MISS PAXSON AT CHAPEL

"The Responsibilities and Possi-bilities of College Students"

Miss Ruth Paxson, national secretary of the Y. W. C. A., gave a fine talk at convocation Thursday morning. She spoke of the possibilities and responsibilities of the student life. She said in part: "Remember that the body is the temple in which God loves to dwell. Do not then neglect the development of the body. I am glad that in the University of Nebraska there is a gymnasium and that both men and women are required to take physical training. I hope that the day will soon come when every University and College throughout the land will be as fortunate."

"Go into the land prepared for you and possess it." Get all you can in your college career. I sometimes think that too much importance is attached to the intellect and students come out of college intellectual giants, but pigmies in soul. Soul is God's masterpiece. Do not neglect or starve it.

"The one answer I get in all colleges to the question, Why do you not take an interest in Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A. work? is 'I haven't time.' I have come to look upon this as a mere excuse, not a reason. Many students waste time in three ways. First, through worry; second, gossiping or loafing; third, not concentrating the mind upon the lesson at hand. Instructors ask that you spend two hours in preparing an assignment, but they will not object if you succeed in preparing it in less time.

"Let us not forget our responsibility. There are many who are just as deserving and who would like to be here. Why is this? Does God love us better? No, but God has given us more responsibility. Of him to whom much has been given, much will be required."

Miss Paxson arrived Wednesday evening at 8 p. m., and began work at once by meeting two of the committees that evening. The girls of the University should improve every opportunity to meet her and hear her talk. She is being entertained at the Kappa house.

English Club Meeting

The English club will meet Saturday night, February 27, with Miss Alice Towne, at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, 1025 J street. The meeting was postponed by request last week, in honor of the Graduate club meeting at the home of Prof. Fossler. A new members' program will be given. The club has begun the reform this semester of arriving reasonably early, beginning the program before 8:30. An endeavor will be made to continue this.
