

A. G. SPALDING & BROS.

Largest Manufacturers in the World of Official Athletic Supplies.

The football supplies manufactured by A. G. SPALDING & BROS. are the best that can absolutely be produced; they are of superior make; they have stood the test for over twenty-eight years, and are used by all inter-collegiate, interscholastic and prominent football teams of the country. No expense is spared in making the goods bearing the Spalding Trade-Mark as near perfect as it is possible to produce a manufactured article, and if it bears this mark of perfection it is the best.

SPALDING'S OFFICIAL FOOT BALL GUIDE, Edited by Walter Camp. Contains the NEW RULES FOR 1904. Special articles on the game. It is, in fact, a complete encyclopedia of the game. Price 10 cents.

SPALDING'S HOW TO PLAY FOOT BALL, Edited by Walter Camp. Newly revised for 1904. Undoubtedly the best book ever published on the game, for it contains all a beginner should know, and many interesting facts for the experienced player. Price 10 cents.

"If it pertains to athletics, we make it."

The chess club held their second meeting last Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

The club now has eighteen members and expects to have upward of forty by the end of the week.

A temporary organization was effected. O. A. Ellis, president; Steckleberg, vice-president, and Clark, secretary and treasurer.

Two committees were appointed, one to represent to the chancellor the need of a room on the campus for club purposes; another to draft a set of rules for the club.

The club is already a success and players are invited to attend the meeting to be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Tuesday evening at 7:30.

When the services of the Cadet Band are required by any organization in the university, notice must be given to the business manager three days prior to such event. The band is always willing to do its share toward pushing student enterprise, but in the past not enough care has been taken to let the men have time enough. It requires a certain amount of time to get all the men together, and this must be remembered when the band is wanted.
