Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Last Friday night shortly after 8:00 a "dripping" procession of girls began to enter the home of Governor Mickey. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors and faculty ladies present.

Considering the weather the attendance was very good. Those who went regardless of the elements went with the proper spirit and everybody helped everybody else to have a good time. Ice was served with Miss Alice Howell at the punch-bowl, and after a little jollification in the way of recitations and chorus singing, the girls went home convinced that a reception on a rainy night can be made very successful.

SUNDAY MEETING.

The Y. M. and Y. W. associations held their first union meeting of the year on Sunday afternoon, in Memorial Hall. A Elmer Turner, '03, of Omaha, addressed the students on the subject of Christian missions. His talk was interesting and inspiring. He showed that a knowledge of Christian missions is essential to the highest culture.

Mr. Hilton, another former Y. M. C. A. worker in the university, sang two solos.

The mission study courses were ably presented by A. W. Billing; then those who wished to do so were given the opportunity to register for one of the courses.

The meeting was well attended, and very successful.

MISSION STUDY SCHEDULE.

I.—Effective Workers in Needy Fields. Leader, Miss Edyph Ward; Monday, 5-6.

II.—The Price of Africa. Leader, Miss Alice Towne; Wednesday, 5-6.

III.—The New Era in the Philippines. Mr. Ozman; Tuesday, 8-9 p. m.

IV.—India and Christian Opportunity. Miss Myra Withers; Wednesday, 5-6.

V.—Protestant Missions in South America. Miss Pearl Archibald; Thursday, 5-6.

VI.—Dawn on the Mills of Tang. P. W. Harrison; Tuesday, 9-10 p. m.
