She lost her head when he proposed,
But he, a trifle bolder,
Made search for it distractedly,
And found it on his shoulder.—Ex.

Forty football candidates have reported for spring practice at Yale.

The battalion at Wisconsin will have dress parade once a week hereafter.

The Woman's League at Minnesota recently gave a carnival, at which the sum of $150 was realized.

The athletic board of control of Northwestern university has abandoned the annual Thanksgiving football game.

Minnesota has decided not to send a contingent of cadets to the World's Fair, as but few of the men showed a desire to go.

Bad weather has interfered with baseball matters at Minnesota, and the team has been obliged to cancel many of its practice games.

A party of 150 engineers from Illinois recently made a trip to St. Joseph to inspect the track laying machine in operation on the C. & E. I. railroad.

For the purpose of accommodating Princeton men who will visit the St. Louis exposition, a "Princeton House" has been secured near the exposition grounds.

As an innovation, a Pan-Hellenic from was recently given at Chicago. Two hundred couples were in the grand march. This was one of the most brilliant social events ever occurring at Chicago.

Last Friday evening Northwestern defeated Michigan in debate at Chicago. The question was "Resolved, That an attempt to incorporate trade unions is futile, inadequate and inappropriate." This gives Northwestern the championship in the Central Debating League.

By a recent act of the faculty athletic committee of the University of Pennsylvania all special students will be ruled out of athletics, no matter how many hours of work they take each week. This will keep from playing at least 25 per cent of the men who make up the teams.—The Athenaeum.

The state legislature has done the proper thing in refusing to cut down the appropriations for the state schools. The final vote in the senate on the appropriation stood 41 to 1 in favor of the bill. It allows the state normal $84,000, the state university $208,000, the state college $386,000. We congratulate our neighbors in this victory for progress.—Drake Delphic.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?
Is life worth living? Go and stand some day
Beneath the pines, where countless breezes hold
Their whispered councils. Watch the sunset's gold
Deepen until it fades into the gray
Of placid twilight. Feel the peace it brings.
Hear all the voices of the night, soft, low,
Soul-soothing. It is then we know
That life is beautiful with many things.
The love of little children, fairyland,
The noble souls that really live, and teach
Us by their living what it is to reach
Life's highest meaning, and to understand
Divinity in man. The joyous song
That cheers us on our way, the daily task
That helps and strengthens.—Oh, how can we ask
If life is worth the living!

Record of Literary References

This book will be found of indispensable value to students and teachers in their study when they desire to take notes and references on important subjects. The convenient and systematic arrangement of this record has been well commented on by eminent educators of this institution as a valuable adjunct in the student's library and study room. The purpose of the book is to aid the student in systematically arranging his notes and references in Literature, History, Science, etc., in a way that will materially help him in his studies, and facilitate his work.

What some of our leading educators say concerning the usefulness and advantages of this record:

I have examined your "Record of Literary References" and consider it of great value to teachers and advanced pupils. It is a practical aid to the reader in systematically arranging his library study so as to make it available for future use.
