

In a Social Way

Sigma Chi initiated three men last night at the chapter house.

Homer Southwick has left school to work in his father's bank at Friend.

Hunny Hull of Fremont has been visiting his Delta Tau brothers this week.

Kappa Kappa Gamma will give a matinee party this afternoon.

Kappa Alpha Theta will have a "kat-sup" at the chapter house tonight.

Miss Van Horn will soon be one of the young ladies living at the Kappa house.

The choir of St. Luke's Episcopal church will give an informal party at Walsh hall Tuesday evening.

Miss Rachel Nicholson has returned from Lead, S. D., where she has been visiting Miss Pearl Archibald for a month past.

Miss Mayme Killian has returned from Centerville, Iowa, where she has been spending the holidays with Miss Winifred Howells.

Miss Gladys Hargreaves entertained the Kappas at the chapter house last Sunday and Monday at a house party at her home.

Bob Thompson, who has been quite ill at his home in Omaha since the holidays, resumed his work at the university yesterday.

On account of his father's illness, Harry Reed has been compelled to give up his work at the university and take charge of his father's business at Malvern, Iowa.

Tonight a banquet commemorating the foundation of Sigma Chi at Nebraska will be given at the chapter house. A number of alumni will be present.

Mr. A. G. Schreiber entertained a select number of his friends at a smoker at the Alpha Theta house Tuesday evening. An evening of surpassing enjoyment was culminated by Mr. Schreiber's guests presenting him with a fine French briar pipe as a token of their friendship and esteem.

Owing to a conflict of dates at Fraternity hall, the freshman hop was held last night at the Lincoln hotel for the first time.

Several features usually conspicuous by their absence at class functions marked the affair last night. There were neat decorations of palms, university colors, and pennants of yellow and blue, the colors of '07. Punch was served in the "ordinary," which was decorated with palms and class colors, another feature not often enjoyed.

A program of twenty dances, with Eddie Walt's orchestra, made the affair most successful from the point of view of those attending.

The following committee had the hop in charge:

Clarence G. Johnson, Lincoln, chairman.

William Rine, Fremont, master of ceremonies.

C. A. Sunderlin, Tekamah.

Reeta Clark, Omaha.

C. B. Duer, Hastings.

Bess Lumry, Fullerton.

Minnie Sweezy, Lincoln.

John Voorhees, Chicago.

Roy Hake.

Montoise Lee, Omaha.

Mabel Cramer, Hastings.

George Elmendorf, Lincoln.

Denton Slaughter, Omaha.

Vinda Hudson, Lincoln.

Helen Bridge, Norfolk.

Ellery Davis, Lincoln.

Helen Hendrie, Omaha.

George Ade Up-to-Date.

"Mr. Smith, this is the fifth time this week that you have been late. What is the matter?"

"Well," said Smith, with the hopeless air of one bucking against fate, "I started two hours ago from the library, but must have lost a little time up and down steps."

Tears of sympathy welled up in the instructor's eyes and dropped in glistening globules to the ground.

"Mr. Smith," when he could control his trembling voice so convulsed with emotion, "Mr. Smith; once I tried for two hours and three minutes to find my way through the studios throng on the library steps and in Uni. Hall. Mr. Smith, we suffered together. Your lateness is excused."

Moral: Instructors aren't so hard hearted.
