New Cadet Appointments.

Yesterday evening at drill the appointments of commissioned officers to companies B and E were read, confirming exactly the statements made in yesterday's Nebraskan. The order was as follows:

Special orders No. 13:
The following promotions are hereby made in the battalion, to take effect this date:
Captain L. P. Hewitt to be cadet major.
First Lieutenant B. G. Lewis to be cadet captain, and assigned to company E.
Second Lieutenant O. A. Mather to be first lieutenant and assigned to company E.

The above cadet officers will be obeyed and respected accordingly.
By order of Captain Chase.

It will be seen that no provision is made in the above order for the transfer of Lieutenant Beers to company B to fill the place made vacant by Captain Lewis. Lieutenant Beers, however, drilled with company B last night and will continue to do so. He is an old company B man, being transferred into company D only last fall, and will have no difficulty in fitting into his new position.

Universal regret was expressed by university people in general over the dissolution of company D yesterday. Ever since its founding the organization has held the reputation of being one of the best drilled companies in the battalion, and has held the Omaha cup for the two past years.

Captain Chase expressed much regret yesterday at being forced to divide company D, in an interview with a Nebraskan reporter. He spoke of the brilliant record of the company in past years, and declared that its loss was a serious obstacle to the general efficiency of the battalion. The measure was unavoidable and necessary, however, in spite of its weakening effect.

The organization of company D will be continued this semester in company E. Company D will be revived next fall, and her officers chosen from company E's officers this year.

The Olympic Games.

Two notices from the physical culture department of the St. Louis Exposition have been sent out, announcing the Olympic handicap meet and the Olympic college championship contest, both to be held in the stadium at the Exposition this summer. The Olympic meet will occur Saturday, May 21, 1904. The following handicap events are open to amateur athletes of the world registered with A. A. U. and Y. M. C. A.: 100, 220, 440, and 880-yard dashes; two-mile run; 120 and 220 hurdles; pole-vault; running high jump and running broad jump; throwing 56-pound weight; 15-pound hammer; putting 16-pound shot, and throwing discus. Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the winners of the first, second and third places, respectively in each event. Entrance fees of fifty cents will be charged, fees to accompany all entries. Right is reserved to reject any entry. Entries for this meet will close May 1, 1904.

The contest for the college gymnasium championships will be held Thursday and Friday, May 12th and 13th. The following events are open for college men of the world: Parallel bars, horizontal bars, flying rings, tumbling, side-horse, and club-swinging; also a contest for the all-around college gymnasium championship. A gold medal emblematic of the Olympic college championship contest will be awarded to the winner in each event, a silver medal to the second, and a bronze medal to the third. A separate set of championship medals will be given for the all-round college championships. An entrance fee of one dollar will be charged in each event, and one dollar entrance fee for the all-round championship contest. Entries will close April 25, 1904. All applications should be addressed to James E. Sullivan, chief of the department of physical culture, Universal Exposition, St. Louis, Mo.
