TEAM GIVEN FITTING OVATION

Enthusiastic Crowd Greet the Victorious Home-Coming Warriors. Big Meeting in Chapel Last Night. Details of Game and Casual Comment. Relations Probably Severed.

A large and enthusiastic crowd met the victorious Cornhuskers at the Missouri Pacific depot last night. The train did not arrive until shortly after 7 o'clock, but the crowd began to collect soon after 6 and gradually grew until it probably numbered over fifteen hundred persons. A gayly decorated band-wagon had been secured for the occasion, into which the players were tenderly placed by their excited admirers. Ropes were fastened to the wagon and the entire equipage was drawn through the main streets of town, finally stopping at the Eleventh street entrance to the campus. Here the players were lifted on the shoulders of the crowd and carried to the chapel, where the scene of greatest enthusiasm of the whole celebration was enacted.

Deafening cheers greeted the entrance of each player as he was released from the grasp of his supporters on the platform. Clark Bell and L. P. Hewitt led the cheering and Dr. Pound presided as master of ceremonies. He called for three cheers for the whole team and then introduced Captain Bender. The captain's well known modesty prevented his delivering a speech of great length, but he thanked the gathering for its great demonstration, and likened it to the famous Minnesota celebration of last year. A great ovation was tendered to Captain Bender.

Coach Booth expressed the opinion that the demonstration on the departure of the team last Friday and the support of University rooters in Lawrence during the game were chiefly responsible for the victory.

Modesty again prevented a lengthy address, however, and Manager Buckner was called upon to relate some of the "touching incidents" of the excursion. Mr. Buckner was satisfied from this game that collegé spirit was the only thing that could win a game of football, and asserted that our victory over Kansas was not a piece of good fortune, but the result of hard and desperate playing on the part of the team, and of the rooting of Nebraska's supporters. Mr. Buckner expressed satisfaction that what was probably the best game we shall ever play with Kansas should have resulted in a victory for Nebraska after so close a struggle.

Maurice was too hoarse to speak at length, but expressed his appreciation of the reception that was being accorded the team. Charles Borg excused himself on the plea that the first thing he had learned in football was to let the captain and coach do all the talking.

At this point "Cy" Mason and his brother scored the success of the evening, with a vocal duet of very classic tone. Cotton, Eager and Robertson spoke briefly, after which ex-Captain Westover led the team in a new and very affectionate yell. Mr. Westover was on the opinion that Saturday's game was the hardest that Nebraska had ever played. Every one was surprised at the showing Kansas made. The fact, however, that Nebraska had been able to hold Kansas six times after they had pushed the ball over our 5-yard line, was in itself enough to entitle Nebraska to the victory. "You ought to be proud of it," Mr. Westover remarked. "We are," screamed the crowd. "That's the proper spirit," Westover replied, as he took his seat.

The remaining members were called upon for speeches and responded with the same thanks and appreciation that their predecessors had expressed. Hunter promised that the team would play even better ball in the future than in the past, though the crowd seemed to consider this impossible.

The meeting broke up about 8:30 o'clock with rousing cheers for the "whole team" and for its individual members. This ended the most enthusiastic celebration of the year.

KANSAS ON RAGGED EDGE?

University authorities and students alike were almost overwhelmed with surprise yesterday at hearing the report that Kansas had severed relations with Nebraska. And the fact that we have received no official notification of such action on the part of Kansas has given rise to much speculation and even to doubt. Officially our authorities are in complete ignorance of any such action being taken by Kansas and up to yesterday evening had received no official notification. Dr. Condra upon being interviewed late yesterday afternoon, said:

"In view of the happy relations with Kansas Saturday, I can hardly see how such action on the part of the Kansas board could be possible. The students and members of the faculty with whom I talked were greatly pleased over the friendly outcome of our associations with the Kansas people Saturday, and all were of the opinion that the two institutions would be very closely related in the future. And so, in view of everything that has transpired within the past few days I can not believe that the report is true and will not believe it until officially notified."

Dr. Condra did not think that the time was ripe for a statement in The Nebraskan, as our authorities have not been officially notified that Kansas has taken such a step. In discussing some of the points attributed to the Kansas authorities as objections, Dr. Condra said:

"I did not tell them that they were unsportsmanlike in dealing with our board. I told Professor Hodge over the phone that we should be especially careful to see that no unsportsmanlike conduct should happen and asked him to co-operate with Chancellor Strong. And in reference to the objections made concerning the sending of lists, I will say that we did not receive the Kansas list until after trouble began—considerably less than ten days before the game. Dr. Pound, faculty member of the Athletic Board, in speaking of athletic relations with Kansas, expressed himself as follows: "The talk about their severing relations with Nebraska is entirely unofficial. Before the game, after chewing the rag for some time about the ineligibility of Bender and Wilson, they sent us to come and play and their protests would be withdrawn. The game Saturday was played with that understanding and since then nothing has been heard by the board in regard to severing relation. The press statements undoubtedly originated from someone who wanted to work off his bile after getting beaten and who wished to smooth the matter over a little bit."

He further stated that Nebraska is not in the least concerned and if Kansas does wish relations to cease, she has the choice and will simply be looked upon as making a fool of herself. The statement that she declared relations off before the game, he thinks is most absurd, since no one heard anything about it, and what is more, the game would not have been played if such had been the case.

No one here denies that Kansas did not give us the best of treatment and we certainly were treated better than we expected. The Nebraska rooters were rather dubious about going to Kansas, but now they are unanimous in expressing their gratification at the treatment they received and their surprise over the reported action of the Kansas board. While in Lawrence such good feeling prevailed that Nebraska rooters pinned the Kansas colors onto their own.

In view of the fact that the prospect seemed bright for the friendliest relations between this University and Kansas, it is to be hoped that there is no foundation for the report. Even if there was, we believe that the majority of the faculty and of the student body of Kansas University would not sanction such action on the part of their athletic authorities.

GREATEST GAME OF SEASON

And the best team won. Pushed back to her own 7-yard line once, and inside her own 5-yard line twice, Nebraska spirit and gameness saved the day. Three times the team responded nobly to the cry "Stonewall, Nebraska!" and three times, once within two yards of the coveted goal line, on the first down, too, Kansas was compelled to yield the ball without advancing an inch.

How they got that near to our goal line is here in detail.

Kansas won the toss, choosing the kick-off, Nebraska taking the east goal, with a slight east wind in our favor.

At 3:04 p. m. Allen of Kansas kicked off to Bender, on our 5-yard line, who returned six yards. Nebraska made seven yards through tackle and Kansas held, forcing Benedict to punt. The ball went forty-five yards toward Kansas' goal and Wilson downed the Kansas man in his tracks. Here Nebraska suffered her first penalty of ten yards for off-side play. Kansas made four yards through left tackle and fumbled, Borg getting the ball in the center of the field. Nebraska evened up matters by fumbling, Kansas getting the ball. Two and one-half, five, three and three yards gains for the Jayhawkers were made through our tackles and guards in quick succession, and with the ball on our 25-yard line Kansas was penalized for holding, the amount given being ten yards. An end run netted Kansas a two-yard loss and from an off-side play she lost ten more. Another attempt at end run gained one yard, and Pooler of Kansas tried a place kick from the Nebraska 30-yard line. The ball started right and Kansas rooters let out a yell which was a moment later drowned by the "U-U-UNI" for the ball went wild. From our 25-yard line "Bennie" sent the oval fifty yards, and Kansas returned five yards. Again Kansas took up the march in the wrong direction and five yards through right guard, two and one-half and three yards by line bucks, then more line bucks brought the ball to Nebraska's 45-yard line, where Kansas fumbled.

Bender started the ball in the other direction by a seven yard end run. Three more were added through the center and Kansas was penalized again for interfering with the passing of the ball. Four yards were all we could gain and Benedict punted. Kansas was downed with no return. Line bucking tactics were again resumed and the ball was carried to Nebraska's 10-yard line. Thirteen and a half minutes yet to play. Again the Kansas battering ram hurled itself against our tackles and guards and with the ball on her own 4-yard line Nebraska held, and Benedict punted to our 45-yard line. Wilson downed the Kansas man with no return.

Undaunted, Kansas took up the procession of gains toward our goal and without once being held for downs carried the ball to our 10-yard line, and again something called the Nebraska spirit, which seemed to hover only

WILL GIVE PLAYS

Dramatic Club Arranges a Number of Plays and Casts

At a meeting of the Dramatic club yesterday morning the play committee announced the plays to be given this season and the casts were also made public. The first play will be given the second week in December, after which a play will be presented every three weeks in Memorial hall and admission will be free, at least for the present.

The plays and casts are arranged by the committee as follows:

TWO NEGATIVES MAKE AN AFFIRMATIVE.

The club starts with a large membership and a great deal of enthusiasm is manifested. The club was organized several years ago for the purpose of recreation and improvements and its sphere has been materially widened. Many students who go out from the University have been called upon to take charge of and give plays and for this the club furnishes an invaluable drill and preparation. The student learns to so thoroughly to overcome his own self-consciousness that he is benefited all through life. Membership is open to any student of the department of elocution, now or former, and it is hoped that as many as can will avail themselves of the opportunity.

Prof. Barber at Convocation.

Professor Grove E. Barber, of the department of Latin, will speak at convocation tomorrow on the subject, "In and about the Roman Forum." Material for this lecture was gathered two years ago in Rome and will prove very entertaining and valuable. The lecture will be illustrated.
