A. G. SPALDING & BROS.

Largest Manufacturers in the World of Official Athletic Supplies.

The football supplies manufactured by A. G. SPALDING & BROS. are the best that can absolutely be produced; they are of superior make; they have stood the test for over twenty-eight years, and are used by all intercollegiate, interscholastic and prominent football teams of the country. No expense is spared in making the goods bearing the Spalding Trade Mark as near perfect as it is possible to produce a manufactured article, and if it bears this mark of perfection it is the best.

SPALDING'S OFFICIAL FOOT BALL GUIDE. Edited by Walter Camp. Contains the NEW RULES FOR 1904. Special articles on the game. It is, in fact, a complete encyclopedia of the game. Price 10 cents.

SPALDING'S HOW TO PLAY FOOT BALL. Edited by Walter Camp. Newly revised for 1904. Undoubtedly the best book ever published on the game, for it contains all a beginner should know, and many interesting facts for the experienced player. Price 10 cents.

"If it pertains to athletics, we make it."

Campus Gleanings

C. P. Craft, '03, law '04, was visiting friends on the campus yesterday.

W. E. Standeven has been appointed coach of the Sophomore football team.

DEAN BESSEY will speak at convocation this morning on "Vancouver Island."

Frederick Graves, of Ord, Neb., is visiting his brother, Elliot V. Graves, this week.

Several lockers for students' books will soon be placed in the basement of the library.

The Ashland High School football team will play the scrubs on the campus Saturday.

RECEPTION TO STUDENTS at First Presbyterian church Friday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock.

The new military regulations text books have arrived and are on sale at the University Book Store.

THE JEFFERSONIAN Democratic club of the university will meet in the law lecture room this evening at 7:30 for the election of officers and a political rally.

Professor Bessey is preparing a series of illustrated articles on the St. Louis Exposition for the Twentieth Century Farmer of Omaha.

SEASON FOOTBALL TICKETS have been withdrawn from sale. Those selling on commission are requested to report to the manager in the Y. M. C. A. rooms from 11 to 11:30 o'clock today.

Professor Bessey's class in systematic botany has been having trouble on account of a conflict with drill under the recent order. This class has had its lecture hour at 5 o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays for many years.

J. D. Ringer, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., reports an increased demand for book lockers in the Y. M. C. A. rooms since Librarian Wyer has seen fit to levy a tax on all property left in the library room. These lockers rent for 50 cents.

Professor Fogg had quite a surprise the other day, when three young ladies walked into the classroom to take up the work in rhetoric 13. Professor Fogg says that this is the first time he has had any young ladies as students in this course.

CHANCELLOR ANDREWS will speak under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus at Lyceum Hall, Thirteenth and M streets, this evening. University people are extended an invitation to attend the lecture. Admission free.

The department of American History has secured a new stereopticon with gas tank and fixtures complete, and will begin its use immediately in illustrated class lectures. The whole apparatus cost about $50, and will be a great convenience to the department, something of the sort having been needed for years. It may be shifted from room to room as occasion may require.
