NAMES LONG LIST

Preparations for the Social Event of the Year Begin Early.

President Lawrence Sidwell, of the Junior class, yesterday appointed the following persons as members of the Junior promenade committee. Inasmuch as the appointment of this committee is the most important privilege of the Junior class president, its exclusive publication in The Nebraskan will be greeted with much interest.

It was Mr. Sidwell's intention to make the committee thoroughly representative of the class as a whole, and those who have already seen the list consider that he has succeeded admirably. Although the Prom. will not occur until early next spring, the committee will probably be called to meet soon, in order to begin arrangements at once. The Junior Prom, is generally regarded as the big social event of the university year, and efforts will be made this year to make it the most successful in the history of the institu-

CHANGES IN DRILL.

Alterations are Provided for by New Regulations.

The new drill regulations, concerning which there has been so much speculation during the past week, are said to include some very radical changes, which will materially affect the drill of the university cadet battalion.

The setting up exercises have been reduced in number from seventeen to six. The companies will fall in with a distance between the back of the front rank and the breast of the rear of 40 inches. The old distance was 16 inches. The new distance will be maintained while marching in line.

The dominant idea in the new regulations is that of the squad, in close as well as extended order. The squad was important in the old regulations only in extended order.

Changes in the manuel of the piece are very few, most of them being in the school of the company, battalion drill, and extended order. The drill is somewhat simplified, and has been prepared with the idea of meeting changes necessitated by the adoption of the magazine gun, but may be made to conform with the old Springfield rifles, such as are in use in the battalion.

The new manuels will be on sale at the University Book Store by Thurs-

CLASS WILL GIVE "HOP" GRINNELL IS DEFEATED

Junior Class Will Make up the Cornhuskers Have an Easy Time '07 Cap Deficit.

Another chapter has been added to the memorable Freshman-Sophomore cap controversy of last year. It is well known that the '07 caps, which the Sophs burned last year have never them in consequence. Yesterday morning President Sidwell, of the class of 1906, appointed a committee to devise some means for clearing the fair name of the class, and the committee has decided that the best way out of the difficulty will be to give a dance next Friday evening.

For this purpose the art room of the library has already been secured. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock sharp, and everyone is advised to get their tickets at once, because a quarter extra semaphore at the end of the first half.

As a special inducement, it is announced that Art Schreiber and Cy Mason will be there, and will pose in their favorite act, entitled "Holding the Sack." An effort will also be made to secure the sole extant '07 cap for exhibition, guarded by one of the cops that rescued Standeven. No extra charge will be made for Freshmen and children, and all Sophomores are cordially invited.

The committee in charge is as follows:

Harriet Hutton Joyce Broady. George Abel. Luella Lansing. A. G. Schriber. Cy Mason.

A. E. Meade. E. D. Skeen. J. D. Pollock.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES.

New Additions to Ranks of Presidential Aspirants.

The already swelling ranks of aspirants for Freshman class honors received two new recruits yesterday afternoon. Mr. Byron Eaton, of Omaha, and Mr. Leslie Mills, of Alma, are the gentlemen in question. It is reported that neither gentleman has the support of the Sophomores, but Mr. Mills is recognized as a person of great weight among his classmates and ought to prove a formidable candidate. Mr Eaton is supposed to be the choice of the Omaha freshmen and will doubtless poll a large vote. Mr. Mills has not authorized the use of his name in connection with the presidency, but he is being mentioned for the position much more frequently than anyone else.

It is rumored that the two upper classes will combine to aid the Freshmen, should the Sophomores attempt to bring about a repetition of last year's disturbance this fall. >

With the Collegians.

Saturday's game gave the rooters their first opoprtunity to get a line on the real strength Coach Booth has so far developed in the varsity, and results were very satisfactory. In spite been paid for and a little matter of of the fact that a wet field made Beneabout $75 is still outstanding against dict's end runs almost impossible, and rendered long gains very difficult, Nebraska piled up 46 against Grinnell, whose team, with the exception of cenfer, was but little lighter than the varsity.

> Less than three minutes were required for the first touchdown to be made and goal kicked, and then it was only a question of how big a score the varsity would roll up.

With what so far seems the regular team, 28 points were registered on the will be charged for all tickets sold at . In the second half, with new men the door. taking the place of the regulars, all the time, only 18 points were scored. The left side of the line seemed all that could be desired, but too often the men trom Iowa found weak spots in Nebraska's right. Evidently this is where material is needed, but quantity of men will yield quality and some of the subs Saturday held their own like veterans.

Behind the line excellent work was done and Glen Mason, Bender and Eager rarely failed to gain when called upon.

Benedict's punts were excellent. In spite of a muddy, slippery oval, his kicks averaged good distances and he kicked nearly every goal.

The tackling of the varsity was very satisfactory, considering the condition of the field, Grinnell men very rarely returning a punt or kick-off five yards.

During the second haif Richardson went in for Borg, and Speer, Denslow, Ryan, Standeven, Barwick, Fenlon, Marsh and Weller formed a new lineup before the game ended.

Bender made two touchdowns, Cy Mason, Eager, Barta, Johnson and Weller one each. Twenty-five and twenty-minute halves were played. Cornell officiated as referee; Erwin, umpire, and Harry Tukey head lines-

Under the leadership of Ramsey and Allen the men in the rooters' section did very effective work. The new yell is a good one and next time three times as many men should turn out with megaphones. A true sportsmanlike spirit was shown by the rooters being almost impartial in the yells given, Nebraska yells alternately with that of Grinnell with even regularity.

Among Nebraska's opponents for this season Illinois succeeded in defeating Knox by a score of 11-0. Minnesota ran up 65 on Carelton and Iowa piled an 88 score up on Cornell.

Last night the usual punting and catching was the order. Candidates for line positions were coached pretty thoroughly in blocking and charging. Cotton, drawn back to Nebraska by love for his alma mater from Yale, where he has been tearing up things in general in football, appeared in his

ALLEN IS MANAGER

Athletic Board at Last Elects a Base Ball Manager.

Also Choose Managers for Basket Ball and Track Teams.

The athletic board met in Dr. Clapp's office last night and succeeded in electing managers for the baseball, basketball and track teams. Mr. J. H. Allen was chosen manager for the baseball team, John K. Morrison, manager of the track team; Frank R. Beers, manager of the basketball team, and A. V. Heath, assistant to Mr. Morrison.

The matter in which the greatest interest had been evidenced was the baseball captaincy, for which John Bender and Clarence Steen were contending. This was again deferred, a special meeting being called for next Monday evening in Dr. Clapp's office to settle the matter.

CHANCELLOR SPEAKS.

Dr. Andrews Gives a Short Talk at Convocation.

Chancellor Andrews spoke on several matters at convocation yesterday morning. An audience of unusual proportions listened to his remarks and exhibited a lively interest in what he had

Dr. Andrews urged greater promptness among the students, not only to their classes, but to lectures and less important matters as well. He also entered a plea for greater cleanliness on the campus and especially emphasized the fact that the building and general confusion now going on on the campus did not furnish an excuse for carelessness, but added a greater obligation for further exertions. He desired greater care in the buildings as well, particularly the library, and called attention to the rule prohibiting moking on the campus, this res tion not having been very strictly observed so far this year.

Unnecessary roughness among the men, particularly in connection with fraternity initiations, was especially warned against. The chancellor also concurred in the remarks made by Dean Davis last Monday in regard to 'rushing," asserting that the end of the year or semester, or at least, next month would be a much better time for such ceremonies, conducing to a better quality of membership for the fraternities and sororities and to the general dignity and comfort of the student body.

The tendency of some of the fraternities to exalt the social side of college life, over the more serious matters the chancellor believed to be a mistake. Social functions should be merely incidental to study, he declared, and should not be unduly indulged in.

In conclusion, Dr. Andrews advised more exercise among the students as an invaluable aid to clear study and general health. "Without it," he said, success in your studies is impossible:"

The constitution of the college settlement organization was also adopted at the meeting, and Prof. H. R. Smith elected as member. Tomorrow's conwocation will be addressed by Professor Bessey.
