DR. ANDREWS SPEAKS.

Discusses "The Claims of the Church" at Y.M.C.A. Meeting.

One of the most successful of men's meetings given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was that held Sunday at the Oliver. Chancellor Andrews delivered an address on "The Claims of the Church," which was a powerful exposition of the subject and impressed the vast audience greatly. Among many other forcible points that Dr. Andrews brought out was that the church is a pipe line between modern and ancient civilization, it being the meeting point where their ideals are blended. The religion of one age through it has been transmitted into another. It has been the chief agency in educational development, not only in denominational institutions, but in secular ones as well. There are a great many agencies in the world to rend apart rather than to bind together. But the church is the great agency which is bringing us into a higher plane of social life.

Anyone in sympathy with the ideals that the church is striving to attain, should not remain outside of the church. The mere attendance at church, according to Dr. Andrews, does one good.

This meeting was one of the most successful meetings of the series, as well as one of the best attended. A large number of University organizations attended in a body, and all were well pleased with the high order of the entertainment provided. An excellent feature of the meeting was the music furnished by H. J. W. Seemark.

Sophomores Hold Meeting.

The Sophomores met yesterday at 10 a. m. in U. 107, to hear the reports of several committees. The most important report heard was that of Chairman Mathewson in regard to the Sophomore cap for this year. The committee has decided on a small cap of the style very popular this year. The cap will be dark red in color with white numerals. Mr. Mathewson requested that all Sophomores see him at once about these caps or leave orders at Armstrong's. The price will be 75 cents.

Chairman Waldron of the Temple Fund committee had no report to offer and the meeting concluded by President Steen appointing a basket ball committee to consist of Messrs. Waldron, Wheeler and Lee.

Quite a discussion marked the first part of the meeting in regard to the price charged for the Sophomore Hop. The matter is fully discussed on our editorial page and does not require comment here.

Dr. Fling Gives Talk.

Dr. Fling gave an excellent exposition of the best method of teaching European history in the high schools before the class in education 7, methods of instruction, last Thursday. This lecture is to be followed by one from Professor Caldwell on the best method schools. The symposium of lectures given by the heads of departments on the best methods of teaching the various subjects, supplemented by reading and discussion, has proven both interesting and profitable.

Unions Elect Officers.

The Union Boys Debating club met Saturday evening and elected the following officers: President, J. L. McReynolds; vice president, E. A. Baker; secretary, Albert Levy; attorney, O'Gara; assistant attorney, Pfeiffer. The president will soon appoint five members of the society to confer with five members of the Palladians to arrange the details of the joint debate to be held immediately after the holidays.
