

Messrs. and Mesdames O. B. Howell, C. E. Yates, Frank Hall, John B. Wright, Mr. Robinson, Misses Henrietta Hollowbush, Nellie White, Jeanette Wilson, Olive Latta, Rachel Brock, Lillian Mills, Mae Moore, Hallie Hooper, Mae Burr, Rose Carson; Messrs. Frank C. Zehring, Lew Marshall, John Dorgan, Mattson Baldwin, George Woods, C. P. A. Clough, Fred Houtz, Will Meyer, C. A. Howe and Will Clarke occupied boxes at the charity concert on Tuesday evening.

The pleasant home of Miss Florence Winger was aglow with light on Friday evening, the occasion being a dancing party to her friends. The spacious rooms were decorated with flowers and everywhere bright pretty faces could be seen and merry voices heard. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. About one hundred and twenty-five invitations were issued and but few regrets were received.

The young society people of the city are manifesting much interest in the coming engagement of the Princeton Glee club, which will appear at the Funke some time during the holidays.

The marriage of Miss Marie Jones and Mr. Clinton Lee will take place at the home of the bride's parents, December 26.

The Dorcas society met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Hewitt.

The ball given at Worthington academy on Thursday evening was a brilliant affair.

Miss Cora McDowell left yesterday for her home in Fairbury where she will spend the holidays.

The society event of the week was the dancing party given Wednesday evening at the Lansing hall by Lieut. and Mrs. R. H. Townley. The hall was filled with merry dancers, the gowns worn by the ladies were very fetching. The music was excellent, the floor was in fine condition, the company congenial and everyone spent a most delightful evening.

The Young Men's republican club met Thursday evening at the Lincoln hotel. A new constitution was adopted and the matter of giving a banquet was discussed, a committee with power to act was appointed as follows: Fritz Westermann, L. A. McCandless, H. K. Kerman, F. M. Tyrel and Stewart Shears.

F. M. Fisk left Wednesday for Grand Rapids.

Miss Lillibridge and Miss Marquette were in Omaha Thursday.

Mr. W. D. Robinson and bride left Wednesday afternoon for St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Edwards of Batavia, N. Y., are the guests of Mrs. S. C. O. Upton.

The following program was rendered Friday evening by the students of the Nebraska conservatory of music in Union hall:

PIANO.....	Nocturne op 32 No. 1.....	Chopin
	Miss Mary Young
SELECT READING.....
	Miss N. Watson
SONG.....	"Fear Not Ye, O Israel".....	Budk
	Mrs. Cotter
PIANO.....	Polka de la Reine.....	Raff
	Miss Mame Mullen
VIOLINCELLO.....		Selected
	R. C. Howell
SONG.....	"Beauties Eyes".....	Tosti
	Miss Dorris Stevenson
READING.....	"That Old Sweetheart of Mine".....
	Miss Minnow Gillum
CORNET DUET.....	"La Brilliant".....
	Burk Buchanum, Swan Pierson.

1—"Now that th' tree is all trimmed, I'll get th' goat that I bought for Biddy's Christmas surprise."

2—"Yes, I'll tie him to th' base of it, I will."

3—Sir William: Well, if this doesn't look like a royal old Christmas for me. Just think, a whole tree with ornamental dressing.

4—As a surprise it was a complete success