Campus Gleanings

Charlie Miller is out again, after a week's illness.

The "Innocents" meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Important.

Marie Richards of the conservatory has been sick for the past few days.

M. D. Haddox, of Central City, was visiting his son, Elbert Haddox, the forepart of the week.

Florence Sullivan left for her home in Oklahoma City yesterday to begin her Christmas vacation.

Arthur Marsh went to Wahoo Sunday to conduct services in the Episcopal church at that place.

The class of 1902, Lincoln high school, will give a reunion party for High School people at Walsh Hall, December 26.

The Inter-class Athletic board meeting, which was to have been held yesterday morning, did not convene on account of lack of business.

R. T. Baird, '07, received the sad news Monday of the death of his mother at Cedar Rapids. He left for his home Monday evening.

Shelving has been fitted in the south side of the law library, so that now all the books are accommodated. During the Christmas vacation it is expected the table will be provided with lights, after which the library will be quite complete.

The Y. W. C. A. is to have an Xmas stocking for gifts to add to the comfort of the room. Some of the things the room committee are asking Santa Claus for are pictures, sofa pillows, pin cushions, tack hammers, toilet soap, cut flowers and vases.

The battalion has commenced drill on the foot-ball field now that the fences have been removed. It is the intention of Captain Chase to hold drill on the campus as long as the weather will permit, in order that next spring's work may not have to include as many new movements as is usually the case.

Considerable complaint is being heard over the lack of sufficient heat in the chem. lab. Sunday evening the temperature was allowed to fall so low that several experiments left from last week were spoiled. Professor Nicholson reports much inconvenience from this as well as from the discomforts under which the students have been working since that time.

A banquet was recently given by the University of Nebraska alumni now residing in Denver. Among those prominently connected with the affair are to be noted the names of C. W. Bigelow, now principal of one of the Denver high schools; Orvil Price, formerly an instructor in this University, and Miss Mamie Edwood. A permanent organization was perfected and it is intended to make this banquet, which was given at one of the leading Denver hotels, an annual affair.
