Minute corpuscles of non-adhering organic matter, Conjointly cause to exist unmeasurable expanse of aqueous section, And the resplendent area of dry superficial solidity. —Ex.

The Ann Arbor liverymen have entered into a combine refusing to advertise in or in any way support student publications. Some of the class organizations and societies of the University are talking of circulating a petition advocating walking to spring parties except where covered conveyances should be absolutely necessary. It is said the women students are very much interested in this retaliatory movement, and are willing to help it, along.

If you want to be in it get into a pair of Sanderson's spring shoes. They are beauties.

Don Cameron's lunch counter for good service.

Woman's Home Companion

THE IDEAL HOME MAGAZINE

Is in its twenty-eighth year; is printed on fine paper and profusely illustrated. It gives 40 to 54 pages a month, each page 11 by 16 inches, and a new and beautiful cover in colors every issue. Its editors and contributors are the most popular American writers; in short, it is the ideal family magazine, magnificently illustrated. Its departments are edited by experts and are full of interest. As a home magazine it has no superiors, and few, if any, equals.

600 Pages—1,200 Pictures

EACH PAGE IS EQUAL TO FOUR ORDINARY MAGAZINE PAGES...

Hundreds of thousands consider it a family necessity. It is clean, pure and inspiring. Its contents, while varied, are entertaining and of the highest order. It contains neither sensationalism nor provincialism.

It already has 340,000 subscribers, and this number is constantly increasing.
