. Dayton, J. C. Harpham, A. E. Hargreaves, D. R. Goldberg, Frank C. Zehrung, John Fawell and H. S. Hotchkiss. Among the gentlemen present were: C. M. Leighton, F. E. Gage, H. B. Grainger, Walter Davis, John J. Gillilan, A. G. Billmeyer, Dr. W. L. Dayton, A. T. Leiss, W. M. Croan, Dr. M. H. Everett, Frank McClusky, A. D. Kitchen, A. S. Raymond, Eli Plummer, C. F. Harpham, Simon Mayer, C. R. Teft, J. D. Knight, R. A. Perry, Professor Clark, Judge Broady, L. L. H. Austin, J. J. Butler, Dr. Winnett, William Lawler, Morris Friend, S. M. Melick, F. E. Campbell, C. H. Mann, J. H. Fawell, A. K. Binford, E. Hallett, J. E. Hill, C. B. Fox, S. D. Cox, T. J. O'Connell, C. W. Hoxie, F. D. Crim, Dr. Stanhope, Bert E. Bettt, R. C. Hazlett, M. Weil, S. L. Geisthardt, F. Hutchins, W. Morton Smith, W. G. Roberts, O. M. Raime, C. H. Rudge, M. Ackerman, J. C. Harpham, Henry Harpham, Dave Goldberg, C. H. Gere, Col. J. J. Pershing, I. M. Raymond, S. P. Lau, F. C. Zehrung, Dr. H. H. Wilkinson, J. F. Lansing, R. H. Townley, H. R. Krug, Fritz Westerman, Sam Low, F. A. Brown, Paul H. Holm, M. M. White, C. A. Hanna, W. T. Westerman, W. B. Wilson, E. L. Holyoke and J. D. Conner. Many ladies were also present among whom were: Miss Clark, Miss Latta, Miss Mae Daubach, Miss Burlette, Miss Sizer, Miss Hazlett, Miss Binford, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. E. R. Sizer and Mrs. Danbach.

Rev. A. Cobb, of Springfield, Ill., arrived in this city Friday and in the afternoon lectured at the First Baptist church before the State Christian Endeavor society on "The Heroism of Faith."

$1.00 for 69 cents if you want it in bed comforts at Herpolsheimer & Co.