Editorial Remarks

With the Minnesota game—the biggest of the season—but a week off, scarcely anything has been done in the way of rooting. The Nebraskan is well aware that this is no new subject—we have had much to say on it ever since the season began—but it is plain to see that better rooting must be the program from now on or disastrous things are likely to happen. Tomorrow the hardest part of the schedule begins, and from then till Thanksgiving there will be no rest for the team. A harder schedule we never had, yet the rooters—if there are any—face the situation as clammy as though defeat were impossible, and the team not requiring their support.

We have no desire to disparage the efforts of the rooting leaders. They have done all in their power to arouse a little more enthusiasm. The weather, too, has afforded some excuse for inaction. But, if our exchanges furnish any criterion, our team is not only to meet the stiffest schedule in its history, but will have to face such organized rooting as we at Nebraska never dreamed of. Minnesota is loaded for us—Iowa is loaded for us—Haskell will even have the aid of Kansas yells in her rooting section. The team shows more evidence every day of the stuff that has won for Nebraska before, but where are the rooters? Are they dead ones?

Glee Club Meets.

The first of the glee club trials was held last night in U. 106. A good number of voices were tested. Saturday evening at 7 in U. 106 the testing will be continued and the successful candidates will be announced some time next week. Saturday evening is the last opportunity for try-out, and everybody who has a voice should come.

Soph—Did you make a place on the glee club at the try-out last night?
Fresh—Yes, made first base on four bawls.

MEN'S MASS MEETING.

Dr. J. L. Green Will Address the University Men Sunday.

At the men's meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Memorial Hall, Dr. J. L. Green will deliver his well-known address entitled "A Thing Every Man Ought to Know." This is an exceedingly strong and valuable address for every man.

Being an authority in his line of work, Dr. Green speaks, carrying conviction to every person hearing him. Years of experience with patients defective in mind has given him many facts to which those of sound mind might do well to give their attention.

Dr. Green is a man of pleasing personality, keen in intellect and an excellent speaker. He is possessed of remarkable magnetic power, as his position demands in his dealings with the insane.

Mr. H. H. Husted, a talented violinist, will render some special music. Every man invited.

B. B. Gillespie, manager of the $2.50 Hat Store, opened up a bunch of dollar Oxford shirts this week that are particularly good for student wear in that they forget to wear out.

The School of Music Cafe serves a splendid meal at very moderate prices. Join the university patrons in lunch today.
