

More or Less Local

The second year girls in domestic science will begin serving meals after Christmas.

Mr. Swenk, assistant in ornithology, has resumed his duties after an extended illness.

Dr. William H. Lamborn, pre-medic, '38, was married to Mrs. Gertrude Hale at Vienna, Austria, November 14.

Miss Wirt, a former student of the University, was a guest of Miss Bessie Turner of the Conservatory of Music yesterday.

Mr. Lazard Kahn, of New York City, well known in Lincoln, and a geologist of some note, visited the University during the week.

The Seutonium class is busy preparing papers to be read in class soon, dealing with various phases of that author's characteristics and style.

The list of cadets named for a position on the Jeffersonian guards at the world's fair was sent in today by the superintendent of educational exhibits, Professor Barbour.

The first year girls in domestic science are working with cereals at present, after which they will try making sample candies. Examinations covering various branches will be given in a short time.

The Camaraderie club was entertained by Professor and Mrs. Bruner Wednesday in honor of Miss Frankish and Miss Ames. An oyster supper was enjoyed, and a lively social time indulged in.

The beginning class in anatomy has finished their study of bones and is doing some work on the dog in order to familiarize themselves with methods of dissection, preparatory to taking up dissection of the human subject after Christmas.

L. S. Storrs, '91, geologist for the Northern Pacific railroad, and member of the United States survey, visited the University and the dean of the graduate school to arrange his graduate work, which is to be finished at the coming commencement in February.

Mrs. T. M. Hodgman entertained the teachers and officers of the First Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday evening. The evening was largely given up to pleasure, but the opportunity to lay plans for the coming year was also taken advantage of.

The State Geological survey has just been fitted out with a new filing cabinet of the latest and most improved pattern. There are between forty and fifty thousand documents now waiting to be filed. This will furnish a place for electro-types, pictures, field notes, photographs, etc.

W. F. Heath has just secured for the state survey a four foot section from a cedar log in a buried forest near Bellwood, Neb. This old glacial forest was exposed by the freshets last summer and was reported to the state forestry association while in session at York, which led to its investigation by Mr. Heath. Perfectly preserved pine cones, logs, limbs and leaves are to be found and yet the timbers have been buried for thousands of years.

In Society.

Monday evening at the chapter house P. Beta Phi will give a "cooky shine." Both the name and the custom are traditions of Pi Phi and of course are not to be divulged, but if "cooky" is any criterion the "editorial we" would like to be next.

Miss Margaret Honeywell and Blanch Garten will be Delta Gamma visitors in Omaha for the Tukey-Morrison wedding, which occurs next Wednesday. Miss Tukey is a member of Delta Gamma and Mr. Morrison is an Alpha Tau Omega.

Just a Suggestion.

There is nothing that one can give as a Christmas present that is more appreciated than an artistic, life-like portrait.

Money spent in this way goes farther than in any other line. Think of this suggestion. See what we are producing and make an appointment for your sitting immediately.
