Miss Corwin at Convention.

After the devotional exercises yesterday morning Miss Corwin, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., addressed the students on the "Value of Friendship." She called attention to the cramped quarters of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. organizations, that they are entirely out of proportion to the work that is carried on and it is high time that something is being done to give the work full sway. That the new temple building will supply this want and great things are in store for the religious and social organizations.

But there is something we need more than room. Something which the new and stately building, or even the polish and culture acquired in the class room can not furnish if we do not ourselves cultivate it during our University life. This is "friendship." The smooth and flowing sentences of Homer and the odes of Horace will be forgotten after a time; but the friendships made are lasting. In forming friendships we should not look at the amount of culture of our associates but to make our lives really count for anything we should seek those who need love and sympathy more than anything else and cultivate their friendship.

Palladians Render Athletic Programme.

The Palladian society gave an athletic program Friday night. The society is well represented in athletics and a very good program was rendered. A large number of visitors was present.

Mr. Borg read a paper entitled, "Gleanings from the Gridiron." It was humorous and was highly appreciated.

Mr. John Clark read a paper on "Athletic Politics." By means of stories, Mr. Clark brought to light the methods used.

Mr. N. J. Elliott talked upon, "The Basket From the Field," and gave some interesting items as to the origin and universality of basket ball.

Mr. Lightner talked about "The Whistle." He told what the whistle means in a game.

Mr. Cochran and Mr. Roy Clark gave piano selections, which were well received.

After the program the usual recess for social intercourse was observed, after which a business meeting was held. The following new members signed the constitution: Misses Bennett, Van Horne, Bridenbaugh, Nellie Bridenbaugh, Naylor; Messrs. Thomas, De Young, Tullys and Thomson.

Union Boys Debate.

The Union Debating club held another well attended and successful meeting last Saturday evening at Union hall. The question, "Resolved, That the United States should adopt more stringent immigration laws," was the subject for a spirited debate in which all were called upon to express their views.

In the business meeting which followed the debate it was announced that the team which would represent the club at Doane will be chosen this week and that all who are willing to go should hand in their names to the president as soon as possible. The team will choose the question and submit it to Doane. Doane has the option of sides.

The committee on the program to be given at the College settlement in the near future reported that nothing had been done as yet toward settling upon a program but the question will be looked into and definite action taken next Saturday night. Several new members were taken in, among whom was Mr. Levy, who won the Missouri Valley championship in debate last year.

The question for debate at the next meeting is "Resolved, That Nebraska should adopt the Minnesota primary law." Messrs. Levy and Castell were chosen on the affirmative and De Young and Kerr on the negative.

Frank—Say Grace, let's go to the matinee a week from Saturday afternoon!

Grace—Oh, no! Can't make any date for Saturday, as I am going to the Athletic Carnival; could not miss it.

It is whispered that the Athletic Carnival will be an all star (*) attraction. Don't miss it.
