Dr. G. E. Condra and O. J. Fee returned yesterday from Grand Island, where they delivered lectures before a farmers' institute Wednesday evening.

Professor Barbour has written a eulogy on the late Prof. W. C. Knight of the geology department of Wyoming, for publication in an eastern magazine.

The class in geology II was excused yesterday morning because of the failure of the substitute lantern which had been provided to render efficient service. The lantern regularly used was away in Grand Island with Dr. Condra and Mr. Fee, who gave a lecture there yesterday evening.

The engineering students of the University held a smoker at the Alpha Tau Omega house Wednesday evening. L. M. Hunnington entertained in behalf of the A. T. O.'s, and a very pleasant evening was spent in various ways.

The Union society has adjourned the usual Friday night program to Saturday night, when they will play the annual basket ball game with the Delians in the Armory and give the program afterwards at the hall.

Captain Rogers, the fast end of the Minnesota team, has been elected coach of the Carlyle Indians for next year. Rogers formerly played at Carlyle, having spent seven years there playing football. He has been with Minnesota the past three and was one of the pillars of her great team last year. Rogers will be remembered here as the Carlyle Indian man who was in the line-up against Nebraska, when our team won from Minnesota.
