Campus Gleanings.

Harry Garrett, '02, of Beatrice, was visiting friends on the campus Saturday.

The Latin club will meet for an important business meeting on Thursday at 5 p. m., room 203 U.

Miss Hartzell taught the classes of Miss Frankish at the Academy yesterday, the former being slightly attacked by illness.

D. L. Killen, president of the Killen, Warner, Stewart Mining company, of Sumpter, Ore., was visiting old university friends Saturday.

The 8 o'clock German class under Miss Kingsbury was unable to obtain admittance to the regular recitation room, so were forced to recite in the room of Professor Fossler.

Mr. Charles D. Hussey, recently appointed to student work on the international committee, Y. M. C. A., visited the university yesterday afternoon, when he interviewed a number of men interested in the association work here. Mr. Hussey is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

From a sign which misled a number of students yesterday morning, the hall was thronged by a host of Prof. Aylsworth's American History students, who were greatly overjoyed at the thought of a stereopticon lecture in lieu of the regular class work, but alas, the notice was non-official and the hopes that had been lifted to such resplendent heights were soon crushed when the professor led them in solemn file to take up the regular routine.
