Campus Gleanings.

Mr. Brady spent Sunday at Emerald.

Mr. Hussong was out of the city over Sunday.

Miss Kingsbury returned last Sunday from a trip to Kansas City.

Mr. Arends, who is taking work in the University, will leave today to attend the wedding of his brother.

The Palladian society will have a program next Friday evening instead of adjourning, as was first planned.

G. R. McDonald, who is principal of the Fifth schools, was in the city over Sunday visiting with university friends.

Misses Zola Dellecker, Alice Towne and Nellore Wilson will be the guests of honor at a Sunday breakfast given by Mrs. Hodgman.

There will be an open meeting of the botanical seminar on Thursday afternoon of this week in the botanical lecture room in Nebraska Hall.

Considerable complaint has arisen over the fact that the Company B hop occurs the same evening as the big basketball game. We are informed, however, that dancing will not begin at the hop until 9:15 p. m., thus permitting the student body to take in both attractions.
