An alarm of fire turned in Saturday for the Delta U house caused no little anxiety among the friends of that fraternity until it was learned the alarm was false. An 'extra' strong pipe or blast of hot air probably explains the mistake.

Mr. M. L. Lee entertained a few of his most intimate friends with a well-planned excursion to the State Farm on Saturday, March 12th. A most delightful afternoon was spent as there was no hitch in the well made arrangements. Refreshments were served in the Dairy building and the merry crowd returned about 5 o'clock.

The men of the Junior class will hold an '05 blow out next Saturday evening at the Phi Delta Chapter house.

By meeting together in this manner it is aimed to form a closer bond of acquaintance, and friendship, between the men. A reception committee of men that know how are pushing the affair and Juniors that don't go will have something to regret.

Our Married Men—Ralph Jenne.
A Freshman's Opinion—Gilman Hartigan.

Am I a Senior?—Charles Whedon.
Rambles—Connor Bliss.
Military Affairs—Lewis Hewitt.

Covers were laid for forty-five. Among the old University Phi's here for the banquet were Messrs. Tukey, Thomas, Lindquest, Mansfield and Hayward.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

All members who have not paid their Y. W. C. A. dues please see me this month any day between 12:30 and 1 p. m.—Emma Shinbur, President. 1 w

All who attended the Y. W. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon were well entertained and much profited by a talk given by Rev. Batten of the First Baptist church, who spoke on "How to make the most of life." Miss Louise Goodruff sang.

The concert given by Miss Martha Tyler of St. Louis in the chapel last Saturday evening was not as well attended as the character and merit of the entertainment deserved. Miss Tyler sang bright and pleasing songs, which appealed to every one, and all present were enthusiastic in her praise.
