Convocation.

The following is the convocation program for the week:
 Today—Speakers from various colleges.
 Friday—Special music.

Miss Josephine Duras has left the University to teach at Humboldt.

Miss Rose Brewster has been elected to a position in the schools at Harrison.

Miss Minnie Buchanan has discontinued her work in the University and gone to Brewster to teach.

Latin 44 will be given again this year by Miss Dean. The class will meet on Wednesdays at 1 p. m.

There will be no meeting of the University Liederkranz next week on account of examinations.

Chancellor Andrews returned yesterday from Portland, Ore., where he lectured before the National Stock Raisers' association.

Miss Clara Conklin lectured at Brock January 12, and on the 12th of next month she will lecture at Tecumseh on "Glimpses of Spain."

The superintendent of education for the Nebraska commission has just finished architectural plans for the education booth for the world's fair.

Hon. H. H. Hanks, democratic candidate for congress in the First district of Nebraska, 1902, and a former University student was a caller at the office of The Nebraskan yesterday.

The German department will not offer course 1 to beginners next semester. Students who find it necessary to take beginning German will be obliged to take it at the Academy.

Mrs. T. F. A. Williams will address the Y. M. C. A. girls next Sunday at 3 p. m. in U 106. Special music will be furnished for the occasion and all University girls are invited to attend.

The six exhibits going from the University to the world's fair will be the Educational Palace, the Miners and Mining building, Forestry building, Irrigation building, Electrical building, and the Agricultural exhibit.

Through an oversight course 2 at 4 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays under Mr. Persinger was omitted from the schedule of American history courses published in yesterday's Nebraskan.

Professor Caldwell has added a complete set of Daniel Webster's works to his library. The set was picked up at a bargain in a second hand book store and Professor Caldwell is much pleased at being able to secure it so reasonably.

The state geological survey has just added two large filing cabinets to its list of permanent fixtures in the office of the geology department. These cabinets are designed to contain 45,000 documents, such as letters, blanks, card catalogues, etc. They are complete in every detail and represent a perfect system.

The Y. W. C. A. has received a letter from Miss Paxson, one of the American secretaries of the association, stating that she will not be able to be here the 13th of next month, as had been arranged, but will be forced to postpone her visit till the 24th. When she comes she will be the guest of University for a week.
