Editorial Remarks

"DEAD ONES" IN THE FACULTY.

The Nebraskan is of the opinion that one of the chief impediments to the existence of a perfect college spirit at Nebraska is the lack of enthusiasm and pride in the university which exists in the ranks of the faculty. There are a few members of our faculty, it is true, who are for the interests of the university heart and soul, but there are others, alas, who are not. An example of what we mean appeared at the football rally—it did not deserve the name—yesterday morning, when one of our most prominent professors, a man who has not neglected to frequently call for support from the student body for various causes in which he was personally interested, threw as effectual a cold blanket on what enthusiasm existed in the meeting as could be imagined.

If our faculty members, who are expected to be, in a way, examples for university men to follow, are such "dead ones" as this, what can we expect of the student body? If college spirit does not exist in the faculty, how can it be expected among the undergraduates?

The Saturday sales at the Two Fifty Hat store are eye openers for students. It is always New, snappy goods on sale, and always at nearly half price. Something is on every Saturday.

Pyrography Material—Hand Mirrors, Collar and Cuff Boxes, Photograph Boxes, Pipe Racks, Wall Pockets, Match Safes, Burned Leather Novelties at the Lincoln Book Store.

LETTER FROM GOLDEN.

Old Uni. Man wants to See Iowa Beaten.

The Nebraskan has received the following letter from J. P. Golden, '03, who is now studying in the school of mines at Boulder, Colorado:

Golden, Colo.,
Daily Nebraskan:
I received the paper today that I have been waiting so long for and I wish I were back at Lincoln again, so I could have taken part in that reception given the team on its return from the big game Saturday. The writeup of the game and the reception were certainly fine.

"Sunday morning the first thing I made for the paper full of hope, because I knew Nebraska would be heard from and when I saw the score, 16-12 I knew that Nebraska grit had again won over overwhelming odds. It was a victory for Nebraska, though she lost.

"I saw the Colorado game out at Boulder and though keenly disappointed because we lost yet I knew Nebraska would be heard from just the same. And so when I read the account of the game Sunday, I knew it was the old story of Cornhusker spirit. No one who read of the Minnesota game two years ago or saw the Haskell game three year ago or the Kansas game last year and now this great game after a defeat by a weaker team, will ever say that Nebraska gives up.

"I have shown the paper to half the mines boys and am still for Nebraska in spirit and I only want to be in Lincoln next Saturday to see them crush Iowa.

"Yours,
"J. P. Golden, '03."

IMPORTANT MEETING.

Dr. McClary's Talk to Be a Good One.

The meeting at the Oliver tomorrow afternoon will be one of the most important of its kind ever held in the city. Dr. Thomas McClary, whose ability as a speaker and lecturer is recognized all over the country has been secured. He is in constant demand for lectures as is shown by the following: "You seem to have touched the hearts of New England people and they want you back again. I am positive that I am going to fall short of your time. Believe I could book six weeks easily. K. M. White, Boston, Mass. A. H. Godard, general secretary, Y. M. C. A. at New Britain, Conn., in a letter to Dr. McClary says—"Come again again! Old New England needs the doctrine you carry in your medicine chest."

Some fine special music has been secured. Miss Mabel Axtell and Mr. L. Clark Oberlies will render some choice selections.
