Are You Going
—to—
ST. LOUIS
N. E. A.
and the WORLD'S FAIR?

Never before has the N. E. A. arranged its meeting with such wonderful opportunities for the Teacher, Instructor or Professor. The route via the Burlington will be the favorite one, as it has been heretofore.

Campus Gleanings.

Company B will have a reception tonight.

Miss Hazel Butler, of Denver, Colo., is visiting Margie Richards, at her home, 315 No. 14th St.

The Freshmen now claim the victory over the Sophomores in every game and contest of the year.

Mr. Blackman is moving from Roca to the house he recently purchased in northeast Lincoln on Douglas street.

The last regular meeting of the Pedagogical club will be held today at 7:30 p. m. in U. 212. Superintendent Stephens of the city schools will give the address of the evening.

Engineering Notes.

J. C. Stevens went to Omaha Tuesday, returning the same day.

C. W. Engle, '03, civil engineering, was in town Monday. Mr. Engle is employed in the Northwestern offices at Omaha.

According to telegraphic reports received from gauging stations on the Platte the river is now nearly as high as at any time last year. Mr. Stevens expects to measure the discharge tomorrow.

Mr. L. W. Chase has just completed the remodeling of an Otto engine for Stevens Bros., of this city. The engine was one of the oldest in use in this country, yet with the addition of a few castings the engine was modernized and made to give many times its former horse power.

The regular meeting of the Engineering society will be held Thursday evening instead of Wednesday. This is done in order that the board of editors of the annual "Nebraska Engineering," may be able to make their report. Mr. R. E. Noyes, who with Mr. C. V. Bliss, has been making a test of the Edison storage cell for their thesis, will give a short talk upon the new cell.

LOST—On athletic field, a silver watch fob, with Phi Gamma Delta pin and initials "E. S." Reward if returned to E. D. Stanley, or registrar's office.

LOST—Ribbon watch fob. Fleur de Lis buckle. Three D's on back of locket. Finder return to registrar's office or to Dale Drain and receive reward.

How about your new spring shoes? See Sanderson.

Drop into a pair of Sanderson's swell $3.50 Oxfords. They are beauties.
