Professor Smith's class in Evolution of the Secondary School is now visiting in groups the various church schools in the city and vicinity, studying their curriculum, methods and aims for the purpose of comparison with other secular institutions.

The class in Current Events has been studying some very interesting topics the past few weeks. Yesterday the state of affairs in San Domingo and Hayti were discussed and last week the condition of the Negro. Next week the "Present Condition of Mormonism," will be discussed, special attention being paid to the theory of the church in regard to polygamy.

Recital Last Night.

A good sized crowd listened to the post-graduate recital of Mr. Philip Hudson last evening in Memorial hall. The recital was of about an hour and a half duration, and in it Mr. Hudson more than sustained the reputation as a finished musician that he has already secured. The production was universally commended. The program, which we reprint by request, was as follows:

- Variations and fugue on theme by Handel, Op. 24, Brahms.
- Sonata B flat minor, Op. 35; Grave—Doppio movimento. Scherzo, Marche Funebre, Presto; Chopin.
- To a Wild Rose; Autumn; Smoldering Embers; Song of the Sea; MacDowell.
- Three Night Scenes—A Night in Seville; Moorish Dance; South Sea Rhapsody; Graham Moore.
- Theme and Variations B flat, Schubert.
- March from Suite in D, Raff.

Sophomore Caps.

Owing to the misplacing or loss of the order list for Sophomore caps at Armstrong's all Sophs who have ordered caps or who wish to do so, are notified to leave their names again at Armstrongs.

This year's '06 caps have already proved an unusual success and it is desired that the new list may be forwarded to the manufacturers at once in order that the caps may be on hand when warm weather begins. The price is 75 cents.
